Central Jersey briefcase: Christina Boulougouris joins Norris McLaughlin

JUNE 25, 2007

SOMERVILLE -- Locally-based law firm Norris McLaughlin & Marcus P.A. has announced that Christina Boulougouris has joined the firm as an associate.

A resident of New York City, Boulougouris will work in the firm's Real Estate and Cooperative & Condominium Law Groups. She will work out of the firm's New York City office.

Boulougouris represents individuals and business entities in the purchase and sale of residential and commercial real estate, and negotiates and facilitates refinances, commercial leases and subleases.

Prior to working with Norris McLaughlin, Boulougouris was a senior associate at a New York City firm where she served as general counsel for cooperative housing corporations and condominium associations throughout New York City.

Boulougouris is admitted to the New York State Bar and the U.S. District Court for the eastern and southern districts of New York.

She earned a law degree from St. John's University School of Law in 1994 and a bachelor's degree in political science from the State University of New York at Binghamton in 1991.
