9:00–9:45 a.m.
Check-in, StormCards, and University Tour
Check in and take your student ID photo. Then, follow your orientation leaders on a tour of the campus. The orientation leaders discuss why they call this campus home, while identifying important locations critical to your transition as a new student at St. John’s.

9:45–10:05 a.m.
University Welcome
Receive a warm welcome from New Student Orientation, Transfer Student Services, and orientation leaders as they introduce you to St. John’s University and what it means to be part of our community.

10:05–10:15 a.m.
Meet Your Orientation Leaders
Much of your time during orientation is spent in peer groups led by orientation leaders. This is an opportunity for you to get to know them and other students who will go through this experience with you. Be sure to ask your orientation leaders about their experiences.

10:25–11:05 a.m.
Enriching Academic Success: Meet the College Deans
There is so much to know about your first year at St. John’s. The administrators from your School or College provide both academic and personal support. Learn how to get your transfer student experience off to a great start.

11:15–11:55 a.m.
Campus Safety: Accessing Your Community
Your safety is very important to us. Representatives from the Department of Public Safety, Fire Safety, and StormCard offices explain campus security systems, emergency readiness, your student ID, parking, and the importance of taking responsibility for your actions and your community.

12:05–12:50 p.m.
Friends: The College Years—Student Wellness
“Johnnies look out for Johnnies” as we promote a culture of upstanders who step in when they see a peer in distress. In this session you have the opportunity to explore hard to discuss yet essential topics for college students: alcohol use, sexual violence, and mental health concerns, as well as learn about the services within Student Wellness including Wellness Education and Prevention; the Center for Counseling and Consultation; Sexual Violence, Outreach and Response (SOAR); Student Health Services; the Office of Disability Services; and Campus Recreation.

1–1:50 p.m.
Lunch and the SJ You Experience
St. John’s students explore their interests through a variety of clubs, programs, and activities. While you enjoy your lunch, orientation leaders share their experiences and discuss how getting involved helped them acclimate to life at the University.
2–3:20 p.m. Rotating Sessions
Ignite the Fire, Catch the Spirit
Campus Ministry welcomes all religious traditions. As a community of faith, service, and friends, Campus Ministry takes seriously its unique role in expressing St. John’s distinctive identity as a Catholic and Vincentian institution, as embodied in the University’s mission. You gather at the heart of the campus, St. Thomas More Church, where you meet campus ministers as they share the many opportunities for your student to be involved in faith, service, social justice, leadership, and the community.

From First Year to Career—You’ve Got This!
At St. John’s, career readiness happens everywhere, all the time, led by a team of dedicated career advisers who design dynamic programs and deliver digital resources available 24/7. Whether you are exploring your options or are ready to dive into a specific profession, our career advisers can guide you as you consider the boundless possibilities. In this session, you learn about the programs, resources, and opportunities available as you discover career interests, develop skills, gain experience, and build the foundation of your professional future.

3:30–4:10 p.m.
Share the TEA!
Learn about the Teachings for Empathy and Awareness (TEA) that are essential for cultivating cultural competency skills, as well as the Office of Multicultural Affairs and its role in creating a more inclusive and affirming campus environment.

4:10–4:20 p.m.
Giveaways and Red Storm Send-Off
On behalf of the 2023 New Student Orientation staff, we thank you for attending our program. We hope you leave with a better understanding of what makes St. John’s distinctive and what we have to offer to help make the next years of your life memorable. Please complete the program evaluation and provide us with feedback to help improve our program.
