SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The LL.M. Program awards a limited number of scholarships to outstanding students each year. These candidates will be evaluated by the faculty on a case-by-case basis. Scholarship criteria include academic performance at undergraduate and law school, experience in practice (where applicable), published and unpublished written work and personal interview. Emphasis will be placed on the applicants having achieved an outstanding academic record in law school and on the applicant’s employment history.

If you wish to apply for a scholarship, please complete this form and submit it to The Transnational Programs Office, LL.M. Center. Your application materials will be the primary basis for the decision, but you may submit additional materials with this form.
