Student Registration – MarchingOrder
Graduates must register to attend and participate in the Graduate-Level Commencement Exercises. Students who have been deemed eligible to participate by their respective dean’s office may register to attend the Commencement Exercises. To confirm your eligibility status, contact your dean’s office immediately.

Graduates will receive communications via their St. John’s email with instructions on how to register.
• Registration begins on Friday, March 25 and ends on Monday, April 25.
• Graduates will submit a pronunciation recording and provide the phonetics of their name which will assist in preparing the recording of their name for use as they cross the stage on commencement day.
• Following registration, graduates will be able to claim their GradPass and assign their guest tickets.

If you require special accommodations of any kind on graduation day, please notify your dean’s office immediately.

Diploma Ordering
Diplomas
• Graduates must submit an online diploma application in order to receive their diploma.
• The last day to order your diploma is Monday, May 16.

Instructions for the Online Application for Diploma:

COVID-19 Policy and Procedure
Currently, the university is not mandating the wearing of masks or proof of vaccination to attend the indoor Commencement Exercises. Please note, our COVID-19 planning, and protocols are subject to change in accordance with the latest government mandates and public health guidelines. For the most up-to-date information, please visit the Commencement Website and https://www1.nyc.gov/site/coronavirus/index.page

International Students Requesting Invitation to Commencement
Do you have family or guests coming from outside of the United States that need travel documentation? If yes, please follow the procedure below.

1. Student completes a letter request form from the Registrar’s Office
2. Registrar confirms with deans’ office to make sure they are on the graduation list
3. Once confirmed, Registrar creates a letter stating the student is expected to graduate and the ceremony is held on the Queens Campus

Notes:
• Students can have the letter picked up or mailed to them.
• Registrar does not send individual invitations to family members and produces as many letters as they request.

All guests must follow the current University COVID-19 policy outlined above and/or on the website.

Student Academic Attire Purchase – Herff Jones
All graduates must purchase academic attire in order to participate in the Commencement Exercises. Wearing academic attire (cap, gown and hood) is both a tradition and a requirement to participate in the Commencement Exercises. Please visit the Herff Jones site to purchase academic attire. All attire will be shipped directly to the graduate. To ensure you receive academic attire in time for the ceremony, you must place your order before, Thursday, April 14, 2022, at 11:59 p.m. EST. Please note, the standard processing and shipping takes up to 3 weeks within the continental U.S. and up to 4 weeks for international orders.

If you have questions or concerns about regalia affordability, or if the cost of the regalia may prevent you from participating in the Commencement ceremony, please contact the Office of University Events at universityevents@stjohns.edu. All inquiries will be kept confidential.

For apparel under your attire, dress with an eye to comfort and the weather. It is strongly recommended that you not bring personal belongings to the ceremony.
Student GradPass
Each student will receive a personalized GradPass after completing the registration process on MarchingOrder Site. Instructions will be sent to each student via their St. John’s email account in March.

- As the graduate approaches the stage during the calling of names, their GradPass will be scanned.
- The GradPass will allow for the pre-recorded name of each graduate to be announced as the graduate walks across the stage.
- The GradPass will also allow for the graduates’ name to be displayed on the large viewing screens, as the graduate walks across the stage.
- After the graduate crosses the stage, they are expected to return to their seats for the remainder of the ceremony and to recess out together with their fellow classmates.

Student Guest Tickets
All guests are required to present a ticket for entry to the Graduate-Level Commencement Exercises in Carnesecca Arena. Children under the age of two do not require a ticket, however, they must be seated on an adult’s lap. Seating for guests is on a first-come, first-served basis. Seats cannot be saved by any means other than someone sitting in the seat. We recommend that family and guests arrive early and are seated by 4:30 p.m. (1 hour prior to the start of the procession) or by 5:15 p.m. the latest.

Students will be able to reserve, print and/or e-mail their allotted guest tickets on the MarchingOrder Site. Students are required to complete their registration, provide phonetics for the pronunciation of their pre-recorded name before they can reserve their guest tickets. On the day of the ceremony, guest can bring tickets in paper or electronic form.

- Each graduate participating in the Graduate-Level Commencement Exercises will receive twelve (12) guest tickets.
- Guest tickets will be scanned on the day of the ceremony.
  - Tickets cannot be assigned to more than one individual or be duplicated
  - Tickets can only be scanned once, for admittance into the ceremony.
Queens Baccalaureate Mass ~ Open to all Graduating Students
Saturday, May 21, 2022
4 p.m. (Doors open at 3 p.m.)
St. Thomas More Church

The Baccalaureate Mass is an opportunity for the University Community to gather with you and your families to give thanks for all of the gifts and blessings you have received from God. It is also our chance to pray for you and to ask God’s blessing upon you as you move into the next phase of your life.

Mass Tickets and Seating
• Mass tickets can be picked up beginning in May in the Office of Campus Ministry, Marillac Hall, Rm. 239 during regular business hours.
• Admission is by ticket only.
• Seating is on a first-come, first served basis and will be based on the order of arrival.
• Seats may not be saved.
• Graduates are asked to wear their academic attire to Mass. The hood may be worn, but we ask that graduates not wear their cap to Mass.
• Graduates should sit with their families during Mass.

For more information regarding Mass tickets, please contact the Office of Campus Ministry at 718-990-6255.

Participate in Mass
If you would like to participate in the Mass in a ministerial role, such as a lector, extraordinary minister of communion, candle bearer or gift bearer, or if a graduate or member of a graduate’s family is a Catholic Priest and would like to concelebrate the Mass, please contact Dennis Gallagher at 718-990-2125 or e-mail gallagd1@stjohns.edu.

Commencement Day

Graduate Responsibilities

• Arrive in Taffner Field House no later than 4:30 p.m. on your ceremony day.
• Be sure to have your GradPass (electronic or printout) available for check-in.
• Master degree candidates wear your academic attire (gown, hood, and cap) to the Commencement Exercises. Your tassel should be on the right side of your cap.
• Doctoral degree candidates wear your academic attire (gown and cap) to the ceremony and carry the hood over your right arm. You will be hooded during the ceremony.
• Wear comfortable footwear and clothing.
• It is strongly recommended not to bring personal belongings.
• Follow the line-up, procession and recessional instructions of your academic deans, marshals and event staff.
• Once directed to your row in the graduate seating area, remain standing until the end of the Invocation.
• Follow the instructions for the calling of your name as you are asked to walk across the stage.

If you need assistance during Commencement, please locate your dean, event staff, or a Public Safety Officer.

Assembly and Line-Up Locations

• There is no rehearsal for the Commencement Exercises.
• The academic deans will be in the assembly area to check-in graduates. Graduates should have their GradPass (printout or electronic) available for check-in.

Graduates must check in with their deans during this time in order to participate in the ceremony

Duration of Ceremony

Great care has been taken to ensure the ceremonies are completed as quickly and smoothly as possible. Each ceremony is expected to last between 1 and 2 hours, depending upon the school or college.

Web Viewing

Each Graduate-Level Commencement Exercises will be streamed live at www.stjohns.edu for those who are unable to attend the ceremony in person.

Ceremony Photography and Video

• There will be professional photographers from Grad Images® taking photographs of the graduates (see pg. 11 for details).
• A copy of the live-streamed video will be available for viewing on the Commencement website (www.stjohns.edu/commencement) following the ceremony.
• Guests will not be able to approach the stage area or graduate seating area prior to the start of the ceremony or for the duration of the ceremony for any reason, including photography and videotaping.

Lost and Found

• The Office of Public Safety will collect and hold any items that are lost or found, during the ceremonies. If you need to report or find a lost item, please see a Public Safety Officer.

If you haven’t already done so, please sign up for the text messaging service via the University Information System.
Keepsake Items

International Stoles
- International stoles represent the country and academic accomplishments of a student who has studied abroad or is studying in the United States. Individual students can wear a stole at Commencement to show pride in their accomplishment.
- If you studied abroad and/or are international students studying here in the United States, you will be eligible to purchase an international stole on the Herff Jones website for $30. Please note that if you have studied in more than one country, you may select only one international stole to wear at Commencement.
- For a full listing of international stoles that are available for purchase, please visit the Herff Jones website.

Stole of Gratitude
- The stole of gratitude can be worn during the Commencement Exercises.
- After the ceremony, traditionally the new graduate presents the stole of gratitude to someone who provided extraordinary help or support, someone who has provided them with wisdom, guidance, and words of support or with financial assistance.
- The stole of gratitude is available for purchase online for $25 directly from Herff Jones.

First Generation Stole
- The First Generation Stole can be worn during the Commencement Exercises.
- Graduates who are the first in their families to graduate college can purchase the First Generation Stole online for $25 directly from Herff Jones.

Bookstore
- The Queens Campus Bookstore will be open and will have merchandise available for purchase in the lobby of Carnesecca Arena, Monday, May 16 through Friday, May 20.

Ceremony Photography and Video
Guests will not be able to approach the stage area or graduate seating area prior to the start of the ceremony or for the duration of the ceremony for any reason, including photography and videotaping.

Video
- A copy of the live-streamed video will be available for viewing on the Commencement website (www.stjohns.edu/commencement) following the ceremony.

Photography - Grad Images®
- Professional photographers from Grad Images® will be present at the Commencement Exercises to take photographs of graduates as they line-up, approach the stage, and while shaking the hand of their dean.
- Graduates can pre-order their photographs by pre-registering at www.gradimages.com.
- For replacement of photos, please contact Grad Images®, Customer Service Department at 800-261-2576.
