Discover the World: Europe Booklist
Fall 2015

PARIS:

ART 1775: Art and Architecture in France
Course reader provided. Students are responsible for the cost of transportation to/from museum visits as applicable in lieu of a textbook (estimated cost 40€) and a small fee may be required for photocopying of handouts.

ECO 1320: Economics of Poverty and Income Inequality
Course readings available online.

THE 2810: Religions of the World
Course readings available online. A small fee may be required for site visits and guest lecturers.

PHI 3000: Philosophy: Metaphysics
Course reader provided. A small fee may be required for photocopying of handouts.

FRE 1010: French 1
Course reader provided. A small fee may be required for photocopying of handouts.

ROME:

ITA 1010: Italian Level 1
Note: Workbook not required.

ART 1795 City of Rome
No books required. Students are responsible for the cost of entrance fees to museums in lieu of a textbook (estimated cost 20€) and a small fee may be required for photocopying of handouts.

THE 3305: Moral Theology of the Marketplace
The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church. This is available online.

IB 3341: Principles of International Business
Note: Must be the 9th edition
SEVILLE:

LAC 1000: Language and Culture of Spain
• Module 1: No textbook required.
• Module 2: No textbook required.
• Module 3: No textbook required.

THE 2850: Intro to Islam
An Introduction to Islam
David Waines
Cambridge University Press, Nov 6, 2003

PHI 2200: Ethics
No text book required.

*For any courses not listed here, you may need to check the other Fall 2015 booklists on the Accepted Students page.