International Students Requesting Invitation to Commencement

- Do you have family or guests coming from outside of the United States that need travel documentation? If yes, please visit the Registrar's Office to complete a request form.

Academic Attire Ordering

All graduates must register and order academic attire at the same time through the University Information System (UIS). Wearing academic attire (cap, gown and hood) is both a tradition and a requirement to participate in the Commencement Exercises. The graduate's academic attire will serve to admit the graduate to the assembly location.

There is no charge for academic attire and students may keep their attire as a souvenir gift from St. John's University. For apparel under your attire, dress with an eye to comfort and the weather. Sunglasses and sunscreen could also prove useful. It is strongly recommended that you not bring personal belongings to the ceremony.

Tickets

All guests are required to present a ticket for entry to the Queens Undergraduate Commencement Exercises on the Great Lawn or simulcast location. Children under the age of two do not require a ticket; however they must be seated on an adult's lap. Seating for guests is on a first-come, first-serve basis. Seats cannot be saved by any means other than someone sitting in the seat. As the ceremony is heavily attended, we recommend that family and guests arrive early and are seated on the lawn at least 1 hour prior to the start of the procession, or by 8:45 a.m. the latest.

If a ticket is lost or stolen, a report should be made with the Office of Public Safety. All tickets reported lost or stolen will be voided and guests will not be permitted to enter the ceremony with a voided ticket. Lost or stolen tickets will not be replaced.

Important Notice

The selling or buying of Commencement tickets is strictly prohibited. Please be cautious of offers to sell or buy Commencement tickets. Tickets hold no official resale value and may be an unauthorized copy, therefore deemed unusable and denied on Commencement day. Tickets are solely for the purpose of allowing the relatives and friends of graduating students to attend the Queens Undergraduate Commencement Exercises.

Any students involved in the selling or buying of Commencement tickets will face disciplinary actions and may be prohibited from participating in Commencement activities.

Baccalaureate Mass ~ Open to all Graduating Students

Saturday, May 18, 2019

4 p.m. (Doors open at 3 p.m.)

St. Thomas More Church

The Baccalaureate Mass is an opportunity for the University Community to gather with you and your families to give thanks for all of the gifts and blessings you have received from God. It is also our chance to pray for you and to ask God's blessing upon you as you move into the next phase of your life.

Mass Tickets and Seating

- Mass tickets can be picked up beginning in May in the Office of Campus Ministry, Marillac Hall, Rm. 239 during regular business hours OR during Academic Attire Distribution.
- Admission is by ticket only.
- Seating is on a first-come, first serve basis and will be based on the order of arrival.
- Seats may not be saved.
- Graduates are asked to wear their academic attire to Mass. The hood may be worn, but we ask that graduates not wear their cap to Mass.
- Graduates should sit with their families during Mass.

For more information regarding Mass tickets, please contact the Office of Campus Ministry at 718-990-6255.

Participate in Mass

If you would like to participate in the Mass in a ministerial role, such as a lector, extraordinary minister of communion, candle bearer or gift bearer, or if a graduate or member of a graduate's family is a Catholic Priest and would like to concelebrate the Mass, please contact Dennis Gallagher at 718-990-2125 or e-mail gallagd1@stjohns.edu.

Seating

Duration of Ceremony

- Great care has been taken to ensure the exercises are completed as quickly and smoothly as possible. The exercises are expected to last approximately 2 ½ hours. Graduates and guests are asked to please show respect for all of their fellow classmates and remain until the end of the ceremony and the student recession has ended.

Calling of Names

- Graduates' names will be scrolled on the large viewing screens. As the graduate's name is announced, their name will appear on the screen and the graduate will begin to walk across the stage to greet their dean.
- Graduates are expected to return to their seats for the remainder of the ceremony and to process out together with their fellow classmates.

Ceremony Photography and Video

- There will be professional photographers from Grad Images® taking photographs of the graduates (see pg. 12 for details).
- The ceremony will be captured on video and made available for purchase following the ceremony (see pg. 12 for details).
- Guests will not be able to approach the stage area or graduate seating area prior to the start of the ceremony or for the duration of the ceremony for any reason, including photography and videotaping.

Web Viewing

- The Commencement Exercises will be streamed live at www.stjohns.edu for those who are unable to attend the ceremony in person.

Public Safety

- Please only bring necessary items with you on the day of Commencement. Please review the list below for items that are NOT allowed at the ceremony:
 - Backpacks
 - Balloons
 - Weapons
 - Alcoholic beverages
 - Sealed packages of any kind
 - Aerosol cans or noisemaking devices
 - Any materials constituting unauthorized advertising or promotion
 - Personal folding chairs
 - Laser pointing devices
 - Strollers
 - Umbrellas
 - Flags, banners, or signs
 - Bottles or cans (glass or metal)
 - Animals (unless a service animal)
 - No handbags or tote bags bigger than 10"x10"x10"
 - Drones

Lost and Found

- The Office of Public Safety will collect and hold any items that are lost or found. If you need to report or find a lost item, please see a Public Safety Officer.

Inclement Weather Plan

- The Commencement Exercises will be held on the Great Lawn, rain or shine.
- If it is raining or rain is in the forecast for Commencement day, graduates and guests should come prepared with the appropriate rain gear. Graduates and guests will receive a poncho if it is raining; guests are advised to also bring raincoats and something to cover the seat of the lawn chair. Graduates should note that umbrellas will not be permitted on stage.
- If the ceremony is underway and severe weather conditions exist, the ceremony may be abbreviated and the calling of student names and the greeting of deans on stage may be omitted from the program. If the ceremony is abbreviated, graduates and guests should follow instructions as announced. It is advised that graduates prearrange a meeting place with family and guests in case the ceremony is abbreviated.
- If the ceremony cannot be held on the Great Lawn due to extreme or dangerous weather, the ceremony may be cancelled or postponed. No indoor facility on campus can accommodate the graduating class and thousands of guests. Every reasonable effort will be made to hold the ceremony as planned.

For the most up to date information regarding changes to the Commencement Exercises, please visit www.stjohns.edu. Graduates will receive a text message on the University's text messaging system if there is a change in the ceremony. If you haven't already done so, please sign up for the text messaging service via the University Information System.

Keepsake Items

International Stoles

- International stoles represent the country and academic accomplishments of a student who has studied abroad or is studying in the United States. Individual students can wear a stole at Commencement to show pride in their accomplishment. Please note these stoles are not meant to represent your country of origin.
- If you studied abroad and/or are international students studying here in the United States, you will be eligible to purchase an international stole during Academic Attire Distribution (see pg. 6). The international stoles will be available for purchase at the Herff Jones table for $30. Please note that if you have studied in more than one country, you may select only one international stole to wear at Commencement.
- The international stoles that will be available for purchase are as follows:
 - Argentina, Ecuador, France, Greece, Ireland, Italy, and Spain

Stole of Gratitude

- The stole of gratitude can be worn during the Commencement Exercises.
- After the ceremony, traditionally the new graduate presents the stole of gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support, someone who has provided them with wisdom, guidance, and words of support or with financial assistance.
- The stole of gratitude is available for purchase during Academic Attire Distribution directly from Herff Jones for $30.
