About The School of Education

The School of Education offers a variety of programs and degrees that are in line with St. John's mission to ensure student success—and its identity as a Catholic, Vincentian, metropolitan, and global University

The purpose of The School of Education is to

- provide a vibrant learning experience that supports the intellectual, professional, and moral development of students;
- offer programs for student and societal needs, and enable students to function effectively as professional in a dynamic multicultural society;

- encourage students to develop a personal education philosophy consistent with the University's mission;
- foster basic and applied research in education and human services in an environment that encourages collaboration among students and faculty; and
- serve as a resource center to the educational community at large by providing leadership and supportive services for local, state, and national associations; sponsoring professional meetings and seminars; and offering consultative services for schools and community agencies.

Goals and Objectives

You are responsible for continually checking your St. John's email for important communication from The School of Education (SOE). You are also responsible for knowing and understanding the requirements for your program, including acceptable courses and grades and New York State certification exams and workshops.

The following exams are required for initial certification in Childhood Education (Grades 1–6) and Adolescent Education (Grades 7–12) and must be completed prior to the end of junior year:

- Educating All Students (EAS)*
- Content Specialty-Multi-Subject (Childhood Education only)*
- Content Specialty-Content Specific (Adolescent Education only)*

The following workshops are required for initial certification in Childhood Education (Grades 1–6) and Adolescent Education (Grades 7–12):

- Violence Prevention Workshop*
- Child Abuse (aka Mandated Reporter) • Dignity for All Students Act (DASA)* • New York State Safety Workshop

* There are costs associated with exams and workshops.

You must also be fingerprinted by the end of your first year. Transfer students are given one academic year to complete fingerprinting.

Incoming first-year students and transfer students set up a TEACH account and complete all workshops and fingerprinting in their EDU 101 course. If you do not complete these tasks, you receive a grade of "X" (failing) and are required to meet with your undergraduate dean's office prior to the start of your second semester.

You must also be aware that changes to New York State certification requirements can occur at any time. The School of Education keeps you informed of these changes via the St. John's website and/or email.

You are also required to maintain a professional disposition that reflects the mission and goals of The School of Education. Failure to maintain these professional dispositions can result in dismissal from The School of Education.

The School of Education's objectives are:

1. To provide a vibrant learning environment for the intellectual, professional and moral development of students.
2. To provide programs for student and societal needs; and enable students to function effectively as professionals in a dynamic multicultural society.
3. To encourage students to develop a personal philosophy of education consistent with the University's mission.
4. To foster basic and applied research in education and human services involving students and faculty.
5. To serve as a resource center to the educational community by: providing leadership and supportive services for local, state and national associations; sponsoring professional meetings and seminars; and offering consultative services for schools and community agencies.

Student Responsibilities

You are responsible for continually checking your St. John's email for important communication from The School of Education (SOE). You are also responsible for knowing and understanding the requirements for your program, including acceptable courses and grades and New York State certification exams and workshops.

The following exams are required for initial certification in Childhood Education (Grades 1–6) and Adolescent Education (Grades 7–12) and must be completed prior to the end of junior year:

- Educating All Students (EAS)*
Content Specialty-Multi-Subject (Childhood Education only)*
- Content Specialty-Content Specific (Adolescent Education only)*

This is completed during the student teaching requirement (usually the second semester of senior year)

The following workshops are required for initial certification in Childhood Education (Grades 1–6) and Adolescent Education (Grades 7–12):

- Violence Prevention Workshop*
- Child Abuse (aka Mandated Reporter)
- Dignity for All Students Act (DASA)*
- New York State Safety Workshop

* There are costs associated with exams and workshops.

You must also be fingerprinted by the end of your first year. Transfer students are given one academic year to complete fingerprinting.

Incoming first-year students and transfer students set up a TEACH account and complete all workshops and fingerprinting in their EDU 101 course. If you do not complete these tasks, you receive a grade of “X” (failing) and are required to meet with your undergraduate dean’s office prior to the start of your second semester.

In accordance with New York State law, The School of Education requires all students entering a five-year or pathway program that grants teaching certification to take the Graduate Records Exam (GRE) during their first semester of their junior year. Failure to complete this requirement results in removal from the program.

You must also be aware that changes to New York State certification requirements can occur at any time. The School of Education keeps you informed of these changes via the St. John’s website and/or email.

You are also required to maintain a professional disposition that reflects the mission and goals of The School of Education. Failure to maintain these professional dispositions can result in dismissal from The School of Education.

Assessment of Professional Qualities

DISPOSITION

New York State and national accreditation standards require The School of Education to monitor nonacademic behaviors. The Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation requires that program completers display “dispositions and behaviors required for successful professional practice.” (2020)

The dispositions are as follows:

COLLABORATION

- Displays a positive disposition toward working constructively with peers/colleagues
- Shares responsibilities on collaborative projects and contributes individual effort
- Displays a positive disposition toward working constructively with University faculty, administrators, and school personnel (if applicable).
- Displays a positive attitude regarding working constructively with students and their parents
- Honesty and Integrity
- The student demonstrates truthfulness, honesty, and trustworthiness
- Takes responsibility for his or her own actions
- Displays willingness to uphold commitments to self and others
- Displays high standards for professional integrity
- Submits original work
- Seeks support from professor and others where needed

RESPECT

- The student values and demonstrates consideration and regard for oneself and others
- Is respectful of cultural differences within the academic and global community
- Is sensitive to diverse life experiences
- Has a desire to work across difference and values diverse work ethics and environments
- Is open and sensitive to differing opinions and personal beliefs
- Negotiates disagreements appropriately and respectfully
- Maintains nonjudgmental and effective communication skills

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR AND RESPONSIBILITY

- Accepts and accommodates constructive criticism
- Is conscientious and punctual
- Is an effective communicator (written and verbal)
- Models social skills, character traits, and dispositions desired in academic settings
- Is aware of the importance of professional appearance and demeanor
- Maintains professional standards of behavior with peers, professors, and children in classrooms (wherever appropriate)

COMMITMENT TO LEARNING

- Student models behavior that s/he would expect of her/his own students in:
- Completing all class work, field work, and assignment deadlines as required
- Seeks confirmation of ideas through course frameworks and additional readings
- Demonstrates dispositions toward lifelong learning
- Seeks clarification from professors for assignments and expectations

Transfer Students

External Students accepted by The School of Education will receive an evaluation of their transfer record listing the courses applicable to their program of study at St. John’s University. Only courses with grades of C or better will be considered for transfer. Accepted students to the School will be notified of their acceptance by the Office of Transfer Student Services in order to schedule an advisement appointment to review their approved transfer credits and academic program per the dean.

Credit may be accepted for transfer if it was earned at a college/university that is accredited by a regional accrediting organization (e.g., Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools), or if it was earned at a college/university level institution traditionally accredited by some other type of agency (e.g., in New York State, the Board of Regents). International students or students with credits from another country will need to provide a foreign credential evaluation. An official course-by-course evaluation may be requested through these two approved agencies: Word Evaluation Services (wes.org) or the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (naces.org).

All external transfer applicants to the School who have been awarded an A.A. or A.S. degree will fulfill the requirements for their baccalaureate in the School after successfully completing all requirements for their major including a) six semester hours in Philosophy and six semester hours in Theology; and b) the requirements for their selected concentration. The remainder of the student’s program is determined under the guidance of an assigned advisor.

All external transfer students seeking admission to the School must have a minimum 3.0 GPA.

All internal transfer students seeking admission to the School of Education must have a minimum 3.0 GPA. It is required that internal transfer students make an appointment to meet with an Academic Advisor in The School of Education Undergraduate Studies Office.

Advanced Placement and CLEP/credit-by-test

The School of Education awards advanced placement (AP) credits to those entering freshmen who earn a requisite score on the College Entrance Examination Board’s Advanced Placement and/or CLEP exams.

Placement and the number of college credits appropriate to the academic development of the qualified student are determined by the Undergraduate Studies Office. Credits for AP scores lower than a 5 will not be granted.

Upperclassmen who wish to take CLEP or other credit-by-test exams are required to receive prior written approval from The School of Education Undergraduate Studies Office if such credit is to be applied to their degree. CLEP and other credit-by-test scores will not be counted if approval is not given.

CLEP or other credit-by-test may only be done for a total of 9 credits over the course of the 4- or 5-year program. CLEP exams may not be used in Education courses or in the student's concentration area.

Seniors may not take any CLEP or credit-by-test examination.

Honors Program

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION HONORS PROGRAM Curious. Driven. Exceptional.

These are the trademarks of those selected for The School of Education Honors Program at St. John's University. Students who participate in this program form a community of scholars who navigate the curriculum at an elevated level.

The Honors Program offers outstanding students the opportunity to maximize intellectual growth and experience personal enrichment. Students meet regularly with faculty and administrators in The School of Education, creating a space in which to explore equity, access, and culturally relevant teaching deeply and meaningfully.

Students in this elite program are engaged in experiential and seminar-based programs where course content is embedded in practice. Experiences provide students with the opportunity to develop and implement curricula, engage in action and reflective research, and study policy and practices related to education as a whole.

Teacher Certification

Successful completion of all academic requirements, including student teaching, in an undergraduate program in The School of Education entitles a student to request and receive a university recommendation to the New York State Education Department for initial teacher certification.

In addition to the university recommendation which is provided by a School of Education certification officer through TEACH online, students seeking certification must register for, pay appropriate fees, and complete the following requirements.

- Mandatory Workshops
 - Child Abuse Prevention
 - Violence Prevention
 - Dignity for all Students (DASA)
 - NYS Safety Education
- Obtain Fingerprint Clearance
- Pass all required NYS Teacher Certification Exams (www.nystce.nesinc.com)
- Students seeking initial certification must be fully aware of the current requirements and regulations of the NYSED

The School of Education offers guidelines, contact information and important updates and we encourage you to visit the following website: stjohns.edu/academics/schools-and-colleges/school-education/certification-information

Requirements for teacher certification vary from state to state, therefore, students who seek teacher certification outside of New York State should contact the appropriate State Education Department for information about their latest certification regulations.

The State of New York mandates that those who complete requirements for graduation pass several New York State Certification examinations. The latest passing rates of St. John's graduates for initial certification can be found on the following website <http://data.nysed.gov/higheredcert.php?instid=800000081568>

Middle School Extension

Students currently enrolled at St. John's University as undergraduate seniors or graduate students should meet with their advisor to determine how to qualify for the Middle School Extension.

Required Courses in Both Certification Programs

- EDU 7106 Understanding Socio-Emotional, Cultural and Cognitive Aspects of Middle School Learners in General and Inclusive Settings (3 credits)
- EDU 7107 Methods and Strategies of Teaching Middle School Learners in General and Inclusive Settings (3 credits)

Eligibility for the Programs

Applicants to each program should possess an undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 or better.

State regulations require that students must possess New York State initial or professional teacher certification in either Adolescent or Childhood Education, or be in the process of attaining that credential. The Middle School Extension can only be granted to individuals who attain certification.

Academic Information

Advisement

Advisement involves a close relationship between student and advisor. A student who has questions about the advisement process should consult the Undergraduate Studies Office. The student is scheduled by The Center for Student Success (Queens Campus) for classes during the first and second semester of their first year. Freshmen students on the Staten Island Campus are advised by the Dean's Office. For the remaining semesters, the student should plan a course of studies with the assigned advisor/dean. All students are advised to declare a content area by their first year.

Academic Service-Learning

Academic Service-Learning students should consult with the professor and the Academic Service-Learning Office in Lourdes Hall. Academic Service-Learning is encouraged for all undergraduate majors.

Pass-Fail Option

The pass-fail option is open only to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, or to a student who has completed a minimum of 25 credits at St. John's, and whose current grade point average is at least 3.0. It is limited to three credits per semester and to six credits per academic year. The total over three years, including summer sessions, may not exceed nine credits. The pass-fail is not available for content courses or for education (EDU) courses; this includes student teaching. You may apply for the pass-fail option for three core (liberal arts) courses.

Application for the pass-fail option should be completed online (i.e., through the University Information System) by the last day designated for withdrawal from class without receiving academic penalty. See the Academic Calendar for specific withdrawal dates.

Honors

Summa Cum Laude	3.85
Magna Cum Laude	3.70
Cum Laude	3.50

Academic Standing

A student is in good standing if enrolled as a matriculated student in a program of study leading to a degree and is making satisfactory progress toward the completion of the program of study.

All students are to maintain a 3.0 cumulative quality point index. Failure to maintain a 3.0 may result in not being able to Student Teach and/or dismissal from The School of Education.*

STUDENT TEACHING

Model 1

RAISE (Queens and Staten Island Students)

The School of Education offers a unique model of extended clinical practice called RAISE, Residency And Internship for St. John's Educators. This program places undergraduates in schools for a full year of student teaching as they near completion of their program. RAISE Residents complete two days of student teaching each week in their first semester of RAISE, and they complete five days of student teaching each week in their second semester of RAISE. Our RAISE Residents have the unique benefit of having School of Education Faculty and adjuncts embedded in their school placements with them. The Faculty teach courses to the Residents on-site in the field placement school. RAISE Student Teachers generally take 1–2 courses while enrolled in the RAISE program. These courses range from methods to theory.

1. Education course work is embedded in the field placement. Students will be advised to reserve 6 to 12 credits of Education courses for RAISE.
2. Student Teaching can only be completed at the end of program, with exception for those in a 5-year, dual, or career change program that will also require additional coursework or a practicum.
3. Observations and participation for student teaching must be done in an approved school under University supervision. The school site will be selected by the director of RAISE. Faculty and adjuncts in The School of Education will be embedded in the schools.
4. As noted in the RAISE application, requirements must be fulfilled prior to the first day of student teaching. This includes completing NYS mandated workshops and registering for certification exams and fingerprinting. Note: Virtus Training is only required for Catholic school placements.
5. Medical clearance as required when you were first accepted to St. John's must be met. Please note, however, some schools and districts may require you to submit health/medical forms for your placement to be confirmed.
6. Student is required to be present at their school assignment for two days per week in the first semester and five days per week in the second semester.
7. During RAISE, Residents will work with a faculty member or adjunct who is embedded in their school. Faculty teach courses, conduct seminars, and provide feedback on teaching. Seminar dates and times are established at the orientation meeting.
8. It is strongly recommended that students not be employed during the second semester of RAISE. If it is necessary, the hours should not interfere with the school site schedule.

Model 2

SUPERVISED STUDENT TEACHING (Queens only)

This program places undergraduates in schools for one semester of student teaching in their Senior Year.

Only students who are in good academic standing and completing an approved School of Education program including prior fieldwork courses are eligible for an assignment in Supervised Student Teaching.

Recommendations for such assignments depend upon evidence of potential teaching ability as manifested in part by:

1. Proficiency in both oral and written English.
2. Medical clearance as required when you were first accepted to St. John's must be met. If all is in order no further action is necessary. Please note, however, some schools and districts may require you to submit health/medical forms for your placement to be confirmed.
3. Proficiency in education courses, general courses and areas of specialization.
4. Completion of ALL education coursework prior to student teaching, as determined by your advisor.
5. Completion of all state-mandated workshops: Violence Prevention, Child Abuse, DASA and NYS Safety Workshop.

Students will attend seminars and special workshops. With this in mind, students should attempt to minimize additional course work but, if necessary, course work should be planned for evening/ weekend classes so as not to interfere with Student Teaching requirements.

Applications for Student Teaching are approved by the Director of Field Experience. Applications for Student Teaching in both the fall and spring semesters should be submitted to the Field Experience Office. It is important and recommended that students use their St. John's email, as this will be the source of all communication regarding student teaching. In any event, students should feel free to call/visit the Field Experience offices at any time for information regarding student teaching. Field Experience Offices are located on the fifth floor of Sullivan Hall and third floor in DaSilva for Staten Island campus.

Please note: A student should successfully complete all prerequisites for Student Teaching in order to be placed as a Student Teacher. The University cannot guarantee placement in a specific school that a student may choose.

Make-Up Exams

The School of Education recommends that any student needing a make up date please contact The Undergraduate Studies Office for information.

Instructional Materials Center

The Instructional Materials Center (IMC) is a unique part of the University libraries support systems and enriches the programs of The School of Education. The IMC collects and disseminates specialized information for the students with the nationwide assemblage of curriculum guides, textbooks and accompanying materials, audio-visual teaching aids and hardware, three-dimensional learning tools, publisher and distributor catalogues.

The IMC should enable pre-service and in-service teachers to examine the latest curriculum materials available in order to develop competency and familiarity. It is located on the fourth floor of the Main Library in Queens and DaSilva Hall, Room 109 on the Staten Island campus.

Academic Fairness

To dispute grades please see the Undergraduate Studies Office on the necessary process.

Graduate Level Courses

Seniors who are student teaching are eligible to take one graduate course with approval by an Academic Advisor.

Honor Societies

Dean's Scholars (Staten Island Campus)

Dean's Scholars was founded in 1996. It is comprised of the School's top students. It is one of the most prestigious organizations in School of Education. The Dean's Scholars represent those students who combine scholarship, integrity and maturity. Members act as ambassadors, leaders and role models to the School of Education and the University. See the Undergraduate Studies Office for more information on becoming a Dean's Scholar.

JOHN DEWEY SOCIETY

Dr. Cicco is the moderator of the John Dewey Society, a student-led organization that values integrity, equality, service, and leadership. John Dewey believed education and learning are interactive and social processes. Educators help students develop skills that are beneficial to overall development, while accommodating diversity in students' learning styles

The John Dewey Society is founded on a commitment to giving, serving, and inspiring teachers-in-training to promote societal changes and reforms and to work collaboratively to achieve excellence both academically and professionally. Members work to empower their peers and students, while engaging in the community to become experienced teachers and leaders.

The society sponsors a variety of workshops, guest speaker events, and service opportunities to allow members and nonmembers to learn about specific topics pertaining to education. Events are open to students of all majors and anyone who hopes to gain a greater appreciation for education and the role teachers play in the community.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi is an international Honor Society in Education, which aims to sustain an honored community of diverse educators by promoting excellence and advancing scholarship, leadership, and service.

Kappa Delta Pi at St. John's University inducts both undergraduate and graduate students who have achieved academic excellence and who are committed to service and professional development.

The vision of Kappa Delta Pi is to help committed educators be leaders in improving education for global citizenship individually and collectively, strive for a high degree of professional fellowship, leadership, and growth in the field of education, and serve their students and the educational community at large.

Professional Association

Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society in Education is a prestigious organization that is dedicated to fostering a community of esteemed educators. By promoting excellence and advancing scholarship, leadership, and service, Kappa Delta Pi strives to create an inclusive environment for diverse educators. At St. John's University, the Kappa Eta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi welcomes undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral students who have demonstrated academic excellence and a strong commitment to community service and professional learning. The vision of Kappa Delta Pi is to empower dedicated educators to become leaders in enhancing education for global citizenship. Members of Kappa Delta Pi are encouraged to cultivate a high degree of professional fellowship, leadership, and growth in the field of education. Furthermore, they are encouraged to serve their students and contribute to the educational community at large. Kappa Delta Pi members at St. John's University that exemplify the qualities required for both induction and membership are awarded the privilege of wearing distinguished honors cords during their graduation ceremony, symbolizing their status as esteemed graduates of St. John's University. For more information, please contact KDP St. John's University Faculty Advisor, Dr. Jordan González (gonzaj6@stjohns.edu).

Course Offerings

101 Introduction to Education (1-12)
