Our Purpose

The Center for Student Success provides students with academic advisement, support services such as tutoring and various workshops and programs designed to promote academic achievement.

Appointments

- ♦ In-person or remote appointments with your academic advisor may be made by clicking the link at the bottom of your advisor's e-mail. An appointment confirmation e-mail will be sent that includes either your advisor's office location or a link to access the online appointment at the scheduled day and time. It is important to be on time for appointments.
 - ♦ If late 10 minutes or more for an appointment, you will need to reschedule.
- Your St. John's e-mail account is the primary means of communication. You must check your St. John's email account at least once per day.

Undergraduate Bulletin

This is your official guide to academic policies and course descriptions at St. John's University.

Students must familiarize themselves with Degree Works. This important tool will be reviewed during your MAP (Milestones, Academics and Planning) meeting.

To access Degree Works from the St. John's homepage, click SignOn, then select UIS. On the Registration card, select Advisement Report (Degree Works)

The University Learning Commons (ULC) is pleased to offer tutoring appointments in many subjects. The first step is to create an account. Once completed, you may schedule an online tutoring appointment. To create an account:

- ♦ Navigate to Dashboard - SJU Connect
- ♦ Select University Learning Commons in the Tutoring widget
