Students should arrive at the Law School early enough to allow time for being seated in the room assigned for their examinations. Students will not be admitted to any examination later than 30 minutes after the regular starting time, nor may any student leave before that time, without permission of the Administrator on Duty.

An unexcused failure to take an examination will result in a grade of "F" for the course.

EMERGENCY CLOSING AND HARDSHIP DATES: The make-up day for Hardship Absences is Thursday, December 18, 2008. Any examinations that are cancelled by the Law School due to inclement weather or other emergency situation will be administered on Friday, December 19, 2008.

INFORMATION CONCERNING USE OF LAPTOPS FOR EXAMS

During the first weeks of the semester, please check the TV Monitor and your St. John's email for information concerning applying to use laptops for exams. Students must apply every semester, even if you have used SecurExam in prior terms.
