

Application Instructions

Instructions: St. John's University School of Law

St. John's University School of Law welcomes your application and seeks to make every effort to ensure that the application process is as straightforward and clear as possible. Please contact us at lawinfo@stjohns.edu or 718-990-6474 if you have any questions or if you need additional information.

Application Dates

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. Applicants seeking to begin their legal studies in Fall 2022 should submit application materials by March 1 to receive priority consideration. Applications will be considered when all application requirements are met and applicants will be notified as decisions are made. Applications received after the March 1 priority date will be considered and decisions rendered on a space-available basis. Please note there are different deadlines for early decision programs. In addition, applicants interested in receiving housing priority should apply as early as possible because the housing priority deposit deadline is April 1.

- Application Priority Date: March 1, 2022
- Honors Early Decision Program Deadlines: October 1, November 1, December 1 or January 1
- Regular Early Decision (R.E.D.) Program Deadline: January 7, 2022
- Red Storm Scholars Special Admission Program: February 1, 2022

Undergraduate Transcript Requirements

Incoming students must provide official transcripts from all previous colleges and universities attended, including a final transcript showing conferral of an undergraduate degree. Official transcripts submitted to the LSAC Credential Assembly Service are sufficient for these purposes. Pursuant to the American Bar Association Standards and Rules of Procedure for Approval of Law Schools, students who do not submit such transcripts by October 15th of their year of enrollment will be withdrawn from the program, unless the Law School, through the Assistant Dean for Students, grants a reasonable extension for extraordinary circumstances where, through no fault of the student, he or she was unable to procure a transcript in time. If such extraordinary circumstances are present, documentation will be placed in the student's file.

Equality of Opportunity

St. John's University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex (including sexual harassment and sexual violence), sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression, disability, religion, age, status in the uniformed services of the United States (including veteran status), marital status, status as a victim of domestic violence, citizenship status, genetic predisposition or carrier status in its programs and activities as required by Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Amendments Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VI or Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and other applicable statutes and University policies.

Social Security Numbers

St. John's University School of Law requires your Social Security Number (SSN) or LSAC account number in order to access your Credential Assembly Service report. St. John's University collects students' SSNs in accordance with federal regulation relating to educational tax credits which requires all postsecondary institutions to report students' SSNs to the Internal Revenue Service. The SSN is also required for federal financial purposes and for enrollment verification and reporting for all Veterans Administration beneficiaries.

Bar Admission

Applicants who intend to practice law should be aware that admission to the bar in all states involves character, fitness and other qualifications. Applicants are encouraged to determine what those requirements are in the state(s) in which they intend to practice by consulting the website of the National Conference of Bar Examiners at www.ncbex.org. Applicants to law school should contact the official bar admission agency in the jurisdiction where they plan to practice. Initially, it is important to determine if there is a requirement to register with the agency upon entrance to law school in anticipation of applying to take a bar examination upon graduation. To prepare themselves accordingly, applicants also are advised to familiarize themselves with the rules governing admission to the bar in the jurisdictions in which they intend to practice. For those applicants who anticipate admission to the New York Bar, please be advised that you are not required to contact the State Board of Law Examiners prior to commencing law school.

Application Requirements

First-year law students applying to the JD Program are required to submit:

- A completed, signed, and dated St. John's University School of Law application form. (If applying electronically, the electronic certification suffices.)
- Credential Assembly Service registration.
- A reportable Law School Admission Test (LSAT) score or Graduate Record Examination (GRE) score.
- Personal statement - Please submit a personal statement or short essay with your application. Include your LSAC account number on it. You may write about any topic you wish. Suggested topics: your decision to pursue a career in law; your reaction to a recent current affairs event; your feelings about a particular community service or extracurricular activity with which you have been involved. Suggested length is two typed pages.
- Letters of recommendation – academic or professional (minimum of two, maximum three).
- Resume - In reverse chronological order, please include all employment, volunteer and extracurricular activities along with all educational institutions attended. Include an explanation for any gap of time (three months or more) not explained on your resume.
- If there are economic, cultural, or social factors that have been significant in your development and identity, or that have presented obstacles to you, and you wish the Admissions Committee to consider those factors in evaluating your application, please provide a supplementary statement describing these obstacles. (Optional)
- If you previously attended any law school, you must submit an addendum explaining your withdrawal. In addition you must submit a letter of good standing and an official transcript from the law school.

Information about registration with the Credential Assembly Service is available from

Standardized Test Score(s)

St. John's Law accepts LSAT, LSAT-Flex or GRE scores, as long as the score was received within five years of the expected date of entry into law school. If you have already taken the LSAT or LSAT-Flex, you must apply with your LSAT score. Applicants who elect to take the GRE (instead of the LSAT) must instruct the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send all GRE test scores from the prior 5 years. If you have also taken the GRE and would like to submit that score in addition to your LSAT score, we will accept and consider that score information along with all other application materials. Applicants who do not take the LSAT or LSAT-Flex may limit themselves from being eligible to apply to other law schools in this admission cycle as an entering student or in future admission cycles as a transfer student.

Optional Video Interview

St. John's Law has always recognized that our students are more than the sum of their standardized test score and undergraduate GPA. Unfortunately, the traditional admissions process does not always fully measure certain intangible qualities that often determine success in law school and legal practice. To address this deficiency we invite applicants to complete an optional video interview after the application is submitted. This process allows applicants to record responses to three questions which will be viewed later by the admissions committee during the review of the application. This is a unique opportunity to provide additional information about yourself and demonstrate those personal attributes we consider important, but may not already be apparent in your application. This video interview will complement the Law School's holistic approach to the application review process. Applicants receive an invitation to complete the online interview after the application is received.

Scholarship Awards

All applicants who apply regular admission to St. John's School of Law will be considered for a merit scholarship at the time of admission. No supplemental application is required. Awards range from partial to full tuition scholarships. Additional information is available <https://www.stjohns.edu/law/jd-admissions/tuition-scholarships-and-financial-aid>.

Early Decision Programs

St. John's Law offers the opportunity for students to apply through two different binding early decision programs. If admitted to St. John's Law through an early decision program you will be required to withdraw all pending applications to other law schools. If you choose to apply early decision, you must submit a signed binding decision contract along with your application.

Honors Early Decision Program

The Honors Early Decision Program is designed for students of high caliber with impressive achievements who are certain that St. John's Law is their top choice. Those admitted through this program will become St. Thomas More Scholars and receive many benefits, including a full-tuition scholarship (renewable annually as long as the cumulative grade point average remains above a 2.15), the ability to work closely with a designated faculty advisor, and invitations to receptions and special events. The admissions process through the Honors Early Decision Program is highly competitive.

In order to be considered for the Honors Early Decision Program you must have a complete application by the first of the month, October through January. The deadline is monthly and awards will be distributed October 2021 through January 2022, provided the program does not reach capacity earlier. Decisions will be rendered by the last day of that same month. Non-refundable seat deposits are due two weeks after the decision date.

Application due: October 1, November 1, December 1 or January 1
Notified by: October 31, November 30, December 31 or January 31
Deposit Deadline: 2 weeks after decision

*Please note, if the program reaches capacity, we will no longer consider applications for the Honors Early Decision program and therefore it is advantageous to apply as early as possible.

If admitted through the Honors Early Decision Program, the applicant must withdraw all applications pending at other law schools within five business days of admission and may not initiate applications to any other law schools. If you apply for the Honors Early Decision program and you are not admitted, your application will then be considered during the regular admission cycle in the following months.

Regular Early Decision (R.E.D.) Program

The R.E.D. Program is designed for students who are certain that St. John's Law is their top choice. This program provides applicants a means of expressing to the Admissions Committee their commitment to attend St. John's Law if admitted and gives applicants priority review and an expedited decision. There are no merit scholarships awarded to R.E.D. Program applicants. Applicants for whom financial aid is necessary should not apply through this program.

In order to be considered for the R.E.D. Program you must have a reportable LSAT score from November 2021 or earlier or GRE score from December 2021 or earlier.

Application due: January 7, 2022
Notified by: February 7, 2022
Deposit Deadline: 2 weeks after decision

Applicants who apply through this program will be issued a final decision on their application. If admitted through the R.E.D. Program, the applicant must withdraw all applications pending at other law schools within five business days of admission and may not initiate applications to any other law schools.

Special Programs

Red Storm Scholars Special Admission Program (St. John's University Undergraduate Students Only)

Application due: February 1, 2022
Notified by: March 10, 2022
Deposit Deadline: April 1, 2022

St. John's University undergraduate students may apply to St. John's Law without taking the LSAT provided they meet the following requirements:

- Must be a current St. John's University undergraduate student.
- Must have a SAT or ACT score greater than or equal to the 85th percentile in one test administration. SAT percentiles are the User Percentile. Red Storm Scholar applicants must have already taken the SAT or ACT as part of their college application to use it to apply through this program. If a student was admitted to the undergraduate program without a standardized test, the student should take the LSAT or GRE. SAT and ACT scores do not expire for our purposes. Applicants must include an unofficial standardized test grade report with their application.
- Must have an undergraduate GPA greater than or equal to 3.60 at the end of the 6th semester.
- Must NOT take the LSAT at any time. Applicants entering through the Red Storm Scholars Special Admissions Program who ignore this requirement and take the LSAT will have their admission offer reconsidered with their LSAT score.

St. John's undergraduates may apply during the senior year or during the junior year in combination with the 3+3 joint degree program. Letters of recommendation may be sent directly to St. John's Law Admissions Office or to the LSAC Credential Assembly Service.

Students admitted under this program are awarded a partial scholarship which is renewable annually, as long as the students' cumulative academic rank places in the upper 80% of the class. For additional information please contact the Admissions Office at lawinfo@stjohns.edu or 718-990-6474.

BA/BS/JD Joint Degree Program (St. John's University, Niagara University and Manhattan College)

Combined (B.A., B.S.) and St. John's Law degree programs are offered by three divisions at St. John's University - St. John's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, the College of Professional Studies and the Peter J. Tobin College of Business - Niagara University and Manhattan College. The program allows students to complete an undergraduate and law degree in six years.

To be accepted for a combined undergraduate and law degree, students must be approved by an undergraduate academic dean and need a minimum 3.5 grade-point average at the end of the 6th semester. Students also need a competitive score on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) and to demonstrate a commitment to the law and the maturity to complete an accelerated program. (Successful completion of the qualification above does not guarantee admission to the School of Law.) Interested students should contact their pre-law advisor for additional information.

Graduates of International Undergraduate Institutions Applying for a JD

St. John's University School of Law requires that your international transcripts be submitted through the Credential Assembly Service (CAS). If you completed any postsecondary work outside the US (including its territories) or Canada, you must use this service for the evaluation of your international transcripts. (The one exception to this requirement is if you completed the international work through a study abroad, consortium, or exchange program sponsored by a US or Canadian institution, and the work is clearly indicated as such on the home campus transcript.)

The service is included in the CAS registration fee. An International Credential Evaluation will be completed by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO), which will be incorporated into your CAS report.

To use CAS, log in to your LSAC online account and follow the instructions for registering for the service. Be sure to print out a Transcript Request Form for each institution and send it promptly to them. More time is usually required to receive international transcripts. Questions about CAS can be directed to LSAC at 215-968-1001, or LSACinfo@LSAC.org.

International Students

If you are accepted into the Law School and have entered the U.S. on a B-1, B-2, or F-2 visa, or in undocumented status, St. John's University School of Law cannot allow you to register for class until your visa status is changed to F-1 (international students with permission to enter the U.S. for academic purposes only). If you are not a permanent resident and plan to apply for F-1 student visa status (Form I-20), please select F-1 for Visa Type when completing your application. These applicants are eligible to receive merit scholarships but would need to arrange to pay other costs as they are not eligible to receive federal loans.

Submitting the Application

Electronic applications are accepted through LSAC. Applications submitted to LSAC for transmission to St. John's University School of Law will be considered received on the day they are electronically submitted, in the eastern time zone. Information about LSAC's electronic applications is available at LSAC.org.

Transmit completed application forms, personal statement, resume, and any supplementary statements or early decision contracts electronically via LSAC or mail them to the following address:

Decision Notification

St. John's Law Admissions Office communicates with applicants primarily through email. This includes decision notification. Please make sure your email address remains current, active, and stjohns.edu is added to your safe domain list. If your contact information changes, you must notify the Admissions Office immediately at lawinfo@stjohns.edu.

Applicants admitted before and including April 1 are generally required to secure their seat with a $500 non-refundable first seat deposit by April 15. Applicants admitted April 2 or after are generally given one to two weeks to make a decision before a non-refundable seat deposit is due to hold a seat. A second non-refundable seat deposit of $250 is due by June 1 to continue to hold a seat in the entering class. Seat deposits are credited towards tuition charges and fees. Seat deposits hold an admitted student's seat up until tuition is due in July.

Retain copies of all admissions documents and correspondence for your records. Applications, credentials, and other materials submitted in support of your application become the property of St. John's University School of Law and will not be returned. Include your LSAC account number on any information submitted in connection with your application.

Standardized Test Score

St. John's Law will accept either the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), LSAT-Flex or the Graduate Record Exam (GRE). All applicants must participate in the Credential Assembly Service provided by Law School Admission Council (LSAC). LSAC will then forward your LSAT results from the prior five years to us as part of their comprehensive application services.

Applicants who elect to take the GRE instead of the LSAT (or LSAT-Flex) must instruct the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send St. John's Law all GRE test scores from the prior five year period. Applicants who have taken the GRE can log into their ETS account and select St. John's University School of Law School, school code 2624, as a recipient of GRE results. Applicants who take both the LSAT (or LSAT-Flex) and GRE must report their LSAT score to St. John's Law; they may also submit their GRE score by following the instructions above if they wish to have that score also considered.

Certification

Applicants who intend to practice law should be aware that admission to the bar in all states involves character, fitness and other qualifications. Applicants are encouraged to determine what those requirements are in the state(s) in which they intend to practice by consulting the website of the National Conference of Bar Examiners at www.ncbex.org. Admission to law school does not guarantee that you will meet the good moral character requirement necessary to sit for a state bar examination or to be admitted to practice. If you are concerned about any facts that may affect your ability to be admitted to practice law, you should discuss the matter with the Board of Law Examiners or the appropriate Committee on Character and Fitness in the jurisdiction in which you intend to practice.

CERTIFICATION

By signing this certification or electronically transmitting it, I certify that, if admitted to St. John's University School of Law, I assent to, and agree to be bound by, all the rules, regulations, and directions of St. John's University School of Law insofar as they apply to me. I understand that the rules, regulations, and directions of the School are subject to change. I understand that all credentials and other materials submitted during the application process become the property of St. John's University School of Law and will not be returned. I understand that any action taken on this application by the Admissions Committee is solely within its discretion and that the decision is final.

I understand that a copy of this application will be forwarded to the appropriate Committee on Character and Fitness at the time I apply for admission to the Bar, and that any omission or misstatement on this application may result in denial of admission to the Bar.

I certify that the answers to the above questions are complete and accurate. I understand that the failure to provide truthful answers to any of the application questions, or the failure to inform the Admissions Office of any changes in, or additions to, the information contained in my answers, may result in denial of admission, dismissal, or rescission of an awarded degree from St. John's University School of Law.
