

GLOBAL DESTINATION COURSE

DUBLIN, IRELAND - SPRING 2022

ACC 638 Business Combinations

Travel to Dublin for 8 days in May 2022 with Dr. Joseph Trainor, where accepted students will participate in a hybrid course (first class meets starting 4/1/22 on the Queens Campus). This exciting program, will provide you with an opportunity to meet company executives and government officials, allowing you to understand international accounting and explore the rich culture of Ireland.

Travel Dates: May 3-11, 2022

Credit Hours: Satisfies 3 credit hours

Eligibility Criteria: Successful completion of ACC 3373 Intermediate Accounting III or ACC 630 FIN Reporting: Special Topics

Program Fee: $1650* (not including airfare)

Confirmed students will receive a partial Dean's Scholarship Once approved and upon being registered into the class, you will be charged the program fee and will then receive a partial credit on your account in the form of a Dean's Scholarship.

Contact: Dr. Joseph Trainor trainorj@stjohns.edu
Ms. Lina Cajiao-Quiroz cajiao@stjohns.edu

For more information or to apply visit: www.stjohns.edu/tobingdc