ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY
THE LESLEY H. AND WILLIAM L. COLLINS COLLEGE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

At The Lesley H. and William L. Collins College of Professional Studies (CCPS), eligible students can complete 12–15 graduate credits as undergraduates—depending on their major—and accelerate their path to a master's degree.

FIRST YEAR | EXPLORE AND PREPARE

Explore Fast-Track programs and eligibility requirements: stjohns.edu/ccpsfasttrack. Meet with your academic advisor to plan your courses, map your pathway, and ensure you are meeting grade point average and course requirements.

SOPHOMORE YEAR | PLAN AND APPLY

Meet with your academic advisor to review eligibility, graduate program options, and next steps. Complete a credit review to confirm eligibility, and apply to Fast-Track after second-semester final grades are posted.

JUNIOR YEAR | BEGIN GRADUATE COURSEWORK

Enroll in your first Fast-Track graduate course and schedule credit checks with your academic advisor once enrolled.

SENIOR YEAR | CONTINUE FAST-TRACK

Complete your undergraduate requirements while continuing graduate coursework. During your last undergraduate semester, meet with your graduate program director for academic advisement to plan your first full graduate semester.

GRADUATE YEAR | LAUNCH YOUR MASTER'S

Begin your graduate studies with applicable Fast-Track credits, meet regularly with your graduate program director for academic advisement to stay on track, and engage in professional development and networking opportunities.
