TUESDAY, JANUARY 16
9–9:45 a.m.
Check-In and University Tour
Arrive at the D’Angelo Center to check in for New Student Orientation and receive your new student packet and ID. The orientation leaders share with you why they call this campus home, while identifying important buildings critical to your transition to St. John’s.

9:45–10:15 a.m.
University Welcome
You receive a warm welcome from members of the Division of Student Success and the orientation leaders. They introduce you to St. John’s and what it means to be part of our community.

10:15–10:30 a.m.
Meet Your Orientation Leaders
Much of your time during New Student Orientation is spent in peer groups led by orientation leaders. These leaders serve as a resource for you. This is also an opportunity to meet other students who will experience college life with you. Please take advantage of this opportunity to ask questions of your orientation leaders about their experiences at the University.

10:40 a.m.–Noon (Rotating Sessions)
We’re on a Mission: the Office of Mission and Ministry
The Office of Mission and Ministry welcomes all religious traditions. As a community of faith, service, and friends, the Mission office takes seriously its unique role in expressing St. John’s distinctive identity as a Catholic and Vincentian institution.

Gather at the heart of the campus, St. Thomas More Church, to meet our team members. They will share with you the many opportunities offered by the Mission office to be involved in faith, service, social justice, leadership, and community.

It’s All about the Journey: Becoming Career Ready at St. John’s
At St. John’s, career readiness truly happens all the time, all over campus. So, whether you’re wondering where to start or are all ready to dive into seeking experiences in specific industries, our career advisers are ready to guide you as you navigate your career journey at St. John’s. In this session you learn more about the programs, services, and opportunities to help you explore career interests/options, develop skills, gain experience through employment or internship opportunities, begin the job/graduate school search, and build the foundation of your professional future.

International Student and Scholar Services (International Students Only)
It is very important that both F-1 and J-1 international students attend this session. Representatives from the International Student and Scholar Services Office (ISSSSO) explain how to keep lawful status, the importance of your immigration documents, how to reenter the US after traveling, employment benefits, and much more.

Noon–12:55 p.m.
Lunch

1–1:35 p.m.
Enriching Academic Success (Transfer Students Only)
Meet the Deans
Administrators from your School/College provide academic and personal support throughout your years at St. John’s. Learn how to get your student experience off to a great start.
Center for Student Success (First-Year Students Only)
Navigating Your First Year
The advisers in the Center for Student Success are essential as you plan your academic experience as a first-year college student. They provide academic and personal support during your transition period, so make sure you take advantage of their expertise in course requirements, availability, and scheduling that is specific to your major.

1:45–2:30 p.m.
Knowing YES!
This is an engaging workshop facilitated by your orientation leaders about affirmative consent where you have an opportunity to explore what you expect of your relationships.

2:30–3 p.m.
Campus Safety
Your safety is very important to us. Representatives from Public Safety, Fire Safety, and the StormCard Office explain campus security systems, emergency readiness, the importance of your student ID, and the role and responsibility your actions have on your community.

3–4 p.m.
Friends: the College Years
We take care of our own. Administrators from Student Wellness and your orientation leaders explore the importance of looking out for each other now that you are a part of the St. John’s community. Through entertaining and honest performances, scenes of college life introduce topics such as mental health, alcohol use, and power-based relationships to help you consider how to make smart choices in challenging situations.

4–4:40 p.m.
Academic Connections
Faculty Tips for Success
Learn from University faculty members who help you to familiarize yourself with the collegiate environment and academic expectations. Faculty demonstrate how intellectual experiences within the classroom can connect to your future goals and life beyond St. John’s.

4:40–5 p.m.
Surveys and Giveaways
On behalf of the orientation staff, we want to thank you for attending our program. We hope you leave with a better understanding of what makes St. John’s unique and what we offer to help make the next few years of your life memorable. Please take time to complete the survey and provide us with feedback to help improve our program. Make sure to submit the completed survey to receive your giveaway.
