

Media Release

As a student at St. John's University, I understand that I may be photographed or videotaped from time to time, either for a particular purpose or unintentionally (for instance, in the background of a photo). I hereby give St. John's University School of Law permission to use any written accounts, photographs, video, and sound recordings of me for its internal and external educational, advertising, recruiting, development, art, or artistic purposes without any compensation to me. I understand that this media may be used in print and digital publications and distributed via various channels, including, but not limited to, social media, the web, email, and land mail.

I also hereby release St. John's University School of Law and St. John's University, New York, their trustees, officers, employees, and agents from any and all claims, damages, costs, and expenses, including but not limited to those arising for libel, slander, invasion of privacy, and other claims arising from the use of the above described media.

Student Handbook Acknowledgment

I understand and acknowledge that a copy of the St. John's University School of Law Student Handbook is available on the Law School's website and a copy of the handbook is available through the Online Student Center website here: <https://www.stjohns.edu/law/student-services/student-handbook>

I further understand that the Handbook contains policies and rules which apply to me as a St. John's University School of Law Student. Upon matriculation, each student is responsible for becoming familiar with the rules, regulations and policies of the University and the Law School and for conforming their conduct accordingly. I am expected to read and abide by the policies included.

Lastly, I understand that the School of Law reserves the right to make changes to the Student Handbook at any time that it deems necessary as to course offerings, tuition, fees, codes of conduct, academic standards and grading, graduation requirements, class schedules or any other rules, regulations or policies. If revisions or changes are made, I understand the School of Law will provide notice of changes to me via email/posting the updated handbook online. Any questions regarding the school's program and policies should be forwarded to the Dean's Office.

Health and Safety Acknowledgment

I reviewed and understand the St. John's University health and safety guidelines and understand that additional information on community safety precautions are available on the St. John's University website and the Online Student Center. I understand that all health and safety policies apply to me as a St. John's University School of Law student.

I agree to follow all health and safety protocols. I understand that health and safety protocols may be updated as circumstances change and I acknowledge my obligation to stay informed and continue to follow health and safety protocols.

I am committed to promoting the health and safety of the St. John's Law community.

Pre-Recorded Orientation Videos

I have viewed all mandatory pre-recorded orientation videos, available on the 1L Welcome Center website, in their entirety.

Affirmation

I have read and agree to the foregoing. I will abide by the rules and regulations of St. John's University and the School of Law, including, but not limited to, rules of conduct, as they are now and may in the future be constituted.
