Proof of high school graduation includes a final, high school transcript with date of graduation; a state-issued diploma; or the GED (General Education Diploma) or other state-approved equivalency assessment through TASC (Test Assessing Secondary Completion). In-state homeschool students must submit an official document from the state Department of Education or the superintendent of their school district that attests that the homeschool education is equivalent to a high school diploma. Out-of-state homeschool students and students completing an online high school degree must submit a copy of their state-issued diploma or obtain a high School Equivalency diploma.*
