III. Career Development

1. Where do you want to be in two years? Five years? How can this position better prepare you for your career choice after college? Why?

2. Your strengths include:

3. What areas do you need to develop to meet your career goals?

4. Have you met with a Career Advisor in the Career Center?
   (If no, please add this as a Development Goal to your Action Plan for the next appraisal period – See section IV.)

IV. Action Plan for Next Appraisal Period (If Applicable)

The reviewer, in conjunction with the student worker, should develop an action plan. The Development Goals are areas that the student has self identified for development purposes, or are areas the supervisor believes will enable the student worker to do his/her job better, or believes will help the student worker obtain future goals. If the student has not met with a Career Advisor, please add this as a Development Goal for the next appraisal period.
