The Clery Act

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, more commonly known as the Clery Act, and the Violence Against Women Act of 2013 requires an institution to prepare an annual security report reflecting its current policies that contains, at a minimum, the following information:

- Publish an annual report every year by October 1 that contains three years of campus crime and fire safety statistics and certain campus security policy statements;
- Disclose crime statistics for the campus, public property and certain non-campus buildings or properties. The statistics must be gathered from campus police or security, local law enforcement and other University officials who have “significant responsibility for student and campus activities”;
- Provide “timely warning” notices for any Clery Act crime that represents an ongoing threat to the safety of students or employees;
- Issue an emergency notification upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on the campus;
- Disclose in a public crime log “any crime that occurred on campus...or within the patrol jurisdiction of the campus police or the campus security department and is reported to the campus police or security department”;
- Maintain in a public fire log a record of any fire that occurred in an on-campus student housing facility.
- Disclose missing student notification procedures that pertain to students residing in a On-Campus Student Housing Facility
- Disclose fire safety information related to an On-Campus student housing facility.
- Provided educational programs and campaigns to promote the awareness of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; provided primary prevention and awareness programs to all incoming students and new employees; and provided ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns for students and employees.
- Disclose procedures for institutional disciplinary action in cases of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

Preparation and Disclosure of Crime Statistics
The Clery Act requires institutions to disclose statistics for crimes based on (1) Where the crime occurred, (2) to whom the crimes were reported, (3) the types of crimes that were reported, and (4) the year in which the crimes were reported.

1. Where crimes occurred – institutions must disclose statistics for reported Clery Act crimes that occur:
   a. On Campus - (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution’s educational purposes, including residence halls; and (2) Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to paragraph (1) of this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).
   b. Non-Campus - (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or (2) Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution’s educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.
   c. Public Property - All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.
   d. On-Campus Student Housing Facility - Any student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution, and is within the reasonably contiguous geographic area that makes up the campus is considered an on-campus student housing facility.

2. To whom the crimes were reported - Under the Clery Act, a crime is “reported” when it is brought to the attention of a campus security authority, the institution’s police department or campus safety office, or local law enforcement personnel by a victim, witness, other third party or even the offender. It doesn’t matter whether or not the individuals involved in the crime, or reporting the crime, are associated with the institution. If a campus security authority receives a report, he or she must include it as a crime report. Therefore, statistics are based on reports of alleged criminal incidents. It is not necessary for the crime to have been investigated by the police or a campus security authority, nor must a finding of guilt or responsibility be made to include the reported crime in the institution’s crime statistics.

3. The types of crimes that were reported - The Clery Act directs the disclosure of the following categories of crime statistics:
   a. Criminal Offenses—Criminal Homicide, including Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter, and Manslaughter by Negligence; Sexual Assault (including Rape, Fondling, Incest and Statutory Rape); Robbery; Aggravated Assault; Burglary; Motor Vehicle Theft; and Arson.
   b. Hate Crimes—Any of the above-mentioned offenses, and any incidents of Larceny-Theft, Simple Assault, Intimidation, or Destruction/Damage/ Vandalism of Property that were motivated by bias;
   c. VAWA Offenses—Any incidents of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking.

4. The year in which the crimes were reported – Statistics for all Clery Act crimes must be reported by the year in which the crime was reported.

This report is prepared by St. John’s University Department of Public Safety in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our campuses, student life, general counsel, Title IX and business affairs. Each entity provides updated information on their educational efforts and programs to comply with the act. Campus crime, arrest, and referral statistics include those reported to the St. John’s University Department of Public Safety, student conduct advisors, campus security authorities and local law enforcement agencies. A procedure is in place to anonymously capture crime statistics disclosed confidentially to student health services; to the campus support advisor for students; and during a pastoral counseling session or professional counseling session.

Each year, an e-mail notification is sent to all enrolled students and employees that provides the Website to access this report. Copies of the report may also be obtained at the Department of Public Safety on all campuses. All prospective employees may obtain a copy from the Office of Human Resources and the Website address will be included in the automated email response to all job applications. All prospective students are provided with a direct link to the Website to access the report.

Crime statistics for the University can also be found at the U.S. Department of Education Website at http://ope.ed.gov/security.

Daily Crime Log and Fire Log
The University maintains a daily crime log on each campus and a fire log on each campus that contains on-campus student housing facilities. The purpose of the daily crime log is to record all criminal incidents and alleged criminal incidents, not just Clery Act crimes. The purpose of the fire log is to record, by the date reported, any fire that occurs in an on-campus student housing facility. The crime and fire log for the most recent 60 days is open to the public for inspection during normal business hours. Portions of crime and fire logs that are older than 60 days will be made available for inspection within two business days. Information that could identify either the victim or the alleged perpetrator is excluded. To arrange a crime and fire log inspection, please contact the executive director of public safety.

Timely Warning
Timely Warning Policy - In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus of any St. John’s University sites, that, in the judgment of the Executive Director of Public Safety or designee constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat, a campus-wide Public Safety Alert will be issued. All University employees, students and visitors are encouraged to report criminal activity or activity that poses a continuing threat to the campus community to the Department of Public Safety. The Executive Director or designee will assess the reported incident for the issuance of a timely waring. Timely Warnings will be issued through the University’s email system to students, faculty and staff and it will be posted on the Public Safety website and on MySJU. Depending on the particular circumstances of the crime, especially in situations that could pose an immediate threat to the community and individuals, the Office of Public Safety may also issue an emergency text and voice message alert through the University emergency Notification System and/or utilize the public address system on campus to alert the community. The names of victims will be withheld as confidential.

Timely Warning Notices - Timely Warnings will be titled “Public Safety Alerts” and will be issued to the effected campus-wide community. The warning will be issued through the University’s e-mail system. The intent of the warning is to enhance the safety of the community by providing notification of crimes that occur on or nearby campus property and are considered by the Executive Director of Public Safety to present a serious or continuing threat to students and employees. “Public Safety Alerts” are issued in compliance with federal law, for selected crimes in selected areas on case by case bases. They do not present, nor are they intended to present, a complete picture of crime on campus. These alerts also offer a tip that will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Emergency Response - The University’s Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan includes information about Campus Emergency Operations Teams, University operating structure and emergency levels, shelter-in-place and evacuation guidelines. The University conducts emergency response exercises each year, such as tabletop exercises, field exercises, and tests of the emergency notification systems on campus. These tests are designed to assess and evaluate the emergency plans and capabilities of the institution.

Public Safety officers and supervisors have received training in Incident Command and Responding to Critical Incidents on Campus. When a serious incident occurs that causes an immediate threat to the campus, the first responders to the scene are usually Public Safety personnel. Depending on the nature of the incident, other university departments and other local or federal agencies could also be involved in responding to the incident. General information about the emergency response and evacuation procedures for St. John’s University are publicized each year as part of the institution’s Clery Act compliance efforts. Information concerning the University’s Emergency Management Structure Plan can be found in Appendix J or on the University’s public safety website at https://www.stjohns.edu/sites/default/files/uploads/em-operating_plan-06-01-18.pdf

All members of the St. John’s University Community are notified on an annual basis that they are required to notify the Department of Public Safety of any situation or incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students and/or employees on campus. The Department of Public Safety has the responsibility of responding to, and summoning the necessary resources, to mitigate, investigate, and document any situation that may cause a significant emergency or dangerous situation. Often Public Safety personnel are the first responders and as such will often determine if the situation does in fact, pose a threat to the community. If that is the case, Federal Law requires that the University immediately notify the campus community or the appropriate segments of the community that may be affected by the situation.

Notification to the St. John’s University Community about an Immediate Threat -

The Office of Public Safety receives information from various offices, departments and campuses, such as Facilities Services and Environmental Health and Safety. If the Department of Public Safety confirms that there is an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of some or all members of the University Community, the Executive Director of Public Safety or his/her designee will determine the content of the notification and will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the St. John’s University Community. The message may be segmented to a particular building or to a particular segment of the population. The Executive Director of Public Safety or his/her designee will, without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders, compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

In the event the emergency or dangerous situation involves a global site the Executive Director or designee may communicate with the onsite senior member to confirm the emergency and issue the emergency notification. However, the onsite senior member has the authority to issue an emergency notification to the effected campus community once the emergency has been confirmed.
In the event of a serious incident that poses an immediate threat to members of the St. John’s University community, the University has various systems in place for communicating information quickly. Some or all of these methods of communication may be activated in the event of an immediate threat to the campus community. Some of the communication resources are Emergency Notification Messaging System, voicemail broadcasts, public address system, designated electronic bulletin boards and classroom telephones. All members of the University Community are encouraged to enroll in the Emergency Notification Messaging System. This alert system will issue both text and voice messages when a significant emergency occurs on our campuses. In order to be enrolled in the system; members of the University community must log into UIS. On your Personal Information Menu click on “Update your emergency information for Instant Messaging System.” Enter the phone (cell or off-campus wired phone) number that you want to receive the emergency alert, starting with area code and leaving out the hyphen between the third and fourth numbers.

The University will post updates during a critical incident on the University’s website at http://www.stjohns.edu and the Campus Emergency Information Hotline 1-718-990-2000 will be staffed with essential personnel as needed. All decisions regarding external communication will be coordinated through Marketing and Communications and the Executive Director for University Relations. These representatives are responsible for disseminating emergency information to the larger community, and the media, as necessary.

Testing Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures -
An evacuation drill is coordinated by Fire Safety each semester for all on campus residential facilities. A second drill is coordinated after sunset during the Fall semester at all residential facilities. Thus, the emergency response and evacuation procedures are tested at least three times each year. Students are taught the locations of the emergency exits in the buildings and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term building evacuation. St. John’s University does not tell residents in advance about the designated locations for long-term evacuations because those decisions are affected by time of day, location of the building being evacuated, the availability of the various designated emergency gathering locations on campus, and other factors such as the location and nature of the threat. In both cases, Public Safety and Residence Life personnel on the scene will communicate information to students regarding the developing situation or any evacuation status changes.

The purpose of evacuation drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of an emergency. At St. John’s University, evacuation drills are used as a way to educate and train occupants on issues specific to their building. During the drill, occupants ‘practice’ drill procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the sound of the fire alarm. In addition to educating the occupants of each building about the evacuation procedures during the drills, the process also provides the University an opportunity to test the operation of fire alarm system components.

Evacuation drills are monitored by Fire Safety, Public Safety and Residence Life personnel to evaluate egress and behavioral patterns. Reports are prepared by participating departments which identify deficient equipment so that repairs can be made immediately. Any recommendations for improvements are also submitted to Fire Safety and Public Safety for consideration.

Students receive information about evacuation and stay-in-place procedures during freshman orientation and floor meetings. Residence Life personnel are trained in these procedures as well and act as an on-going resource for the students living in residential facilities. Fire Safety and Public Safety conduct unannounced drills each year and conduct follow-through activities designed for assessment and evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities.

Public Safety publicizes through the University’s email system its emergency response and evacuation procedure in conjunction with at least one test per calendar year. Public Safety coordinates announced and unannounced evacuation drills each semester, as described above, to test the emergency response and evacuation procedures, and to assess and evaluate the emergency evacuation plans and capabilities. The University maintains a record with the following details on each such drill and exercise: description; date; time and whether it was announced or unannounced. On April 4, 2019, between 10:30 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. the Department of Public Safety conducted an unannounced tabletop exercise. The exercise involved the activation and assembly of the Emergency Management Operations Team (EMOT) in response to a fire and evacuation of a residence hall.

Reporting Criminal Actions or other Emergencies

Reporting Crime or other Emergencies on Campus -

If you witness or become the victim of a crime, accident, medical emergency, fire, or suspicious or threatening circumstance on any St. John’s University campus, you should call 911, the Public Safety emergency number, the Dean of Students or a campus security authority promptly and provide an accurate description of the incident, when the victim of a crime elects to, or is unable to, make such a report. All telephones on University properties can dial 911 directly. Any criminal act should be reported immediately either in person or via telephone to the Public Safety Department or the Dean of Students, as appropriate. Incidents occurring on global sites can be directed to the site-specific security desk, which is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Incidents occurring at the Long Island Graduate Center should be referred to the public safety emergency phone number. Incidents occurring on the Bartilucci Campus and Manhattan Campus should be referred to the on-duty public safety officer or the public safety emergency phone number. The Queens and Staten Island campuses have Public Safety/Security Officers on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Contact information can be found in the “Important Phone Numbers” section earlier in this report.

All potential criminal activity, including any allegation of criminal sexual assault that is brought to the attention of any member of the University, must be reported to the Public Safety Department (with a specific, limited exemption for pastoral and professional counselors). A priest who has a crime disclosed during the sacrament of confession may not reveal anything that has been disclosed in the sacrament. The priest, however, will encourage and work with the penitent to find appropriate support services both on and off campus. Pastoral counselors or priests who have a crime disclosed to them outside of the sacrament of confession are required to report the crime in accordance with this policy. Every member of the faculty, administration and staff of St. John’s University, acting in his or her capacity as an employee of the University, is obligated to immediately report any incident of sexual assault against any member of the University community upon learning of the incident. Even when the individual requests confidentiality of the incident, the employee has a responsibility to report it. The University does not have procedures encouraging its pastoral and professional counselors, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform the persons they are counseling of how to report crimes to the University on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

When a crime is reported by an individual while on the Queens, Staten Island, Manhattan and Andrew Bartilucci campuses, Public Safety will dispatch an officer to the scene of the crime for a preliminary report of the date, time, and incident. When a crime is reported by an individual while on the Long Island Graduate Center campus or a global site campus, Public Safety will confer with the senior staff member by telephone or email. The Executive Director of Public Safety or designee will be notified and will direct the University’s response. If a student is involved, the preliminary report will be referred immediately to the Dean of Students for investigation. When appropriate, individuals are strongly encouraged to report complaints to the local police precinct. Each report will be assessed by the Department of Public Safety to identify Clery Act crimes and to determine if the incident constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat to the campus community. The Executive Director of Public Safety in accordance with the institution’s policy may issue a Timely Warning for reported Clery Act crimes and for crimes that constitute an ongoing or continuing threat to the campus community. Prompt reporting will assure timely warning notices and timely disclosure of crime statistics in the annual security report.

The Department of Public Safety has established an automated 24-hour confidential tip line. This tip line enables anyone in the University community, including global site campuses, to report information to Public Safety anonymously, while being recorded on an answering machine. The number is: (718) 733-7233 or (718) RED-SAFE. No attempt will be made by Public Safety to identify callers; should a caller wish to be contacted by Public Safety, he or she should include contact information in the voice message. If the caller is in need of a Public Safety immediate response, he/she should call the Public Safety emergency number.

- Department of Public Safety: 718-990-5252
- Dean of Students: 718-990-6568
- Local law enforcement at any New York campus can be reach by dialing 911.
- Local law enforcement at our Global Sites can be reach by dialing 112

Criminal Activity Off-Campus -
The Division of Student Affairs maintains contact with recognized fraternity and sorority organizations through the efforts of the Executive Director of Student Development and Engagement. St. John’s University does not recognize off-campus residences or activities of recognized fraternity and sorority organizations. Criminal activity at off campus locations in New York is monitored and recorded by the New York City Police Department and the Suffolk County Police Department. At our global sites the local law enforcement agency monitors off campus locations. The Department of Public Safety has a close working relationship with these agencies and is often notified regarding violations of federal, state, or local laws. This cooperative approach addresses situations as they arise as well as future concerns.

Disclosure of the Outcome of a Crime of Violence or Non-Forcible Sex Offense -
Upon written request, the University will disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of the paragraph.

The previous paragraph does not apply to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking because under the Clery Act both the accused and accuser in these cases are given the results without the need to make a written request.

Access Policy

These buildings are patrolled throughout the night on a random basis to ensure the safety and security of the campus. The same procedure is repeated during the weekend hours. Exterior door access to a locked building is granted only on a limited basis of proven need. Public Safety is prepared to escort anyone to and from a building during non-working hours. Anyone entering or leaving a building during non-working hours is required to notify the Department of Public Safety. Students, faculty, and staff are required to show a valid St. John’s StormCard to gain entrance to the computer lab, Taffner Field House, Fitness Center and the Law School library. As the utilization of a building diminishes during the day or evening, the Department of Public Safety locks the building. These buildings are patrolled throughout the night on a random basis to ensure the safety and security of the campus. The same procedure is repeated during the weekend hours. Exterior door access to a locked building is granted only on a limited basis of proven need. Public Safety is prepared to escort anyone to and from a building during non-working hours. Anyone entering or leaving a building during non-working hours is required to notify the Department of Public Safety. Students, faculty, and staff are required to show a valid St. John’s StormCard to gain entrance to the fitness center. Access to the Arlo Road residence halls is controlled by the assigned resident students. The assigned students are issued keys and the exterior of these locations are randomly patrolled by public safety in addition to being remotely monitored by Public Safety via CCTV.

Long Island Graduate Center campus -
On the Long Island Graduate Center campus access is granted to authorized students, faculty and staff by use of a valid St. John’s StormCard. All guests must request access through a staff member at the location. The building is both opened and locked by authorized Long Island Graduate center staff members. Public Safety monitors this location remotely via CCTV and has the ability to grant access upon request remotely. There are no residence halls on this campus.

Emergencies may necessitate changes or alterations to any posted schedules at any St. John’s University sites. Areas that are revealed as problematic have security surveys conducted on them. Administrators from the Departments of Public Safety, Student Life, and Facilities review these results. These surveys examine security issues such as landscaping, locks, alarms, lighting, and communications. Additionally, during the academic year, public safety, student life and residence life meet weekly to discuss issues of pressing concern. Weekly conference calls are conducted with senior staff located on each of the global sites. Security concerns are discussed and addressed. Our global site staff members are instructed to contact senior Public Safety personnel in the event of an emergency, so the emergency is addressed without delay.
Campus Law Enforcement Policy
The Department of Public Safety’s primary role at St. John’s is to protect life and property and to deter crime. Many of the Public Safety officers are former law enforcement officers. Their arrest authority is equivalent to that of any other citizen. Public Safety officers have the right to detain an individual(s) until the police arrive to make a formal arrest. St. John’s Department of Public Safety maintains frequent contact with the local police department (107th Precinct Queens; 120th Precinct Staten Island; 9th Precinct Manhattan, and the 4th Precinct Suffolk County). Agreements are in place with both the New York City Police Department and Suffolk County Police Department for them to investigate all crimes listed in NYS Penal Law section 70.02, and reports of students missing from a university owned residence hall. The police come on campus at the request of Public Safety for the purpose of investigating crimes. The police regularly patrol the perimeter of each campus.

Public Safety officers engage in routine motorized and foot patrols on a 24-hour basis on the Queens and Staten Island campuses, and provide lobby coverage from 7:00am until 11:00pm on the Manhattan campus and the Andrew Bartilucci campus. The officers are stationed at various posts throughout the campus. Some of these posts include, but are not limited to the following locations on the Queens campus: the main gate, St. Augustine Library and Taffner Field House. Public Safety officers are also assigned to patrol the Queens campus residence halls: Seton Complex, Henley Road Residence, Century, Carey, DaSilva, Hollis, Donovan, St. Vincent’s, Founders Village and John Cardinal O’Connor Halls. On the Manhattan and Andrew Bartilucci campuses, a Public Safety officer is posted at the main desk. The Long Island Graduate Center in Hauppauge does not have regular Public Safety Officer presence on campus.

The Global sites are patrolled by staff, administrators and receptionist/security personnel. They do not have arrest authority. St. John’s University and Global Studies senior staff maintain a relationship with the local law enforcement agencies (Carabinieri in Rome, Italy; Police Nationale in Paris France and the Garda in Limerick, Ireland). The local law enforcement agencies come on campus at the request of Public Safety or Global Studies senior staff for the purpose of investigating crimes. These agencies patrol the perimeter of each campus. St. John’s University has not entered into a formal written agreement with any of the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our Global Sites. Any questions or concerns regarding the reporting of crime at any St. John’s University site can be addressed by contacting Public Safety via the emergency phone number.

Campus Safety Programs
As an essential part of creating an atmosphere for learning, St. John’s University is committed to ensuring a safe and secure University environment. St. John’s University provides programs for students, parents, faculty, and staff addressing safety issues on campus. Programs at orientation for first-year students and their parents address fire safety and overall public safety measures on campus. Residence Assistants (RAs) and Residence Directors (RDs) are well versed in the campus safety programs available to students and meet monthly to address safety concerns. They also hold a required floor meeting for residents at the beginning of the fall semester addressing safety concerns and invite the Office of Public Safety to provide additional information and updates. All faculty and staff are required to attend an emergency response training program conducted by the Department of Public Safety. In addition, the campus provides an e-mail and phone alert system which notifies the campus community of emergency situations that may impact the University community. All community members are urged to sign up for this alert system.

Public Safety Escort - If, at any time, a person on campus is uncomfortable going from one campus point to another, or to his or her car, Public Safety provides escort services on the Queens and Staten Island campuses. Public Safety honors any request for this service, supplying an officer to escort the individual to the desired location, including a building, a parking lot on campus, or, if needed, to a car off campus, provided the car is in the immediate vicinity. This service is offered 24/7.

Vehicle lockout & battery boosts – Public Safety is available to assist in situations when keys have been locked in a vehicle or when the vehicle will not start. Assistance may also be provided in situations concerning flat tires.

Emergency Phone Service - There are clearly marked emergency phones located throughout the Queens, and Staten Island campuses. They can summon the Department of Public Safety, which will respond immediately. The phones are for emergency use only, which can include, but is not limited to car trouble; injury, especially when an ambulance is required; a reported crime in progress or the potential for a criminal act is suspected; and the need for the escort service. Public Safety is also available to assist persons who have locked keys in a car or need a jump-start.

CCTV surveillance – Public safety monitors numerous locations, inside and outside, on all of its campuses through the use of cameras which are monitored by both personnel at each campus and by personnel on the Queens campus.

Bicycle Locks - In an effort to safeguard the St. John’s University community cycling property, the Department of Public Safety offers heavy duty kryptonite bicycle locks at a reduced price and enlists the etching and registration services of the local police department.

Emergency Medical Technician – Several Public Safety Officers have been certified as NYS EMT’s and routinely responded to assignments of sick and injured persons. This first level triage is often sufficient in evaluating the patient and providing basic medical attention. If the need for additional treatment is determined an ambulance will be requested and transportation to a local hospital may occur.

Timely Warnings – All member of the University community are given an explanation of the timely warning policy, as discussed earlier in this report.

Emergency Notification Messaging System - All members of the University Community are encouraged to enroll in the Emergency Notification Messaging System. This alert system will issue both text and voice messages when a significant emergency occurs on our campuses. These messages will communicate what emergency currently exists, the location of the emergency, and advise a course of action. There will be updates issued as the emergency situation evolves. In order to be enrolled in the system members of the University Community must log into “UIS”. On your Personal Information Menu click on “Update your emergency information for Instant Messaging System. Enter the phone (cell or off-campus wired phone) number that you want to receive the emergency alert, starting with area code and leaving out the hyphen between the third and fourth numbers.

Fire Drills - Routine fire drills are conducted in each building once a semester on all campuses. In addition, all buildings have a public address system to be used in case of emergency. Fire drills are conducted 4 times a year in on-campus housing facilities.

Student Orientation - During student orientation, the Department of Public Safety gives a presentation to students. At this meeting students are:

- Given an overview of the security components the University has in place
- Directed to enter the phone numbers of the Department of Public Safety into their cell phones
- Made aware of the public safety confidential phone number in case they are apprehensive about getting involved in a matter
- Shown a picture of the campus emergency call towers and are given an explanation as to how they work
- Made aware of the extensive surveillance system
- Encouraged to seek out public safety officers to introduce themselves and to establish a relationship and comfort level, as the concept of “we are one community and family,” with an obligation to help each other stay safe
- Made aware that they should always be alert and try to walk in groups particularly at night
- Advised they can call the Department of Public Safety at any time, whether on or off campus for help or support
- Advised that they should opt-in as soon as possible to the University’s Emergency Notification
  System
- Given information on the Storm Card and detail how the card is key to both safety and information
- Advised on how to maintain safety in the residence halls and other locations by using the access system and that access will not be granted without proper presentation of the card

Crime Prevention Programs -
Crime prevention programs on personal safety and theft prevention are sponsored by various campus organizations throughout the year. Public safety personnel facilitate programs for students, parents, faculty, residents, and resident advisors, providing a variety of educational strategies and tips on how to protect themselves. Members of the Department of Public Safety speak at various residence life meetings, covering security awareness, prevention, risk reduction and avoidance.

St. John’s University provides information about crime prevention programs during orientation to both incoming students and parents and on the Website. Public safety officers engage in routine, motorized, and foot patrol on the Queens and Staten Island campuses on a 24-hour basis. The Department of Public Safety maintains frequent contact with the local police departments. The Queens campus has more than 100 residence safety monitors—trained student leaders who help to maintain safety at our on-campus housing facilities between 7 am and 11 pm daily. There are public safety officers at each residence entrance between 11 pm and 7 am daily. The Queens and Staten Island campuses also have cameras that are monitored on a 24-hour basis. Public safety personnel, upon request are available to discuss safety tips with individual students, faculty and staff.

Scope - This policy applies to all members of the University Community. For the purpose of this policy, the University Community includes, but is not limited to, all faculty, administrators, staff (including student workers, teaching and research fellows, doctoral and graduate assistants, tutors, interns and any other students who perform work-related functions for the University), students, alumni, interns, members of the Board of Trustees, and members of University-sponsored advisory committees. Visitors to the University, vendors and service providers also may be subject to this policy.

Policy - St. John’s University has a zero-tolerance policy for violence in the workplace. Any form of violent behavior, from the seemingly insignificant to the significant, is inherently destructive to the fabric of our University community and will not be tolerated. Employees have a responsibility to report promptly to their immediate supervisor all threats or incidents of workplace violence, whether they are directed at the employee or at another member of the University Community. The supervisor, the Department of Public Safety and the Office of Human Resources will coordinate an appropriate response.

In crisis situations or in any case where there is a concern about an immediate threat of violence or if a situation continues to escalate, employees should call 911 and contact the Department of Public Safety immediately. All campus phones can dial 911 directly.

Prohibited Behaviors - St. John’s University prohibits threatening or violent behaviors, directed at an individual, group of individuals, class of individuals or relatives of those individuals. The University policy applies to any threats or acts of violence related to the University workplace. Prohibited behaviors include, but are not limited to:

- Intimidating threats or acts in any manner or form that intimidate, coerce or cause fear of harm.
- Other crimes that intimidate, interrupt departmental productivity, or cause fear of harm.

Violations of the University’s policy on Violence in the Workplace may result in corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.

Prohibition of Weapons on University Property - The University expressly prohibits on University owned or controlled property or at University sponsored functions the possession, display, use, storage or distribution of any weapon to include, but not limited to, any firearm, pistol, revolver, rifle, assault weapon, shotgun, air gun, pellet gun, BB gun, ammunition, explosive, firework, stun gun, switchblade and other automatic knife, and other deadly or dangerous weapons, such as are defined in NY Penal Law Article 265.

This prohibition extends to imitation firearms and other objects that can be construed or used as weapons, and to items that pose a potential hazard to the safety or health of others, unauthorized hazardous materials or chemicals. Any use of gun replicas for educational, filming, or theatrical acting purposes must be cleared through the Department of Public Safety prior to being used for the specified purpose.

Exceptions to this policy include on-duty law enforcement officers who are legally permitted to carry weapons on campus and individuals who have received specific, written authorization from the Vice President of Public Safety. Off-duty law enforcement personnel who are armed on University owned or controlled property or at University sponsored functions are required to check in with Public Safety upon arrival to present proper identification and to secure authorization.

Violations, as well as any potentially dangerous situations, should be immediately reported to the Department of Public Safety.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

In order to maintain a safe environment, the University enforces its policies and applicable laws concerning the possession, use, and sale of alcoholic beverages (including underage drinking) and illegal drugs. The University strongly supports education and treatment programs as the most effective means to help prevent and reduce alcohol/drug abuse. The University recognizes the illegality and danger of alcohol/drug abuse and, accordingly, prohibits the unlawful distribution, dispensing, possession or use of illicit drugs or alcohol on the St. John’s University campus. The University will take into consideration, when determining sanctions, the case of a student who is a drug user or who abuses alcohol as long as he or she is willing to undergo medical treatment in a sincere attempt toward rehabilitation. In the case of any student who is not willing to undergo such treatment, the University reserves the right to take investigatory and disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. The University will not penalize any student or applicant for admission who has been in the past, but no longer is, a drug user. The Department of Public Safety may notify local law enforcement agencies concerning violations of the law related to the illegal possession, use and sale of alcohol and/or drugs.
Controlled Substances -
Federal law makes it a criminal offense to manufacture, distribute, or dispense, or possess with intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense, or simply possess a controlled substance. The New York Penal Law makes it a criminal offense to possess, possess with intent to sell, or actually sell various drugs. The drugs to which this law applies include marijuana. The possible sanctions for violation of federal and state and local law involving controlled substances and drugs depend upon the particular offense violated. The various offenses are premised on factors which include the type and quantity of drugs involved. Depending upon the particular circumstances involved, violations of said law could result in sanctions ranging from a monetary fine to life imprisonment. A person need not be in actual physical possession of a controlled substance to be guilty of a crime. The unlawful presence of a controlled substance in an automobile is presumptive evidence of knowing possession of each passenger, unless the substance is concealed on the person of one of these occupants. Similarly, the presence of certain substances, including marijuana, in open view in a room under circumstances demonstrating an intent to prepare the substance for sale is presumptive evidence of knowing possession of anyone in close proximity.

Alcohol -
New York law also prohibits the misuse of alcohol. Alcohol may not be sold, delivered, or given away to anyone under 21 years of age, nor may someone under the age of 21 present false evidence of age to purchase alcohol. A fine of up to $25 or imprisonment for up to five days can be imposed for consuming an alcoholic beverage in a public place or for public possession of an open container of an alcoholic beverage with intent to consume. Operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, or impaired by the use of drugs, is a crime for which a sentence of up to one year in prison can be imposed.

Parental Notification -
Excessive, abusive, illegal and /or repetitive use of alcohol and/ or drugs is inconsistent with the maintenance of an educational environment. Such behavior threatens the well-being of persons and property and tends to diminish a student’s prospects for personal and intellectual development and academic success. When students under the age of 21 are found to have committed serious or repetitive violations of University policies related to the possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and/or drugs, the Dean of Students or designee has the authority to determine when and by what means to notify parents or guardians. Whenever possible, students will be informed that a notification will occur in advance of a parent or guardian receiving the notice.

Education Program -
Wellness Education and Prevention Services utilizes evidenced-based prevention strategies focusing on early prevention with our first year students during orientation, a required pre-matriculation online course, (AlcoholEdu), classroom transition labs (Freshmen Experience Workshops) and a multimedia social norms campaign (www.sober24-7.com). Parents also are engaged in our prevention strategies during orientation as well as follow up communication the parent connection newsletter. Our active peer education program facilitates late-night alcohol-free events, mandated prevention initiatives required by Greeks, Athletes and campus leaders and DCTC (Don’t Cancel that Class) workshops. BASICS (Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students) and CHOICES (Conscious Healthy Options in College Environments) programs are designed for students who need additional guidance in the decision making process around using alcohol and other drugs addressing expectancies, reasons for use and healthy options.

The Alcohol and Other Drug policies on campus are reviewed biannually as part of the Biennial Review process, Department of Education, Part 86. For the full alcohol and drug policies of St. John’s University see, Drug-free Campus Guidelines - https://www.stjohns.edu/life-st-johns/health-and-wellness/wellness-education-and-prevention-services
University Programs to Prevent Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking

The upcoming sections of this report regarding dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking apply to all student and employees of the University, regardless of which campus site they are attending.

Policy –
St. John’s University will not tolerate or condone any instance of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking within its community. Every member of the faculty, administration, and staff of St. John’s University, acting in his or her capacity as an employee of the University, is obligated to immediately report any incident of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking against any member of the University community upon learning of the incident. Even when the individual requests confidentiality of the incident, the employee has a responsibility to report it. Information that could identify either the victim or the alleged perpetrator will be protected and not disclosed on any publicly available records, including Clery Act reporting and disclosures. The institution will also maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

In addition, all potential criminal activity, including any allegation of dating violence, domestic violence sexual assault or stalking that is brought to the attention of any member of the University, must be reported to the Public Safety Department. To talk with someone confidentially and discuss options before making a formal report of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking please contact a Confidential Support Advocate; the Center for Counseling Consultation; A Campus Ministry Priest; or Student Health Services. Students, employees or guests reporting the crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking may also choose to contact the Title IX Coordinator. Victims will be assisted by public safety in notifying law enforcement authorities if the victim so chooses. The victim of such a crime may decline to notify local law enforcement. A victim may choose to report at any time.

Additional information relating to sexual assault is distributed annually to the University community. The Public Safety website lists programs concerning crime prevention, sexual assault, and campus safety; and the online Student Handbook addresses this in its chapter on Maintaining Safety and Security on the St. John’s Campus.

WHAT CAN I DO TO KEEP SAFE? -
No one is ever responsible for the crime of dating violence, domestic violence sexual assault or stalking being perpetrated against them. However, every member of the St. John’s University community should familiarize themselves with consent and some behaviors that may help them be safer.

Facts to Know
• Consent must be active and full. If any type of manipulation, threat, or force is used to obtain a “yes” to sexual activity, then the “yes” does not qualify as consent.
• Even if you are in a long-term relationship, you have the right to refuse sexual activity with your partner. Prior consent to sexual contact does not imply current or future consent.
• An absence of “no” does not equal “yes.” Silence could mean many things other than “yes.” It could mean fear to say “no.”
• Respect a person’s expectations and limits. If you do not know what they are, it is your responsibility to ask.
• Do not assume that a person’s past behavior applies to the present. People have the right to make different choices about their sexual activity and level of desired intimacy at all times.
• You are responsible for your actions. Your attraction to someone does not give you the right to ignore that person’s expectations and limits.
Possible Protective Strategies

- Trust your instincts. Honor your gut reaction in an uncomfortable situation or if you are feeling unsafe, even if you don’t know why you feel that way. Leave immediately and seek help.
- The assailant and/or survivor are intoxicated in the majority of sexual offenses on college campuses. Because perpetrators use alcohol and other drugs to make their victims more vulnerable, be aware of who is serving you a drink and get help from someone you trust if you start to feel uncomfortable. Do not leave beverages unattended or accept drinks from someone you don’t know; always keep your drinks in sight.
- Tell someone you trust where and with whom you’re going out, and when you will return.
- Go out with friends whom you trust and agree to look out for one another. Leave with this group rather than leaving alone or with someone you don’t know well.
- Do what is right for you when it comes to sexual activity and let people know your limits as clearly as possible.

Prevention and Awareness Programs -
St. John’s University will not tolerate violence, and strives to be a community where all members feel safe, and where all of you will have a successful college experience. The Department of Student Wellness works to reduce instances of and the traumatic impact of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking at St. John’s University. We do this through education, coordination, treatment and linking you with information and resources.

New Student Orientation: Interactive Peer Theater -
FRIENDS – The College Years is an interactive play that is held during New Student Orientation. The play addresses experiences that students may encounter during their time in college. The program includes scenarios in which the student audience provides direction for the actors which will lead to a positive safe conclusion of the scenario. The interactive play engages students in complicated conversations about subjects such as sexual violence, consent, alcohol and other drugs, mental health issues like depression, anxiety and homesickness. Each student is provided with a playbill that lists available resources, contact information, definitions, Title IX resources, and information on how to report an incident of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking. This program has been adapted to fit a wider student body audience.

Haven -
Haven is a required sexual violence prevention course for incoming students. Students must complete this online course before coming to campus. Haven uses a population-level approach to educate all students on the issues associated with dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking and relationship violence, taking into account their unique perspectives and experiences, providing: key definitions and statistics; reflective and personalized content; bystander skill and confidence-building strategies; campus-specific policies, procedures and resources; and rich data summaries to inform future programming.

Bystander Intervention Training -
St. John’s University is excited to have adapted the It’s On Us Campaign. Through our campus video that is screened at large events and regularly scheduled pledge drives, the campaign has become a familiar program across campus. It’s On Us also provides the publicity and logo for our Bystander Intervention Leadership Training. More than 150 students are trained each semester in Bystander Intervention as well as all para-professional staff such as Orientation Leaders and Resident Advisors. This program prepares students to be leaders in preventing sexual violence on our campus by discussing warning signs, barriers to intervening, practical intervention options and each university member’s responsibility to act.
In addition to reporting incidents to appropriate authorities, below are some ways in which individuals can take safe and positive steps to prevent harm and intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking against another person.

- Look out for those around you.
- Realize that it is important to intervene to help others.
- Treat everyone respectfully. Do not be hostile or an antagonist.
- Be confident when intervening.
- Recruit help from others if necessary.
- Be honest and direct.
- Keep yourself safe.
- If things get out of hand, don’t hesitate to contact the police.

Annual Awareness Events -

Take Back the Night: The Division of Student Affairs conducts an annual event open to the campus community in which attendees talk about how to prevent gender-based violence at St. John’s University. This program provides a place to celebrate survivor’s healing while empowering the student body to break the silence of sexual violence and to speak up and be a part of prevention.

Turn Off the Violence Week

The Division of Student Affairs hosts a week of educational events each April, during sexual violence awareness month. Each year the program has a theme that students can engage more deeply with through panel discussions, film screenings, and academic lectures. In addition to the events held during the week, the St. John’s University Clothesline is also exhibited. In honor of those who have survived violence the clothesline project hangs across campus. It is a vehicle for anyone affected by violence to express their emotions by decorating and hanging a shirt to be viewed by others as testimony to the problem of sexual violence. This exhibit demonstrates the prevalence of these crimes, as well as provides hope as we join our voices to speak up for change.

Staff, Faculty and Administrators -

The University regularly conducts training programs for its community members in order to educate, promote and maintain a safe campus and learning environment free from sexual misconduct. This includes training on dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

The University's mandatory comprehensive Title IX education and awareness training programs are regularly conducted and employees must attend. Training on preventing and responding to sexual misconduct, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking is provided in classroom style to all employee populations, and in addition, online training conveniently serves our adjunct faculty who spend less time on campus outside of instruction hours. Registering for a training session is easily accomplished by logging in to UIS via MySJU. Simply navigate to the “HR employee training” tab and choose a training session such as “Title IX Training: Reporting and Responding to Sexual Assault on Campus”. This training program, offered by the Office of General Counsel, Human Resources, and the Center for Counseling and Consultation, will provide a comprehensive overview of Title IX. This program defines sexual violence, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. It provides participants with information regarding the appropriate ways to respond in the event that a student approaches you with a claim that he or she has experienced or witnessed such treatment. The Title IX training program educates participants about the possible effects sexual violence may have on victim(s) and on all members of the University community. The training program thoroughly explains St. John’s policies and procedures for addressing complaints, as well as your responsibility as a University employee and what you can do if you are a bystander.
Be the Bridge is a faculty toolkit for the prevention of, and response to, sexual violence, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. See Appendix I.

The University’s Title IX Coordinator, holds semi-monthly meetings with the deputy coordinator, director of student conduct and associate director of Public Safety compliance to monitor the campus environment and to advance the University’s collective efforts to ensure that the University responds promptly and equitably to prevent a recurrence and eliminate the effects of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

WHAT YOU CAN DO IF YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT OR STALKING:

The health, safety, and well-being of all members of the St. John’s University (the “University”) community are the University’s primary concerns. Consistent with the University’s mission as a Catholic, Vincentian, metropolitan and global institution of higher education, the University abides by all applicable federal, state and local laws that prohibit discrimination in any educational or employment program, policy, or practice of the University. In furtherance of the University’s mission, and in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”), the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (the “Clery Act”), as amended by the Violence Against Women Act/Campus Sexual Violence Act (“Campus SaVE Act”), Article 129-B of the New York State Education Law, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the New York State Human Rights Law and the New York City Administrative Code, this Policy prohibits all forms of sex and gender discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct; and the University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities.

Sexual misconduct includes a broad range of behaviors that will not be tolerated in the University's education programs or activities. The University strictly prohibits sexual harassment and sexual violence, including the offenses of sexual assault, sexual coercion, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking prohibited by this policy (collectively, "sexual misconduct"). The University also prohibits retaliation against a person for the good faith reporting of any alleged violation or for participating in any investigation or hearing.

Sexual misconduct can occur between strangers, acquaintances, or people who know each other well, including those who are involved in an intimate or sexual relationship, and can be committed by anyone regardless of sex, gender, or gender identity.

The purpose of the Sexual Misconduct Policy & Procedures for the St. John’s University Community (the “Policy”) is to ensure that all community members live, work and learn in a safe and respectful environment free from any form of sexual misconduct. If there is a violation of the Policy, the University will take steps to eliminate the sexual misconduct, prevent its recurrence and to remedy any effects of the sexual misconduct.

Inquiries concerning the application of the Policy or Title IX may be referred to the University's Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator's responsibilities include, but are not limited to, overseeing the University's response to complaints of sexual misconduct, coordinating investigations into allegations of sexual misconduct, ensuring that students and employees receive appropriate education and training, and identifying and addressing any patterns or systemic problems of sexual misconduct that arise during or following the investigation of a complaint of sexual misconduct. The University has designated two Deputy Title IX Coordinators. The Deputy Title IX Coordinators aid the Title IX Coordinator in overseeing and responding to reports of sexual misconduct. The Deputy Title IX Coordinators, either alone or in collaboration with Public Safety, ensure that resources, guidance and support services are offered, explain the procedural options, and facilitate access to interim remedies.

How do I report? (Reporting Options)

You have the right to make a report to Public Safety, the Title IX Coordinator, the Deputy Title IX Coordinators, local law enforcement and State Police or choose not to report; to report the incident to St. John’s University; to be protected by the University from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance and resources from the University.
As an international student, you have the same rights as all students to report and to receive support and resources for sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking regardless of your immigration or visa status. The University will not retaliate against you or treat you differently. Furthermore, as an international student, you may obtain additional support and information about your immigration or visa status, including options for U and T visas, through the International Students and Scholars Office at 718-990-6083. You also have the right to file a report with Human Resources if the accused is an employee and to have an employee confidentially assist you with filing that report. There may be times when the Department of Public Safety or another administrator may contact local law enforcement regarding the nature of an alleged incident, however, it is always your decision whether or not to cooperate with any law enforcement investigation.

- In New York State, when reporting to law enforcement – Law enforcement will likely conduct an interview outside the presence of University employees at a law enforcement facility. Law enforcement will likely request that the victim be examined at a local hospital and they may collect evidence. Law enforcement does not recognize the University’s definition of affirmative consent as listed in Appendix B and they do not recognize New York State Education law, Title 7, Article 129-B, section 6441- affirmative consent.

- In Rome, Italy when reporting to law enforcement – Law enforcement will likely conduct an interview at a law enforcement facility and a report will be prepared. Law enforcement will likely request that the victim be examined at a local hospital and they may collect evidence. Law enforcement in Rome do not recognize the University’s definition of affirmative consent as listed in Appendix B and they do not recognize New York State Education law, Title 7, Article 129-B, section 6441- affirmative consent.

- In Paris, France when reporting to law enforcement – Law enforcement will likely conduct an interview in the presence of University employees who will serve as translators at a law enforcement facility. A detailed statement will be drafted into a report that the law enforcement officer will print and hand to the victim for confirmation of accuracy and completeness before requesting the victim’s signature. Law enforcement will likely request that the victim be examined at a state forensic hospital and they may collect evidence. The victim may be requested to participate in a face to face interview with a law enforcement officer and the accused. Additional interviews may be conducted as the investigation proceeds. Law enforcement in Paris does not recognize the University’s definition of affirmative consent as listed in Appendix B and they do not recognize New York State Education law, Title 7, Article 129-B, section 6441- affirmative consent.

- In Limerick, Ireland when reporting to law enforcement – A report can be made at any Garda station. The investigation is then conducted at the station local to where the offence occurred. The complainant will normally be requested to submit to an examination where evidence can be gathered in a designated medical facility (hospital). As soon as the investigation is completed a file will be forwarded to the Director of Public Prosecutions. Law enforcement in Ireland does not recognize the University’s definition of affirmative consent as listed in Appendix B and they do not recognize New York State Education law, Title 7, Article 129-B, section 6441- affirmative consent.

Information that could identify either the victim or the alleged perpetrator will be protected and not disclosed on any publicly available records, including Clery Act reporting and disclosures. The institution will also maintain as confidential any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures. Students reporting a complaint of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking will be provided with a written University resource guide titled “You Are Not Alone”. This resource guide contains the Students Bill of Rights and available Interim Remedies.

If you share an incident of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking with a St. John’s employee (excluding members of the Center for Counseling and Consultation, Health Services and the Campus Support Advisors working in their respective capacities), they are required by University policy to report this information to Public Safety and/or the Title IX Coordinator. Reports made to a St. John’s administrator or faculty will trigger a University response which may involve an investigation by Public Safety and/or the Title IX Coordinator.

When Should I Contact a Title IX Coordinator?
If you have concerns about sexual violence, or misconduct please seek the assistance of a Title IX Coordinator. For example, we encourage you to contact a Title IX Coordinator if you:

- Think you may have encountered sexual misconduct and wish to understand your options
- Learn of a situation that you feel may warrant a University investigation
- Need help on how to handle a situation by which you are indirectly affected
- Seek guidance on possible methods of de-escalating or alleviating a difficult situation
- Have questions on St. John’s policies and procedures

Survivors of Sexual Assault -
St. John’s University is committed to supporting survivors of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking by providing the necessary safety and support services so that students can remain at St. John’s University, meet academic standards, obtain necessary health/mental health treatment, and maintain social relationships. This is written for survivors of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, stalking, and relationship violence, to provide support as well as important information about prohibited conduct, available resources on and off campus, and ways to file a complaint in order to assist survivors in the recovery process and in their efforts to heal from this unacceptable form of violence. If you have survived sexual misconduct or know someone who has, please be assured that there are people who care about what you have endured.

You are not alone in what happened to you, or in how you feel, no matter what form your experience took. It is important for you to know that the feelings, reactions, and questions you may be experiencing are similar to those of other people who have been victimized through no fault of their own. Sexual misconduct is never the fault of the victim. You are not to blame for what another person has done to you. You, as others have, can learn to regain a sense of power over your life. You may feel very isolated and alone, but there are resources and support available and people ready and able to help you. While the needs and issues of different populations on campus may be unique, the support resources and procedures apply to all students. Whether you are an undergraduate student, a graduate student, a woman or man, identify as LGBTQ or cisgender or straight, you receive the same dedicated support and services at St. John’s University. Emotional support, counseling, advisement regarding your options, medical treatment, and academic assistance are all available. Please review the You Are Not Alone resource guide, Appendix H, as the first step in understanding how St. John’s University can support you. If you have questions about this document please seek assistance through one of the listed confidential options.

Emergency Medical Assistance -
The first step in taking care of yourself is making sure you are physically well. Even if you do not have any visible physical injuries following an incident of any form of sexual assault, dating violence, intimate partner violence and/or stalking, there may be physical injuries that you cannot see. Medical and health centers can provide additional services such as testing for sexually transmitted diseases, evidence collection, and/or counseling. New York State has a network of hospitals with Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) Programs. SAFE Programs have specially trained health professionals who provide medical care to patients who report sexual assault, including evaluation, treatment, referral and follow-up. Trained advocates may also be available to provide you with additional support and to guide you through the experience at the hospital.

Preserving Evidence -
Since evidence dissipates quickly, you may wish to preserve evidence and are encouraged to seek medical attention within 48 hours (and no more than 96 hours) of the incident. Preservation of evidence is important for possible use in legal actions or requests for civil no-contact orders and/or orders of protection. If you choose to preserve evidence, it is important that you do not bathe, douche, brush your teeth or comb your hair. Also, the clothes you were wearing may be held as evidence, so it is recommended that you bring a change of clothes with you to the hospital. Additionally, photographs may be taken of you, including anywhere there are bruises, scrapes or cuts. If you are unsure about participating in criminal prosecution, having the evidence preserved will help keep your options open. Taking the step to gather evidence immediately will not commit you to a specific course of action; you do not have to make a police report.

If you would like to receive medical care, you may call 911, call Public Safety at 718-990-5252, or visit one of the hospitals with SAFE programs listed in the “You Are Not Alone” resource guide (see appendix H). The University offers free transportation to and from a hospital for a SAFE examination.

Counseling and Support

Students:
Experiencing sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking may bring up many different types of feelings that can be painful, confusing, and/or overwhelming. Obtaining support from family and friends can be very beneficial to your healing. In addition, enlisting support from a professional who is specially trained in working with survivors of sexual assault can also be helpful for recovery. Often survivors may experience acute stress that may include a range of difficulties such as nightmares, flashbacks, numbness, and withdrawal from family and friends. In addition, survivors may sometimes blame themselves, feel upset about the reactions of their friends and/or family, feel ashamed and/or angry about what happened. These responses can make it difficult for some survivors to manage these feelings alone. Many survivors find comfort in sharing their story in a supportive and confidential environment. It is also possible to learn new coping skills and facilitate returning to activities that you find meaningful and important. You have a number of options if you would like to receive support. Both on and off campus resources are available to all survivors.

On-Campus Resources

- Center for Counseling and Consultation (CCC) - The Center for Counseling and Consultation (CCC) has mental health professionals available to provide support and assistance. Services at the CCC are free and confidential.
- Campus Support Advisor (CSA) - The Campus Support Advisor is a trained SJU Administrator who serves as a confidential resource to survivors. The CSA will provide information on SJU procedures, discuss all remedies available to you, and facilitate referrals for other needs you might have.
- Campus Ministry - Campus ministers are available for spiritual support and follow-up referrals.
- Student Health Services - Student Health Services also has staff available to provide medical assistance and support. Services are free and confidential.

Employees:
Employees can obtain assistance concerning dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking by contacting the Employee Assistance Program. The University has engaged the services of Corporate Counseling Associates, Inc. (CCA), a new Employee Assistance Program (EAP) vendor. CCA is charged with providing exceptional wellness services to the St. John's employee community.

What is the Employee Assistance Program?
The EAP is free, confidential assistance for employees and their families in a wide range of areas. EAP services are available 24/7 by calling the hotline or logging on to the website. Professional consultants are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to offer support and resources, simply by calling the confidential helpline. Your call will always be answered by a licensed/certified mental health professional who will assess your needs, respond competently to emergency situations, and direct you promptly to the appropriate expert area(s). To meet with a counselor in person (locally or nationwide) call the helpline to schedule an appointment.

- Log on to the EAP vendor website directly to access services at myccaonline.com and enter the portal using company code: STJOHNS.
- Call the confidential EAP helpline at 800-833-8707 to reach a professional consultant on the phone or to schedule an in-person appointment, locally or nationwide.

Interim Remedies

Students:
The following interim remedies are available to all students who are victims of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and/or stalking regardless if he or she chooses to file a report or discloses the incident confidentially to members of the Center for Counseling and Consultation, Health Services, or Campus Support Advisor:

- Adjustments to class schedule, course load, postponed exams/assignments
- Excused absences, immediate withdrawal, options for independent study
- University housing/room change requests
- Adjustments to your campus work schedule
- Transportation assistance including security escorts
- Rearranging dining and study schedules
- Support for reporting to local law enforcement
- Referral to Health Services, Counseling Services
- Access to Community Resources

Students that report an incident to any mandated reporter (Public Safety, Employee or Faculty member) may also receive the following Interim Remedies:

- No Contact Order - A University document restricting either party from having any contact with each other until the conclusion of the student conduct process. Examples of unauthorized contact include, but are not limited to: phone calls, written or electronic correspondence, personal visits or messages sent through social networking sites. This restriction applies to both on and off campus interactions, as well as contact initiated by a third party on your behalf or at your request.
- Protection From Retaliation - Retaliation for reporting any allegations of student misconduct is in itself a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.
- Guidance through the University Conduct Process
- Limited access to specific University housing when the accused presents a continuing threat to the health and safety of the community or the complainant
- Interim suspension of the accused when he/she presents a continuing threat to the health and safety of the community or the complainant

Employees:
Following the reporting of an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking an accused employee may be issued an interim action. This includes an interim suspension; limitation of access to designated University facilities; adjustments to work environment and transportation accommodations within reason. Public Safety personnel are available to assist with the obtaining of a court issued order of protection.

Legal Orders of Protection and Temporary Restraining Orders

In addition, you might be interested in obtaining an "Order of Protection" or "Temporary Restraining Order." An Order of Protection is a document issued by a public court to limit the behavior of someone who harms or threatens to harm another person. It is used to address various types of safety issues, including, but not limited to, situations involving domestic violence. For example, it can require a person not to assault, threaten, harass or stalk you; it can forbid a person from having any contact with you and/or your family or it can require a person to stay away from your home or the University (where you study, work and live).

Upon request, Public Safety Officers within St. John’s Department of Public Safety are available to provide you with assistance in seeking an Order of Protection or a Temporary Restraining Order, but a Public Safety Office cannot request an Order of Protection or Temporary Restraining Order on your behalf.

In New York, Family Courts, Criminal Courts and Supreme Courts can all issue Orders of Protection.

Family Court Order of Protection
This is issued as part of a civil proceeding. Its purpose is to stop violence within a family, or within an intimate relationship, and provide protection for those individuals affected. To obtain an order of protection in the Family Court, your relationship to the other person must fall into one of the following categories:

- Current or former spouse
- Someone with whom you have a child in common
- A family member to whom you are related by blood or marriage
- Someone with whom you have or have had an “intimate relationship.” An intimate relationship does not have to be a sexual relationship. A relationship may be considered intimate depending on factors such as how often you see each other, or how long you have known each other. (After a petition is filed, the court will decide if it is an intimate relationship).

To start a proceeding in Family Court, you need to file a form called a Family Offense Petition. You can contact the Family Court in your county for help completing and filing the petition.

Criminal Court Order of Protection
A criminal court order of protection may only be issued against a person who has been charged with a crime. There does not need to be a relationship between the complaining witness and the defendant.

Supreme Court Order of Protection
This can only be issued as part of an ongoing divorce proceeding. If you have an ongoing divorce case and would like to request an order of protection, you may do so by making a written request by Motion or Order to Show Cause; or you may make an oral request at a court appearance.

In addition, there are many community resources available to assist in matters relating to sexual assault, such as the New York City Alliance Against Sexual Assault on the web at www.svfreennyc.org. Through contact with the University Resources listed above, members of the University community can get help to identify appropriate resources.

University disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking

Adjudication
The University has distinct procedures for the investigation and resolution of:

- Complaints against students (Student Code of Conduct);
- Complaints against faculty (Investigation and Resolution as set forth below, and applicable University procedures as provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement and University Statutes in taking any disciplinary action);
- Complaints against staff and administrators (as set forth in the Sexual Misconduct Policy).

Any community member may make a complaint pursuant to these policies. The applicable procedure for remedying a complaint depends on whether the accused is a student, member of the faculty, or staff or administrator. For instance, a complaint brought by a faculty member against a student would be processed pursuant to the Student Code of Conduct; a complaint by a student against an administrator would be processed pursuant to the Sexual Misconduct Policy; and a complaint by an administrator against a faculty member would be investigated in accordance with the Sexual Misconduct Policy and the resolution process outlined in the University Statutes; and so on.
In cases where the person accused of sexual misconduct is neither a student nor an employee of the University, the University's ability to take responsive action is extremely limited. However, the University shall take all appropriate steps within its control to ensure a safe and nondiscriminatory campus community such as restricting the visitor's access to campus, and/or referring the matter to local law enforcement for legal action, where appropriate.

Initial Assessment - Once a complaint or notice of any allegation of sexual misconduct is received, the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will make an initial assessment of the reported information and respond to any immediate health or safety concerns raised by the report, including interim remedies.

The Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will provide the complainant with a general understanding of this Policy and the process for responding to complaints of sexual misconduct. The complainant will be provided with a written explanation of all available resources and options (e.g., reporting to appropriate law enforcement agencies; referrals for medical treatment at local hospitals and trauma centers) and the opportunity to discuss those resources and options. The complainant will also be advised of the right to an advisor of his or her choice to accompany him or her to all meetings in relation to these Procedures. The Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will also explain the University's prohibition against retaliation and that the University will take prompt action in response to any act of retaliation.

Preliminary Investigation - An investigator will conduct a preliminary investigation and the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will assess whether the Sexual Misconduct Policy or the Student Code of Conduct may have been violated. If the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, determines that the Policy or the Code of Conduct may have been violated, the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will notify the respondent in writing that a complaint has been filed and provide the factual allegations concerning the alleged violation, and possible sanctions. The Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, will schedule a meeting with the respondent, within a reasonable amount of time, and ensure the respondent is provided with a written explanation of all available resources and options, and is offered the opportunity to meet to discuss those resources and options. Upon the preliminary investigation, the Title IX Coordinator, or a designee, may determine that an effective remedy designed to prevent recurrence and address the effects on the complainant and community can be implemented. Such remedies include, but are not limited to: No Contact Orders; separating the parties; placing limitations on the parties; adjusting work schedules; adjusting student housing or living arrangements; or reasonable academic adjustments. Where the respondent is not a member of the University Community, the matter may be referred to law enforcement, and to the extent the identity of the third party is known, the University's Department of Public Safety will issue a “No Trespass” letter to the third party denying access to the University's buildings or grounds for acting in a manner that disrupts or disturbs the normal educational functions of the institution.

Process for Investigation and Resolution - Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will assign a specially trained investigator (or team of investigators) to investigate the complaint unless the complainant has requested that the University refrain from such an investigation and the University has determined that it may do so. The nature and extent of the investigation will vary based on the specific circumstances of the incident. While the complainant is not required to provide a written statement regarding the complaint, such a written statement or other written materials related to the complaint will be reviewed, if made available to the investigator(s).

Whenever possible, and as appropriate, the investigator(s) will interview the complainant, respondent and any witnesses. The investigator(s) will gather any pertinent evidence. The investigator(s) will not interview any witnesses for the sole purpose of obtaining character information. At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator(s) will prepare a written report detailing the relevant content from the interviews and any documentary evidence gathered.

The procedures for Investigation will comply with the following:

- There will be a prompt, fair, and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result.
• Timely notice of meetings will be provided to the parties, and both parties are entitled to the same opportunities to have an advisor of his/her choice present during any meeting, investigation or disciplinary proceeding.
• Throughout the investigation, the complainant and the respondent will have an equal opportunity to present relevant witnesses and other evidence,
• The investigator(s) will direct the complainant, respondent, witnesses and other interested individuals to preserve any relevant evidence.
• Participants in an investigation shall be advised to refrain from discussing the matter during the pendency of the investigation in order to protect the privacy of the individuals involved and to maintain the integrity of the investigation.
• Information related to or concerning the romantic or sexual history of either the complainant or the respondent will not be considered except from either the complainant or respondent regarding their shared sexual history. If either offers such information, the other will have the right to respond.
• At any stage of the investigation, the investigator(s) may consult with the Office of General Counsel or other University officials, as appropriate.
• Any University officials involved will not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against any party.
• Investigations will be conducted by administrators who receive annual training on the issues related to sexual misconduct.

Time Frame for Investigation and Resolution - While the time to resolve a reported incident will vary from case to case, depending on the specific facts and circumstances, it is expected that in most cases complaints will be resolved within 60 days. If the process will take longer than 60 days, both the complainant and the respondent will be notified.

Notice of Outcome - Both the Complainant and Respondent will receive simultaneous written notice of the outcome to the extent permitted by law, available appeal procedures (if any), any change to the result, and when the result becomes final.

Evidentiary Standard - The evidentiary standard in determining the facts will be based upon a preponderance of the evidence, i.e., a finding that it is more likely than not that the alleged sexual misconduct occurred or did not occur.

Prohibition on Retaliation –
• The University prohibits retaliation against any person who reports sexual misconduct or participates in the investigation of any allegation of sexual misconduct, including participating as a witness. Prohibited retaliation may include taking adverse action or treatment that leads to a negative impact on an individual’s employment or educational experience.
• Any member of the University community or third party who attempts either directly or indirectly to intimidate, threaten, retaliate, interfere with, restrain, coerce, discriminate against, violate a University No Contact Order, or harass any person for reporting, attempting to report, or responsibly pursuing a complaint, or is a witness cooperating in a University investigation regarding possible violations of any of the University’s policies regarding sexual misconduct, will be subject to prompt and appropriate disciplinary action, including possible termination or expulsion from the University.
• Retaliation should be reported promptly to the University’s Title IX Coordinator. Reports of retaliation will be investigated, and such conduct may result in disciplinary action independent of the sanction(s) or interim remedies imposed in response to the underlying allegations of sexual misconduct.
Violations of Criminal Statutes, Laws, Regulations - If an accused or respondent is charged with the violation of a state or federal criminal statute (or its equivalent in another jurisdiction), the determination to proceed with the Student Conduct Process concurrently with the legal system is in the discretion of the Dean of Students or designee. In cases of sexual misconduct the University shall proceed with an investigation and a hearing. When a response to the criminal action proceeds concurrently with the University's investigation, the University may exercise discretion in extending its investigation with a brief delay. Any determinations regarding violations of the Student Code of Conduct are made independent of law enforcement disposition of the matter. The University does not offer legal advice or counsel to students facing criminal charges.

Advisors - The respondent, accused and complainant have the right to be accompanied by an advisor of choice to assist them and advise them throughout the investigation process and the student conduct process, including at meetings and hearings. No person can be compelled to be an advisor, and if the student is unable to secure a willing advisor she or he may nonetheless participate in the hearing without an advisor. There is a University Advisor Panel trained to assist students before and during a hearing, but neither the complainant nor the respondent are required to select an advisor from this panel. The advisor may advise the respondent or complainant, but may not participate in the hearing in any other capacity and may not be a witness. An advisor may consult only, and may not participate or be heard at the hearing. At least two (2) school days prior to the scheduled hearing date, the student shall inform the Office of Student Conduct if he or she intends to utilize an advisor. Advisors may not appear in place of the respondent or complainant.

Witnesses - No later than two (2) school days prior to the hearing, the respondent or complainant may submit lists identifying the witnesses they expect to present at the hearing to the Office of Student Conduct. A witness may appear at the hearing in person, or may submit a written statement for the panel's consideration. The Chair has the discretion to exclude any witness not previously identified. In the discretion of the University, accommodations for witnesses may be made. The hearing panel may request the appearance of any additional witness it deems appropriate.

Types of disciplinary proceeding (Students)
This institution utilizes two types of disciplinary proceedings; Behavioral hearings and Conduct Board hearings.

Behavioral Hearing - The Behavioral Hearing is a meeting with the Student Conduct Administrator or designee where the respondent may review the incident, respond to the charges, and discuss the circumstances. Behavioral Hearings for Alleged Code of Conduct Violations: The Student Conduct Administrator or designee may, at his or her discretion, make a determination concerning the respondent's responsibility and the sanctions he or she must complete. The Student Conduct Administrator or designee may also provide verbal notice whether the case will be directly referred to the Student Conduct Board or the University Conduct Board. Behavioral Hearings for Allegations Regarding Sexual Misconduct or Gender Discrimination: The Student Conduct Administrator or designee may, at his or her discretion, make a determination concerning the respondent's responsibility and the sanctions he or she must complete. The Student Conduct Administrator or designee may also provide verbal notice whether the case will be directly referred to the University Conduct Board. The Behavioral Hearing may be scheduled within seven (7) days of the Student Conduct Administrator or designee’s receipt of the investigation file.

Behavioral Hearing Outcomes - The following are possible outcomes of the Behavioral Hearing:

- Not in Violation: If the Student Conduct Administrator or designee determines at the conclusion of the investigation process that the respondent has not violated the Student Code of Conduct, the respondent shall be found Not in Violation and the Student Conduct Administrator or designee shall confirm the decision in writing.
• In Violation: If the respondent takes responsibility for a violation or violations of the Student Code of Conduct, or if it is determined that the respondent has violated the Student Code of Conduct, but the matter does not warrant a referral to a hearing board, the Student Conduct Administrator or designee shall resolve the matter at his or her sole discretion. In this instance, the Student Conduct Administrator or designee shall issue sanctions as set forth herein in Article VII, Section B. This administrative determination shall be presented to the respondent in writing containing a confirmation of the violation the respondent was found responsible for and a statement of the sanction(s) to be imposed.

University Conduct Boards - Referral to Student Conduct Board or University Conduct Board: If after the Behavioral Hearing, the Student Conduct Administrator or designee decides that another hearing body should determine the matter, the Student Conduct Administrator or designee may refer the matter to either the Student Conduct Board or University Conduct Board. If the Student Conduct Administrator or designee refers a matter to another hearing body, the respondent may request to proceed with an administrative hearing before the Dean of Students or designee. It is in the discretion of the Dean of Students or designee to accept or reject the request. All matters involving allegations of sexual misconduct may be referred to the University Conduct Board.

A matter may be referred to the University Conduct Board when it: (1) involves behavior the University determines to be of an egregious nature; or (2) could result in a suspension or expulsion. A matter may be referred to the Student Conduct Board when they are of a less serious nature and when there is no possibility of suspension or expulsion. For matters being referred to the University Conduct Board or the Student Conduct Board, the Student Conduct Administrator or designee shall provide the complainant and respondent with information on the appropriate conduct board’s processes and procedures. Each University Conduct Board hearing may be conducted before a hearing panel consisting of five (5) members of the University Conduct Board. A quorum shall consist of three (3) members. Allegations of sexual misconduct or gender discrimination that are not resolved with a Behavioral Hearing shall only be resolved by a University Conduct Board.

In cases involving sexual misconduct, students shall not serve as members on the University Conduct Board, nor shall students serve on the University Student Conduct Appeal Board. All panel members receive annual and ongoing in-service training on issues related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and how to conduct inquiries and a hearing process that protects student safety and promotes accountability. The Dean of Students or designee shall select an appropriate individual to serve as the non-voting Chair of the panel. The Chair shall be responsible for conducting the hearing in an orderly and efficient manner and, for that purpose, may make decisions related to admission of evidence and witness testimony. The purpose of the hearing is to make findings of fact with respect to the matter before the panel and for that reason character witness testimony shall not be permitted.

General Provisions for Hearings of University Conduct Boards - The following general provisions are common elements for Conduct Board hearings:

- At the hearing, a Student Conduct Administrator or designee may present charges on behalf of the complainant.
- The Chair is responsible for the orderly and proper functioning of all hearings and for ensuring that both parties receive the opportunity to present relevant facts.
- Hearings are to be private and not open to members of the University community or to the public. Conduct Board members are duty-bound to maintain confidentiality. The University anticipates that hearings may be conducted within sixty (60) days of when the incident was documented.
Unique circumstances of individual matters may require extension of time frames set forth herein within the discretion of the University.

- All persons attending the proceedings shall conduct themselves in an orderly and respectful manner. Any person who engages in an obstructive, disruptive, or disorderly manner in the presence of the hearing panel shall be removed from the hearing room in the sole discretion of the Chair.
- No audio or video recordings of the hearings may be made.
- The University reserves the right to have an attorney as a part of the Conduct Board hearing process.
- If the complainant or the respondent does not appear for the hearing at its scheduled time, the hearing shall proceed at the discretion of the Chair.
- Strict conformity to the legal rules of evidence shall not be required at hearings. A finding of responsibility in all matters shall be based on a preponderance of the evidence.
- The respondent or complainant may participate in the hearing directly by their attendance. The respondent or complainant may also participate remotely through video conferencing or by telephone. The respondent or complainant may also choose not to participate, or to submit a written statement for the panel’s consideration to substitute for his or her presence.
- The respondent and the complainant will both be given the opportunity to address issues related to potential conflicts of interest regarding the panel members selected for the hearing.

Procedure - The Chair shall explain the function of the hearing, verify that the respondent and the complainant are aware of the rights of a student before the hearing panel, and inform the respondent and the complainant that all participants shall be asked to affirm the truthfulness of their testimony and that providing false information to the hearing panel is a violation in itself. The Chair shall ask whether there will be any witnesses testifying on behalf of the respondent and the complainant, advise the respondent and the complainant of the right to be present at all stages of the hearing process except deliberation, and read the charges. A Student Conduct Administrator may present the incident report, the charges and, as necessary, any statement submitted on the case. Hearing panel members may question the Student Conduct Administrator and any witnesses called by the Student Conduct Administrator. The Chair shall offer both the respondent and the complainant the opportunity to testify or remain silent. If either party elects to testify, he/she is obligated to answer relevant questions by any member of the Conduct Board. If the respondent or the complainant refuses to answer any question that question and/or answer may not later be presented as grounds for any appeal. The respondent and the complainant may call witnesses on his or her behalf even if he or she does not testify.

The respondent and the complainant have the right to question all witnesses who testify at the hearing. Questions shall be submitted to a Conduct Board member, who will direct them to the witness at the Chair’s discretion. Conduct Board members may question witnesses called by the respondent and the complainant. Any party to the hearing may submit questions to the Conduct Board to be asked of the witness. All witnesses shall be excused from the hearing room upon completion of their testimony. The Chair shall advise these witnesses that they are not to discuss their testimony outside the hearing room, including during any breaks in the hearing. Witnesses shall be asked to affirm the truthfulness of their testimony and informed that providing false information to the hearing panel is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Witnesses shall not be allowed in the hearing room prior to their testimony. The members of the Conduct Board may recall any witnesses if needed.

Appeals of University Conduct Hearings

Right of Appeal - Once the hearing has been completed and a determination has been made. The respondent or complainant may appeal the findings of responsibility.

Status Pending Appeal - Any sanction imposed shall be effective immediately and shall remain in effect for the duration of the conduct process.
Standard for Appeals - A decision set forth by the Student Conduct Board or University Conduct Board may be revised or overturned only when it is demonstrated that:

- the student has submitted or presented information that indicates an omission in the Student Conduct Process that may have affected the final outcome of the board's decision; or
- there is new evidence which did not exist at the time of the hearing that would have a bearing on the Board's original findings.

Timing of Appeal - A student wishing to appeal must provide notice to the Dean of Students or designee in writing within five (5) days of delivery of the decision letter. A student preparing an appeal is entitled to review all materials submitted to the Conduct Board, provided the student agrees to keep the information confidential. Review of materials must be done by appointment with the Dean of Students or designee. Within fifteen (15) days of delivery of the decision letter, a detailed written appeal must be submitted to the Dean of Students or designee for review. The appeal shall specify the grounds for the appeal. A student who fails to file a notice of appeal and a written submission within the times specified waives the right to appeal. The Dean of Students or designee, upon receipt of the detailed written appeal, shall then refer the appeal to the Student Conduct Appeal Board or the University Conduct Appeal Board, depending on which hearing body heard the matter originally.

Composition - The Student Conduct Appeal Board shall consist of the Dean of Students or designee, functioning as the Chair with the power to vote. The University Conduct Appeal Board shall consist of three (3) members; the Chair with the power to vote, and two (2) additional panel members. The two additional panel members cannot have served on the panel that issued the decision being appealed.

General Provisions - The following general provisions are common elements of appeals:

- Parties are responsible for strict adherence to all deadlines and procedures for the filing and processing of appeals.
- Failing to present information or witnesses that were known to the student at the time of the original hearing shall not be considered new evidence.
- The burden is on the appealing party.
- The appealing student does not ordinarily appear at the review; however, the University reserves the right to request that the student meet with the Appeal Board before the Appeal Board makes a decision.

Outcomes of Appeals - Should an Appeal Board determine that neither Standard for Appeal has been met, the Chair shall inform the student in writing of the decision. Once it has been determined that the appeal fails to meet these Standards, the matter is concluded. Should an Appeal Board determine that one or both of the Standards for Appeal have been satisfied, that Board shall:

- dismiss the finding;
- modify the finding; or
- refer the matter to the hearing body for further review.

University Sanctions (student) - The sanctions listed below are imposed by the Office of Student Conduct to hold students accountable for conduct violations. Ordinarily, previous offenses will be considered by student conduct administrators in determining sanctions. More than one (1) of the sanctions listed below may be imposed for any single violation. The respondent or the complainant may provide an impact statement to the Dean of Students or designee when there is a finding of responsibility regarding an allegation of violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking or sexual assault. This statement may be provided while the Dean of Students or designee is deliberating on appropriate sanctions.

Sanctions (students) - The following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct.

Formal Warning: A formal University warning for the decision to violate the Student Code of Conduct and/or Residence Hall Policies and Procedures.
Fines: Previously established fines for various conduct violations will be billed directly to a student’s account.
Restitution: Financial compensation for losses or damages.
Discretionary Sanctions: Community service work, reflection papers, behavioral contracts, and other discretionary and educational responses.
Service or Educational Assignment: The requirement that a student performs some service or engages in some activity having some relationship to the conduct violation that would benefit both the student and the community.
Written Assignment: The requirement that a student reflects upon his or behavior through a written assignment, that may include a reflection regarding how behavior relates to St. John’s University’s Core Values and Vincentian mission or research that helps the student understand why a policy or restriction has been adopted by the University.
Housing Probation: Housing Probation is for a designated period of time. Any violation of the Student Code of Conduct while on housing probation – no matter how minor – may result in additional sanctions. These sanctions may include (but are not limited to) temporary or permanent separation of the student from University-managed living properties, suspension, or expulsion.
Disciplinary Probation: Disciplinary Probation is for a designated period of time. Any violation of the Student Code of Conduct while on disciplinary probation—no matter how minor—may result in additional sanctions. These sanctions may include, but are not limited to, suspension or expulsion.
Loss of Privileges: Denial of specific privileges for a designated period of time.
University Premises Restrictions: Separation (temporary or permanent) of the student from University-managed living properties or other University premises. Students who are temporarily restricted shall be allowed to return after a designated period of time. Conditions for return may be specified.
Suspension from the University: Separation of the student from the University for a definite period of time (no less than one semester), after which the student may be eligible to return. Conditions for return may be specified. Suspension from the University means that the student is not allowed to attend class, participate in any University programs or events or be on University property, unless permission to do so is specifically authorized by the Dean of Students or designee. A record of suspension associated with a crime of violence as defined in the Jeanne Clery Act shall be placed on the student’s official transcript. Tuition and fees are forfeited.
Dismissal from the University: Permanent separation of the student from the University. Dismissal from the University means that the student is not allowed to attend class, participate in any University programs or events, or be on University property. The individual shall not thereafter visit on the University grounds. Dismissed students forfeit any tuition and fees they may have paid and are not permitted to apply to St. John’s University for student admission or employment at any time in the future.
Expulsion from the University: Permanent separation of the student from the University. Expulsion from the University means that the student is not allowed to attend class, participate in any University programs or events, or be on University property. The individual shall not thereafter visit on the University grounds. A record of expulsion associated with a crime of violence as defined in the Jeanne Clery Act shall be placed on the student’s official transcript. Expelled students forfeit any tuition and fees they may have paid and are not permitted to apply to St. John’s University for student admission or employment at any time in the future.

For those crimes of violence that the University is required by the Clery Act to include in its Annual Security Report, the transcripts of students found responsible after a hearing and appeal, if any, shall include the following notation:
- Suspended after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation;
- Expelled after a finding of responsibility for a code of conduct violation; or
- Withdrew with conduct charges pending.

Transcript notations for suspensions may be removed at the discretion of the University; but no earlier than one (1) year after the conclusion of the suspension. Transcript notations for expulsion shall not be removed.
Adjudication of Complaints Against Faculty, Administrators and Staff

Process for Investigation and Resolution - Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will assign a specially trained investigator (or team of investigators) to investigate the complaint unless the complainant has requested that the University refrain from such an investigation and the University has determined that it may do so. The nature and extent of the investigation will vary based on the specific circumstances of the incident. While the complainant is not required to provide a written statement regarding the complaint, such a written statement or other written materials related to the complaint will be reviewed, if made available to the investigator(s). Whenever possible, and as appropriate, the investigator(s) will interview the complainant, respondent and any witnesses. The investigator(s) will gather any pertinent evidence. The investigator(s) will not interview any witnesses for the sole purpose of obtaining character information. At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator(s) will prepare a written report detailing the relevant content from the interviews and any documentary evidence gathered. The procedures for Investigation will comply with the following:

- Timely notice of meetings will be provided to the parties, and both parties are entitled to the same opportunities to have an advisor of his/her choice present during any meeting, investigation or disciplinary proceeding.
- Throughout the investigation, the complainant and the respondent will have an equal opportunity to present relevant witnesses and other evidence.
- The investigator(s) will direct the complainant, respondent, witnesses and other interested individuals to preserve any relevant evidence.
- Participants in an investigation shall be advised to refrain from discussing the matter during the pendency of the investigation in order to protect the privacy of the individuals involved and to maintain the integrity of the investigation.
- Information related to or concerning the romantic or sexual history of either the complainant or the respondent will not be considered except from either the complainant or respondent regarding their shared sexual history. If either offers such information, the other will have the right to respond.
- At any stage of the investigation, the investigator(s) may consult with the Office of General Counsel or other University officials, as appropriate.
- Any University officials involved will not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against any party.
- Investigations will be conducted by administrators who receive annual training on the issues related to sexual misconduct.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator(s) makes a determination of the facts and a recommendation for resolution, including possible disciplinary sanctions, to the Associate Vice President of Human Resources, or designee, as to whether, based upon careful review of all the information collected during the investigation, the respondent more likely than not engaged in sexual misconduct. The Associate Vice President, along with the Title IX Coordinator and/or her designee, shall determine whether or not the respondent is responsible for sexual misconduct in violation of the University’s policy. Any employee who, upon investigation, has been found to have violated the policy, will be subject to disciplinary action including, but not limited to: letter of reprimand or warning; probation; suspension (with or without pay); termination; or other discipline or resolution deemed appropriate based on the circumstances and severity of the findings of fact. The University will follow applicable University procedures, including those provided in the Collective Bargaining Agreement and University Statutes, in taking any disciplinary action.

Possible Sanctions (employees) - Possible sanctions for employees can include, but are not limited to, a letter of reprimand, a warning letter, demotion, suspension or termination from the University, or other appropriate sanctions.

Missing Student Policy

Purpose - The term “missing student,” for the purpose of this policy, shall refer to any St. John’s University student who resides in on-campus student housing, who has not been seen in 24 hours, and whose whereabouts is unknown. The following procedure will be initiated once it is determined that a student is missing, with no reasonable explanation for his or her absence. Ordinarily, this procedure will be initiated after a 24-hour period from the time the student was last seen, but this procedure may be implemented in less than 24 hours if circumstances warrant a faster implementation.

Each student living in on-campus student housing may identify an individual or individuals the University can contact in accordance with the University’s official notification procedures described below if such student is determined missing. The missing contact information will be kept confidential. Only authorized campus officials may access this contact information and may disclose the contact information only to law enforcement officials and only for the purpose of a missing student investigation. A confidential contact person can be registered by entering such contact information where requested during such student’s provision of general emergency contact information. In order to list or update a missing person contact; resident students must log into UIS. On your Personal Information Menu click on “Personal Information” then choose “View/Update emergency contacts” then choose “New Contact”. In the field “relationship” choose from the drop-down menu Missing Person Contact”. Complete the remaining fields and submit the information.

In the event a student under the age of 18—who is not emancipated—is determined to be missing, the student’s custodial parent or legal guardian will be notified no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing, in addition to notifying any additional contact person designated by the student. In cases where the missing student is over the age of 18 and has not designated an emergency contact, St. John’s will inform the appropriate law enforcement agency that the student is missing.

The Department of Public Safety will notify the local law enforcement agency within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing, unless the local law enforcement agency is the entity that made the determination the student is missing.

Notification Procedures –

1. Reports of a student missing for at least 24 hours who resides in an on-campus student housing should be made to any or all of the below listed persons:
   a. Dean of Students
   b. Director of Residence Life
   c. Director of Student Conduct
   d. Associate Director of Student Life
   e. Residence Directors
   f. Residence Assistants
   g. Residence Ministry
   h. Executive Director of Public Safety
   i. Public Safety Officers
2. Upon being notified of a missing student, each of the above individuals will ensure an immediate notification is made to the Department of Public Safety. Public safety, together with residence life, will initiate a prompt investigation into the whereabouts of the missing student to include, but not limited to, making inquiries of roommates/suitesmates, residents living on the same floor, and any other known associates of the missing student.

3. The director of residence life for the Queens and Staten Island campuses, (or, for international locations, the resident director of such location), or his or her designee, in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety, will work with the dean of students, or his or her designee, to review the student’s academic schedule and ascertain whether the student is attending classes. The executive director of public safety, or his or her designee, will request the StormCard Office to review the use of the student’s StormCard to assist in ascertaining the location of the missing student.

4. The director of residence life for the Queens and Staten Island campuses, (or, for international locations, the resident director of such location), or his or her designee, in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety, will promptly contact the individual’s registered confidential contact or if less than 18 years of age and not emancipated—the student’s custodial parent or legal guardian, in addition to notifying any additional contact person designated by the student. All of the designated contact persons will be apprised of the situation and asked whether they have any knowledge of the student’s whereabouts.

5. The director of residence life for the Queens and Staten Island campuses (or, for international locations, the resident director of such location), or his or her designee, will promptly inform the vice president of student affairs that all efforts, including notification of all designated persons have met with negative results. The executive director of public safety, or his or her designee, within 24 hours after it has been determined that the student is missing, will contact the New York City Police Department, for those students residing in on-campus housing in Queens and Staten Island, in Rome, Italy the Carabinieri, and in Paris, France the Police Nationale, who will initiate an investigation and search based on their departmental policy and procedures. The Department of Public Safety and other offices of the University will cooperate fully with the investigation. The Department of Public Safety will assist the authorities in identifying parties needed for questioning. The executive director of public safety and/or the vice president of student affairs will contact the Vice President for Administration, Secretary and General Counsel.

If circumstances warrant a faster implementation of the notification procedures, the directors of residence life for the Queens and Staten Island campuses or for international locations, the resident director of such location, or his or her designee’s, will contact the Department of Public Safety and the dean of students immediately. The Office of Public Safety will notify the respective law enforcement agency immediately, to begin an investigation in accordance with their policy and procedures.

*Important: Local law enforcement departments have a standard operating procedure in place to respond to missing persons. The New York City Police Department has agreed they will address such a situation promptly and in accordance with their respective procedures.

Fire Safety

The University Fire Safety staff consists of full-time and part-time Fire Prevention Officers. These officers work closely with all departments within the University, as well as with the New York City Fire Department and the New York City Department of Buildings. The Office of Fire Safety’s goal is to educate the University community about fire and life safety, to prevent fire emergencies and to reduce alarms. The Office of Fire Safety works in conjunction with the Department of Environmental Health and Safety to protect the University. This report addresses the following Campuses which have “on-campus student housing facilities”, Queens Campus, Staten Island Campus, Rome Campus, Paris Campus, Ireland Campus
Annual Fire Safety Report

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, more commonly known as the Clery Act, requires an institution that maintains any on-campus student housing facilities to publish an annual fire safety report by Oct. 1. The purpose of this report is to disclose fire safety policies and procedures related to on-campus student housing and to disclose statistics for fires that occurred in those facilities. Information that must be reported includes (1) Description of each on-campus student housing facility fire safety system; (2) Number of fire drills held during the previous calendar year; and (3) Policies or rules on portable electrical appliances, smoking and open flames in a student housing facility. The institution is also required to disclose procedures for student housing evacuation in the case of a fire, policies regarding fire safety education and training programs provided to the students and employees, plans for future improvements in fire safety, if determined necessary by the institution and fire statistics for on-campus housing facilities.

Fire statistics for the University can also be found at the U.S. Department of Education Website at http://ope.ed.gov/security

Fire Log

The University maintains a fire log. The fire log for the most recent 60 days is open to the public for inspection during normal business hours. Portions of the fire log that are older than 60 days will be made available for inspection within two business days. To arrange a fire log inspection, please contact the executive director of public safety.

Fire Statistics

All reports of fires and fire alarms are captured and memorialized in a database by the Department of Public Safety. The data collected includes, but is not limited to, the building name; alarm location; time and date; the number and cause of each fire; any and all injuries; any fatalities; and dollar values for property damaged by the fire. Please see Appendix F, for statistics on all reported on-campus housing facilities fires. Please see Appendix G, for a description of each on-campus student housing facility fire safety system which includes the number of fire drills held during the previous calendar year.

Fire Safety Policies

St. John’s University strives to maintain a safe environment that is free from potential fire hazards. The fire safety policy enjoins the entire University community to cooperate with our fire protection programs which are designed to save lives and protect property. The fire safety officers increase campus fire safety awareness of both students and employees by conducting periodic training on essential fire safety elements. Both fire safety officers, public safety officers and resident life staff conduct frequent fire safety inspections in several University buildings. They are trained to recognize hazardous conditions and take appropriate action before such conditions result in a fire emergency.

Portable Electrical Appliances

All portable electrical appliances must be U.L. rated and approved for use. Surge protectors should be used with items that require a large amount of electricity (i.e., televisions, refrigerators, and computers, etc.). Extension cords may not be taped, tacked or stapled to any surface.

The following appliances are permissible in the residence halls, with the stipulation that they have an automatic shut-off feature and are U.L. rated and approved for use:

- Coffee pots and single cup coffee systems
- Pop Up toasters
- Closed-element popcorn poppers
- Hot pot and rice cookers
- Foreman Grills and Panini Presses
- Irons
Smoking
To comply with the Smoke-Free Air Act, as enacted by the City of New York, and to provide employees and students with a healthy environment, it is the policy of St. John’s University to prohibit smoking of any type in all university facilities. In our global study locations, it is the policy of St. John’s University to prohibit smoking of any type in all university facilities.

Open Flames (i.e. candles)
To decrease the potential for fire at St. John’s, the University prohibits the use of open flames, such as candles and incense, in all buildings at all times. Maintenance activities, such as torching and welding, can occur only with the express authorization from the fire safety office.

Procedures for Evacuation
If the fire alarm sounds, the occupants of the building must evacuate the residence hall immediately, unless they cannot because of hazardous surroundings. Building evacuation may also be initiated via the Public Address system, or by public safety and fire safety officers. Please note that fire drills are conducted four times a year.

If a fire alarm is activated or Public Safety initiates an emergency evacuation of your building:
1. Stay calm and do not panic.
2. If your door is hot to the touch, do not open it. Roll up a wet towel and place it at the base of the door to prevent smoke penetration. Go to the window, open it a crack and stay there until help arrives. DO NOT JUMP.
3. If your door is cool to touch, open it slowly. If the hallway is clear, close and lock your door behind you and proceed to the nearest exit.
4. Proceed to the closest emergency exit. Do not take the elevator. Always use the stairs to evacuate the building.
5. If you encounter smoke, take short breaths through your nose and stay close to the floor.
6. Once outside the building, proceed to a designated waiting area away from the building and wait for instructions from an authorized University official. Without risking one’s safety, try and remember to carry your ID with you as you exit the building.

Reporting Fires
The University is required to disclose each year statistical data on all fires that occurred in on-campus student housing. When a fire alarm is pulled and/or the fire department responds to a fire, these incidents are captured. If you encounter a fire that presents an emergency situation, ensure your own safety and then please call 911 (or 112 at a global site).

There may also be instances when a fire is extinguished quickly, and an alarm is not pulled or a response by the fire department was not necessary. It is important that these incidents be recorded as well. Therefore, if you are aware of such a fire, see evidence of one or hear about one, you should contact one of the departments listed below. When providing notification of a fire, give as much information as possible about the location, date, time and cause of the fire.

Students or employees should report that a fire has occurred to:

- 911 (Municipal Emergency Response System)
- St. John’s University Department of Public Safety
- St. John's University fire safety director
- St. John’s University director of residence life
At our global studies sites students and employees should report that a fire has occurred to:

- 112 (Municipal Emergency Response System)
- St. John’s University resident life staff
- On duty security personnel

Emergency Evacuation Volunteers (EEVs)

To enhance the University’s evacuation procedures, individual members of the University community have volunteered to be emergency evacuation volunteers (EEVs). Every building on the Queens, Staten Island and Manhattan campuses has pre-designated EEVs. The only exception is resident halls which are evacuated with the assistants of resident life staff. The EEV’s are under the direction of public safety. They assist evacuation by encouraging others in their area to evacuate, as necessary. Such employees are capable of directing the overall evacuation of the occupants and can assist public safety by accounting for building occupants. The EEVs will direct their respective floor evacuations and are expected to relay information to public safety concerning injured or special-needs personnel that require immediate attention.

Training Programs in Fire Safety for Students, Faculty and Staff

Training and instruction in the University's fire safety program is provided to all first-time incoming resident students during the student orientation program. Upon arrival, each resident student receives a printed copy of the St. John’s University fire safety brochure and a printed copy of their respective building fire safety plans. These plans provide information on the specific fire safety features for each individual building and the appropriate actions to take during a fire alarm or fire emergency.

Residence life staff — particularly the resident directors and resident assistants — receive additional targeted fire safety training at the beginning of each academic year.

All faculty and staff are required to attend the University’s mandatory emergency response training. Fire Safety and building evacuation procedures are covered during this training, which is delivered at various times throughout the year.

Fire safety instructions and building fire safety plans are posted on the University’s fire safety Web site. Throughout the year, the Office of Fire Safety posts helpful fire safety tips via electronic format to the University community at large.

Fire Safety Future Improvement Plan

All on-campus housing facilities meet or exceed fire safety requirements. As the University renovates buildings, the fire suppression and detection systems are evaluated and improved to bring our buildings above, or beyond, current requirements. At this present time the University has no future plans.

Mandatory Fire Drills

Residence hall fire drills are conducted at least four times a year and at least once during each semester (spring, summer, and fall). Fire drills are conducted in our academic classroom and research facilities at least three times a year. These supervised fire drills are performed jointly by St. John’s University’s Departments of Fire Safety and Public Safety.

- Nonconsensual Sexual Penetration: Any act of oral, vaginal or anal penetration by a person's penis, finger, body part, or an object without consent. Any such act involving force or duress, or that occurs with an incapacitated individual, will be deemed especially egregious. Nonconsensual sexual penetration is a form of sexual assault.

- Domestic Violence: Domestic violence refers to a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the reporting party; by a person with whom the reporting party shares a child in common; by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the reporting party as a spouse or intimate partner; by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the reporting party under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

- Dating Violence: Dating violence refers to any violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the reporting party. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of Domestic Violence.

- Stalking: Stalking refers to engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others or to suffer substantial emotional distress.

Affirmative Consent: Affirmative consent is defined as a knowing, voluntary and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. All references to “consent” in this policy shall mean affirmative consent as defined in this policy.

The following principles, along with the above definition, will be used to evaluate whether affirmative consent was given:

- Consent to one form of sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other forms of sexual activity or to sexual activity in the future.
- A current or previous dating relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent.
- Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
- Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at any time during sexual activity by expressing in words or actions that they no longer want the sexual activity to continue.
- Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.
- Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force or threat of harm.
In accordance with New York state law, a person who is less than 17 years of age is incapable of consenting to sexual activity.

When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given, sexual activity must stop.

The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant’s sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.”

2. Each institution’s code of conduct shall reflect the following principles as guidance for the institution’s community:
   a. Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act.
   b. Consent is required regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
   c. Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at anytime.
   d. Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.
   e. Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.
   f. When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given, sexual activity must stop.

St. John’s University does not tolerate any incidents of sexual assault, dating violence, intimate partner violence or stalking, and wants to support you. We are proud that you have reached out to take care of yourself. It takes a lot of courage to share your experiences, and you have taken the necessary first step. This document will share with you available resources to further support your healing.

In this document you will find helpful information regarding:

02 PREFACE

04 EMERGENCY MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

09 COUNSELING AND SUPPORT

18 REPORTING OPTIONS AT-A-GLANCE

21 STUDENTS’ BILL OF RIGHTS

23 INTERIM REMEDIES

25 REPORTING OPTIONS

31 LEGAL ORDERS OF PROTECTION AND TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDERS
St. John’s University is committed to supporting survivors of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking by providing the necessary safety and support services so that students can remain at St. John’s University, meet academic standards, obtain necessary health/mental health treatment, and maintain social relationships. This document is written for survivors of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, stalking, and relationship violence, to provide support as well as important information about prohibited conduct, available resources on and off campus, and ways to file a complaint in order to assist survivors in the recovery process and in their efforts to heal from this unacceptable form of violence. If you have survived sexual misconduct or know someone who has, please be assured that there are people who care about what you have endured.

You are not alone in what happened to you, or in how you feel, no matter what form your experience took. It is important for you to know that the feelings, reactions, and questions you may be experiencing are similar to those of other people who have been victimized through no fault of their own. Sexual misconduct is never the fault of the victim. You are not to blame for what another person has done to you. You, as others have, can learn to regain a sense of power over your life. You may feel very isolated and alone, but there are resources and support available and people ready and able to help you.
While the needs and issues of different populations on campus may be unique, the resources, support and procedures apply to all students. Whether you are an undergraduate student, a graduate student, a woman or man, identify as LGBTQ or cisgender or straight, you receive the same dedicated support and services at St. John’s University. Emotional support, counseling, advisement regarding your options, medical treatment, and academic assistance are all available. Please review this document as the first step in understanding how St. John’s University can support you. If you have questions about this document please ask them of any of the support resources listed.

You have the right to make a report to Public Safety, the local law enforcement and state police or choose not to report; to report the incident to St. John’s University; to be protected by the University from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance and resources from the University.
The first step in taking care of yourself is making sure you are physically well. Even if you do not have any visible physical injuries following an incident of any form of sexual assault, dating violence, intimate partner violence and/or stalking, there may be physical injuries that you cannot see. Medical and health centers can provide additional services such as testing for sexually transmitted diseases, evidence collection, and/or counseling. New York State has a network of hospitals with Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) Programs. SAFE Programs have specially trained health professionals who provide medical care to patients who report sexual assault, including evaluation, treatment, referral and follow-up. Trained advocates may also be available to provide you with additional support and to guide you through the experience at the hospital.

Since evidence dissipates quickly, you may wish to preserve evidence and are encouraged to seek medical attention within 48 hours (and no more than 96 hours) of the incident. Preservation of evidence is important for possible use in legal actions or requests for civil no-contact orders and/or orders of protection. If you choose to preserve evidence, it is important that you do not bathe, douche, brush your teeth or comb your hair.
Also, the clothes you were wearing may be held as evidence, so it is recommended that you bring a change of clothes with you to the hospital. Additionally, photographs may be taken of you, including anywhere there are bruises, scrapes or cuts. If you are unsure about participating in criminal prosecution, having the evidence preserved will help keep your options open. Taking the step to gather evidence immediately will not commit you to a specific course of action; you do not have to make a police report.

If you would like to receive medical care, you may call 911, call Public Safety at 1-718-990-5252, or visit one of the hospitals with SAFE programs listed on the next page. The University offers free transportation to and from a hospital for a SAFE examination.

COUNSELING AND SUPPORT

Experiencing sexual assault, dating violence, intimate partner violence and/or stalking may bring up many different types of feelings that can be painful, confusing, and/or overwhelming. Obtaining support from family and friends can be very beneficial to your healing. In addition, enlisting support from a professional who is specially trained in working with survivors of sexual assault can also be helpful for recovery.

Often survivors may experience acute stress that may include a range of difficulties such as nightmares, flashbacks, numbness, and withdrawal from family and friends. In addition, survivors may sometimes blame themselves, feel upset about the reactions of their friends and/or family, feel ashamed and/or angry about what happened. These responses can make it difficult for some survivors to manage these feelings alone. Many survivors find comfort in sharing their story in a supportive and confidential environment. It is also possible to learn new coping skills and facilitate returning to activities that you find meaningful and important. You have a number of options if you would like to receive support. Both on and off campus resources are available to all survivors.
CENTER FOR COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION (CCC)

The Center for Counseling and Consultation (CCC) has mental health professionals available to provide support and assistance. Services at the CCC are free and confidential.

REPORTING OPTIONS

Faculty, Staff, and Administrators
If you share an incident of sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking with a St. John’s employee (excluding members of the Center for Counseling and Consultation, Health Services and the Campus Support Advisors working in their respective capacities), they are required by University policy to report this information to Public Safety and/or the Title IX Coordinator. Reports made to a St. John’s administrator or faculty will trigger a University response which may involve an investigation by Public Safety and/or the Title IX Coordinator.

Title IX Coordinator
Reports of sexual violence can also be made to St. John’s Title IX Coordinator. Keaton Wong, Director of Employee Relations, Compliance and Title IX, serves as the Title IX Coordinator for overall campus compliance for the University. The Title IX Coordinator’s office is located on the Queens campus in the Office of Human Resources in the University Center. The Title IX Coordinator can be contacted by phone, 718-990-2600.

Jackie Lochrie, Associate Dean for Student Services, serves as the Title IX Deputy Coordinator for the Division of Student Affairs. Ms. Lochrie’s office is located on the Queens campus in Bent Hall, and she can be contacted at 1-718-990-6568.

Kathleen F. Meehan, Associate Vice President for Athletics, serves as the Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Athletics. Ms. Meehan’s office is located on the Queens campus in Carnesecca Arena, and she can be contacted at 1-718-990-6173.
When Should I Contact a Title IX Coordinator?
If you have concerns about sex discrimination including sexual harassment, sexual violence, or misconduct please seek the assistance of a Title IX Coordinator. For example, we encourage you to contact a Title IX Coordinator if you:

- Think you may have encountered sex discrimination or sexual misconduct and wish to understand your options
- Learn of a situation that you feel may warrant a University investigation
- Need help on how to handle a situation by which you are indirectly affected
- Seek guidance on possible methods of de-escalating or alleviating a difficult situation
- Have questions on St. John’s policies and procedures

St. John’s Department of Public Safety
St. John’s Department of Public Safety is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week at 1-718-990-5252. Public Safety Officers are available to assist you with contacting or reporting an incident to local law enforcement and/or to the local District Attorney’s Office. You also have a right to decline to report incidents to law enforcement. Reports made to Public Safety will trigger a University response which may involve an investigation by Public Safety and/or the Title IX Coordinator. There may be times when the Department of Public Safety or another administrator may contact local law enforcement regarding the nature of an alleged incident, however, it is always your decision whether or not to cooperate with any law enforcement investigation.
St. John’s University – Disciplinary Actions

When an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported to a non-confidential university official, the report will be forwarded to the Department of Public Safety. The Title IX Coordinator will lead the university response and coordinate an investigation into this allegation. This investigation may include Public Safety or Title IX investigators. As a result of the investigation, this allegation may be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct. In addition, the Title IX Coordinator or designee will take action to remediate and address the allegation. The investigation will be conducted by officials who, at a minimum, receive annual training on the issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking and who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the complainant or the accused, and is prompt, fair and impartial to all students involved. Investigations shall be completed within 60 days, although an investigation may be extended for good cause. The complainant and the accused are both permitted to participate in the investigation. They are also able to have an advisor of their choice present during any institutional disciplinary proceeding. Both the victim and the accused will be notified in writing, simultaneously, of the results of a disciplinary proceeding, procedure to appeal the results, any change to the result and when the results become final. The University uses a preponderance of the evidence standard to reach conclusions. i.e., whether the evidence demonstrates that it is more likely than not that the conduct occurred.

Reporting Incidents to Law Enforcement

To report incidents of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and/or stalking or conduct that may constitute a crime while attending St. John’s Queens, Staten Island or Manhattan campuses please contact the St. John’s University’s Department of Public Safety, local law enforcement, or the law enforcement agency in the applicable jurisdiction. Please note that St. John’s and standards necessary to deem someone in violation of sexual misconduct, are different than those used by the criminal justice system. If you have specific questions about potential violation of criminal law we will assist you with connecting with the NYPD and/or local district attorney’s office.

In addition, you might be interested in obtaining an “Order of Protection” or “Temporary Restraining Order.” An Order of Protection is a document issued by a public court to limit the behavior of someone who harms or threatens to harm another person. It is used to address various types of safety issues, including, but not limited to, situations involving domestic violence. For example, it can require a person not to assault, threaten, harass or stalk you; it can forbid a person from having any contact with you and/or your family or it can require a person to stay away from your home or the University (where you study, work and live).

Upon request, Public Safety Officers within St. John’s Department of Public Safety are available to provide you with assistance in seeking an Order of Protection or a Temporary Restraining Order, but a Public Safety Office cannot request an Order of Protection or Temporary Restraining Order on your behalf.

In New York, Family Courts, Criminal Courts and Supreme Courts can all issue Orders of Protection.
Legal Orders of Protection

Family Court Order of Protection
This is issued as part of a civil proceeding. Its purpose is to stop violence within a family, or within an intimate relationship, and provide protection for those individuals affected.

To obtain an order of protection in the Family Court, your relationship to the other person must fall into one of the following categories:

- Current or former spouse
- Someone with whom you have a child in common
- A family member to whom you are related by blood or marriage
- Someone with whom you have or have had an “intimate relationship.” An intimate relationship does not have to be a sexual relationship. A relationship may be considered intimate depending on factors such as how often you see each other, or how long you have known each other. (After a petition is filed, the court will decide if it is an intimate relationship).

To start a proceeding in Family Court, you need to file a form called a Family Offense Petition. You can contact the Family Court in your county for help completing and filing the petition.

Criminal Court Order of Protection
A criminal court order of protection may only be issued against a person who has been charged with a crime. There does not need to be a relationship between the complaining witness and the defendant.
Supreme Court Order of Protection
This can only be issued as part of an ongoing divorce proceeding. If you have an ongoing divorce case and would like to request an order of protection, you may do so by making a written request by Motion or Order to Show Cause; or you may make an oral request at a court appearance.

In addition, there are many community resources available to assist in matters relating to sexual assault, such as the New York City Alliance Against Sexual Assault on the web at www.svfreenc.org.

Through contact with the University Resources listed above, members of the University community can get help to identify appropriate resources.

Dear Faculty Member,

St. John’s University has been recognized by the Department of Justice and the Office of Violence Against Women for our interdisciplinary team approach to preventing and responding to violence. The responsibility to protect and support each St. John’s student is an important one and shared by all members of the Institution. We are grateful for the relationships you build with students in your role as a faculty member. Will you join us in taking a strong visible stand against sexual violence?

The rates of sexual violence are extremely high nationally; 1 in 5 women will be assaulted while attending a college or university. It can seem like a daunting task to make change in our society regarding such a prolific and broad problem. However, we have already seen a huge change in the discourse around this topic. As an institution, St. John’s has joined the conversation and is looking forward to the change that is on the horizon.

We understand your lives are tremendously busy and for that reason we appreciate your willingness to partner with us to help reduce violence, improve safety and thereby improve the quality of education available to all students. For your convenience, we have compiled this toolkit in the hopes of offering simple suggestions that you can refer to or implement through the semester that will allow for you to actively share in creating a safe campus without ever having to leave your classroom or office.

This document outlines how to connect a student in crisis to resources on campus, what to do when a report/disclosure is made, as well as proactive ways you can make a statement against sexual violence. The toolkit also contains brief straightforward examples of how to help us make this campus a safe place for all of our students. We hope you find this toolkit helpful.

Thank you for all you do in creating a safe space for our students.

RESPONDING TO INCIDENTS

UNIVERSITY RESPONSIBILITY

According to the St. John’s University HR Policy Manual, in accordance with the Title IX legal mandate, every member of the faculty, administration, and staff of St. John’s University, acting in his or her capacity as an employee of the University, is obligated to immediately report any incident of sexual assault, rape, or other forcible sexual offense against any member of the University community upon learning of the incident. Additionally, every member of the faculty, administration, and staff is similarly obligated to report any incident of intimate partner violence or stalking against any student member of the University upon learning of the incident. Even when the individual requests confidentiality of the incident, the employee has a responsibility to report it.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

St. John’s University has joined the White House Task Force to protect students from sexual assault by implementing the “It’s On Us” campaign. It’s on us, ALL OF US, to change the dynamic of sexual violence, and to do what we can to make it stop. Students see this campaign at different events and workshops across campus throughout the year. Hearing the same message, or a similar one, from their faculty will reinforce the cultural norm that sexual violence is not tolerated at St. John’s University. With just a few seconds, you can help establish concern for student safety and bystander intervention as the campus norm. With repeated exposures across settings, students and colleagues will begin to have the expectation that everyone plays a part in community safety.

Below are some ways you can take part in SJU’s “It’s On Us” campaign and remind our students to intervene in potentially harmful situations and to be a part of making our campus safe for all.

You can download the logo for your own use by visiting www.stjohns.edu/itsonus.
SYLLABUS PARAGRAPH

Just by adding a paragraph to your course syllabus you can help us reinforce the It’s On Us message that students are hearing from many different venues.

Here is an example, however, feel free to tailor this to suit your needs:

St. John’s University takes pride in being a welcoming and safe community. Please join me in preventing sexual violence by intervening when you notice a harmful situation. It’s on us to be part of the solution, do something to get in the way of sexual assault. If you, or someone you know, have been a victim of sexual violence, St. John’s University offers many resources. Visit www.stjohns.edu/sexualassault to learn more about what options are available.

IN CLASS AWARENESS

- Insert a slide in all your PowerPoint presentations that includes information about St. John’s It’s On Us Bystander campaign. Display it before and after class.

- Include a brief statement on your course syllabus reflecting your commitment to a safe campus and listing campus resources (including yourself) if someone needs a safe person to seek help.

- Have a St. John’s It’s On Us Bystander campaign item (i.e. magnet, button, cling, etc…) hanging in your office. For items available, contact the Office of Wellness Education and Prevention at 718-990-6550.

Mohandas Gandhi

“The world is a dangerous place. Not because of the people who are evil; but because of the people who don’t do anything about it.”
Albert Einstein

“How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.”
Anne Frank

“I am here and so are you. And we matter. We can change things.”
Ella Baker

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about the things that matter.”
Martin Luther King, Jr.

“Washing one’s hand of the conflict between the powerful and the powerless means to side with the powerful, not to be neutral.”
Paulo Freire

“To go against the dominant thinking of your friends, of most of the people you see every day, is perhaps the most difficult act of heroism you can perform.”
Theodore H. White

Follow up any of these quotes with the following,
“It’s on us at St. John’s University to be a part of the solution. Join me in standing up against sexual violence.”

INTRODUCTION

St. John's University recognizes the importance of an integrated plan to ensure that our mission as a Catholic, Vincentian, Metropolitan, and Global University will continue in the event of an emergency.

When an emergency occurs, response actions are guided by St. John’s overriding emergency goals, to primarily protect the life-safety of University students, faculty and staff, and guests, and secondarily, protect the surrounding environment and University assets.

PURPOSE

The Emergency Plan outlines the St. John's University’s procedures for managing major emergencies that may threaten the health and safety of our campus communities or disrupt our programs and activities. The Plan identifies departments and individuals that are directly responsible for emergency response and critical support services, and it provides a management structure for coordinating and deploying essential resources.

EMERGENCY PLAN SUMMARY
The St. John’s University Emergency Plan establishes the structure, processes and protocols for the University’s response to major emergencies that could threaten the health and safety of the campus community or disrupt University programs and operations. At St. John’s, emergency preparedness responsibilities are shared throughout the University. Based on a risk assessment conducted by Public Safety, in conjunction with the other major functional areas of the University, eight (8) specific types of emergencies have been identified as the most likely to occur. They are as follows: fire and explosions, extended power failures, hazardous materials release, adverse weather conditions, workplace violence/active shooter, bomb threat, hostage situation and pandemic threat.

The organization of the University Emergency Plan is based on the Incident Command System. The Incident Commander is the Executive Director of Public Safety or designee.

An emergency may be classified as a Level 1, Level 2, or Level 3 incident:

Level 1
A minor incident that is quickly resolved with internal resources or limited need for assistance. The Emergency Operations Center is not activated.

Level 2
A major emergency that impacts sizable portions of the campus, and that may potentially affect life safety or mission-critical functions. At the discretion of the Incident Commander, a subset of the entire Emergency Management Operations Team can be assembled in order to determine the magnitude of the emergency and to coordinate its resolution.

Level 3
A disaster that involves the entire campus and surrounding community. The Emergency Operations Center is activated as well as the Executive Emergency Management Command Center.

Depending on the classification and nature of the emergency, the Incident Commander shall mobilize various Emergency Teams. Team members are notified by Public Safety to report to their designated Emergency Operations Center.
The Incident Commander interfaces between the Executive Emergency Management Team comprised of the President, the Provost, and other Senior Level University officials and the Campus Emergency Operations Teams (CEOT). The Incident Commander designates a leader for the Campus Emergency Operations Teams as appropriate to the nature of the emergency event.

The Executive Emergency Management Team mobilizes at the Executive Emergency Management Command Center (EEMCC), located in the Finley Board Room, Newman Hall 3rd Floor. At the EEMCC, the Team ascertains the scope of a disaster and advises the University President. The Team Leader, the Executive Director of Public Safety, from an operations perspective, is the Incident Commander.

The Incident Commander gathers emergency intelligence from the Emergency Operations Teams located at the Emergency Operations Centers (EOC) on each campus. Individuals that comprise both the Executive Emergency Management Team and the Emergency Operations Management Team are specifically identified in this plan. The Executive Emergency Management Team primarily addresses policy decisions. The Operational Team is involved in operational and response issues and in securing and coordinating appropriate information to present to the Executive Emergency Management Team. Because of the centralized resources located at the Queens campus, it is expected that the Queens campus Emergency Operation Center (Public Safety Conference Room, ROTC Center) will be activated whenever another campus EOC is activated. This will afford the Branch Campus a “reach-back” capability to accelerate resource activation, mobilization and deployment requirements.
The Incident Commander will receive and disseminate information to the Executive Emergency Management Team. All decisions regarding external communication will be coordinated through Marketing and Communications and the Executive Director of Media Relations who will activate the appropriate University internal communications systems. These representatives are responsible for contacting the University community, the general public, and the media, as necessary.

Each functional area of the University has developed a departmental Emergency Plan. This document outlines strategies for addressing departmental responsibilities during emergencies, and for coordinating with the Campus Emergency Operations Team.

Individual Department/Unit Emergency Operating Plan Functions are listed in the Appendix.

St. John’s has implemented Emergency Readiness Training modules for Employees, Managers and Faculty. Each module uniquely addresses the target audience and highlights the key elements of the University’s Emergency Plan, roles of key players and reviews the systems of notification used to communicate with the University Community. The manager and faculty training modules also include a presentation by the Office of Student Wellness which addresses recognizing signs, symptoms and response to students and/or employee mental health issues, as appropriate. The Employee and Manager training is mandatory for all employees, the Faculty session are strongly encouraged. St. John’s exercises its Emergency Plans each year by holding numerous exercises to include fire drills.
EMERGENCY RESPONSE LEADERSHIP

An Executive Emergency Management Team (EEMT), drawn from the University’s senior administrative and academic leadership coordinates the campus response to major incidents.

The President (or designee) provides executive leadership for the entire emergency response process. The President has appointed the Executive Director, Public Safety as the “Incident Commander” (IC). The IC serves as the Emergency Management Operations Team Leader and is responsible for the operational direction of the response.

The Incident Commander determines whether to activate the Emergency Operations Center (EOC). The Incident Commander will determine whether to convene all or part of the Emergency Management Operations Team. This occurs after emergency conditions have been assessed by Public Safety, Facilities Services or Environmental Health & Safety. After consulting with the President or Provost, the Incident Commander may decide to activate the Executive Emergency Management Command Center. The Incident Commander maintains and updates the Executive Emergency Management Team telephone contact list.

The Incident Commander instructs the Public Safety designee to mobilize the Emergency Management Operations Team, and the Public Safety designee notifies team members.

When emergency conditions abate, the Incident Commander, with appropriate consultation with senior leadership, will determine the appropriate time to de-activate the EOC.
EMERGENCY LEVELS

At St. John’s, emergency incidents are classified according to their severity and potential impact, so that appropriate emergency response operations can be implemented.

LEVEL 1

A minor, localized department or building incident that is quickly resolved with existing University resources or limited outside help.

A Level 1 emergency has little or no impact on personnel or normal operations outside the locally affected area.

Level 1 incidents do not require activation of the University Emergency Operations Center. Impacted personnel or departments coordinate directly with operational department personnel from Public Safety, Environmental Health & Safety, Facilities Services or other units to resolve Level 1 conditions. In some incidents, Marketing and Communications will be asked to activate public information systems to provide necessary bulletins.

A major emergency that disrupts sizable portions of the campus community.

Level 2 emergencies may require assistance from external organizations. These events may escalate quickly, and have serious consequences for mission-critical functions, and/or life safety.

The Incident Commander receives intelligence from responding operational departments or from governmental agencies, determines whether to activate all or part of the Emergency Management Operations Team and whether to activate a full or partial Emergency Operations Center. This is determined in part on the scope of the incident and the extent of coordination needed to respond.
LEVEL 3 An incident impacting on the entire campus.

Normal University operations could potentially be suspended. The effect of the emergency is wide-ranging and complex. A timely resolution of disaster conditions requires University-wide cooperation and extensive coordination.

The Emergency Plan is activated and all or part of the members of the Emergency Management Operations Team report to campus as directed by the Incident Commander or designee.

SOME IMPORTANT NOTES:

- The designation of a major incident’s emergency level is made by the Incident Commander, in consultation with senior executive leadership.

- The designated level for an incident may change as emergency conditions intensify or ease.

- The Incident Commander is authorized to suspend campus operations if conditions warrant.

When activated, the Emergency Management Operations Team reports to their designated Emergency Operations Center to coordinate decisions and resources. The Queens Campus Emergency Operations Center serves a dual purpose: The Queens EOC functions during a Queens-specific incident; it will also be activated as the University-wide EOC to support the branch campuses. The Executive Emergency Command Center will make policy decisions and coordinate the dissemination of information, as appropriate, to the media and the external community.

An EEMT Directory of critical contacts and resources, a CD-ROM database containing information on employees, students, class locations and emergency contacts information is maintained at the Public Safety office. If the Banner system is not operational and this information cannot be obtained electronically, the CD-ROM functions as a back-up hard copy of the noted source information.
Public Safety (PS) manages the Newman Hall EEMCC and the ROTC Center EOC equipment. PS ensures that appropriate data, contact information, equipment, and supplies are maintained.

When the University Incident Commander activates the Campus Emergency Plan and convenes the Emergency Management Operations Team, the senior Public Safety officer on duty (or an appropriate designee) arranges its equipment and supplies, and coordinates its continued operation. Individuals that comprise the Emergency Management Operations Team represent their functional areas and must be capable of addressing operational issues related to their area. Information regarding food and emergency equipment inventories is furnished in the beginning of each semester to the Emergency Management Coordinator who ensures that this information is made available to the Incident Commander and is updated by the responsible functional area (Facilities Services and Auxiliary Services). Both of these departments are expected to provide current information regarding their inventories upon activation of the Emergency Operations Center.

It is noted that, based on the scenario, at the Incident Commander’s discretion, not all of the members of the Emergency Management Operations Team may be activated.

When the Emergency Management Operations Team assembles, its responsibilities are to:

- Determine the scope and impact of the incident
- Classify emergency response type i.e. evacuation or stay in place
- Prioritize emergency actions
- Deploy and coordinate resources and equipment
- Communicate critical information and instructions through the appropriate command chain
- Monitor and re-evaluate conditions
- Supply on a routine basis updated information to the Incident Commander
- Coordinate with government agencies
EVACUATION/STAY IN PLACE

Regardless of the type of emergency there are one or two types of actions that will be initiated by Public Safety to ensure the safety of the University community. Based on the nature of the incident, individuals may be instructed by Public Safety to stay in place or an evacuation will be initiated. The Incident Commander may decide that the evacuation of a building or campus is not an appropriate course of action. Examples of such incidents could be:

- An armed hostage situation
- A riot outside the campus perimeter
- A hazardous or toxic airborne plume

Members of the University Community will receive stay in place instructions and routine updated communication via the numerous communication systems such as text messaging, public address systems, classroom telephone, web announcement, e-mail messages, etc. as deemed appropriate by the Incident Commander based on the incident scenario. It is noted that Public Safety routinely monitors news events and in a significant emergency will be in direct communication with the municipal offices of emergency management and first responders.

If a fire alarm sounds members of the University Community, through routine fire drills, are expected to immediately evacuate the building. In order to enhance the University’s evacuation procedures individual members of the University Community have volunteered to be Emergency Evacuation Volunteers.

Every campus building shall have pre-designated Emergency Evacuation Volunteers (EEVs). These individuals shall be under the direction of Public Safety. These individuals are not first responders. They assist in encouraging others in their area to evacuate or to stay in place, as directed by PS and they are expected to have situational awareness of their workplace and to report to PS any hazardous or suspicious items. Such employees shall be capable of directing the overall evacuation of the occupants and assist in accounting for building occupants in the Evacuation Assembly Area or an area designated by Public Safety.

The EEVs shall direct their respective floor evacuations; search their individual surrounding areas as appropriate based on the nature of the emergency. In addition to directing their floor evacuation EEVs would be expected to be able to relay information to a Public Safety Officer concerning injured or special-needs personnel that are in need of immediate attention. At times, the EEVs will assist in identifying hazards and suspicious items and communicating to the appropriate campus authority.
GENERAL EVACUATION PROCEDURES

When evacuating the building or work area:

- Stay calm
- Do not rush or panic
- Safely stop work
- Gather personal belongings if it is safe to do so. Reminder: take prescription medications, keys, purse, glasses, etc. if at all possible since it may be hours before occupants are allowed back in the building
- If safe, close the office door and window, but do not lock them
- Use the nearest safe stairs and proceed to the nearest exit – Do not use the elevator
- Proceed to the designated Evacuation Assembly Area
- Wait for instructions from emergency responders
- Do not re-enter the building or work area until instructed to do so by the proper authorities

At the direction of the Incident Commander, and in coordination with the appropriate functional areas of the University, specific communication venues would be utilized to communicate with the University Community.

STAY IN PLACE PROCEDURES

Based on the nature of the incident, individuals may be instructed by Public Safety to stay in place. If you are instructed to stay in place:

- Do not stand in hallways or stairwells
- Do not stand near windows or doors
- Do not leave your immediate area if you are in a room
- Wait for further instructions

Members of the University Community will receive stay in place instructions and routine updated communication via the numerous communication systems such as text messaging, public address systems, classroom telephone, web announcement, e-mail messages, etc. as deemed appropriate by the Incident Commander based on the incident scenario.
Emergency Notification and Communication

Emergency notification is triggered by an event that is currently occurring on or immediately threatening the campus. Any confirmed significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of the University community will activate the emergency notification and communication protocol. The University has the capacity to employ a variety of communications tools and systems to inform the University community in a timely and accurate manner. This multilayered approach to notification and communications will insure the widest distribution of our message, and provide back-up in the event of power or system interruptions. The following is an overview of our notification and communication systems;

- Emergency Notification Messaging System

  All members of the University Community are encouraged to enroll in the Emergency Notification Messaging System. This alert system will issue both text and voice messages when a significant emergency occurs on our campuses. These messages will communicate what emergency currently exists, the location of the emergency, and advise a course of action. There will be updates issued as the emergency situation evolves. In order to be enrolled in the system members of the University Community must log into UIS. On your Personal Information Menu click on “Update your emergency information for Instant Messaging System. Enter the phone (cell or off-campus wired phone) number that you want to receive the emergency alert, starting with area code and leaving out the hyphen between the third and fourth numbers.

- Campus Emergency Information Hotlines

  718-990-5252- SJU Public Safety

  718-990-2000- SJU Call Center- University Emergency Bulletins

  The emergency information hotlines are equipped to handle a high volume of calls through a partnership with a disaster management service provider. In the event of a large scale emergency, it is expected that the established University hotlines will receive a tremendous amount of calls. We are able to activate a call center that can handle any overflow of received calls. The call center is staffed by behavioral health professionals who can communicate critical real time information and provide assistance as warranted. We have the ability to process thousands of calls per hour, a volume that is not uncommon for a significant crisis. Call Center professionals are trained in response protocols and how to coordinate the resources of St. John’s University. In the event of a power outage or interruption of phone service, we also have the ability to provide a toll free phone number for persons to utilize. We have the additional capacity to activate SJU Call Center personnel to operate the call center remotely if we are unable to staff the SJU on campus Call Center.
• Websites/Social Media/E-mail

Direct e-mails will be sent to the University community, and emergency messages and announcements will be posted on the following websites/social media:

St. John’s web site: stjohns.edu
Twitter- twitter.com/STJohnsU
Facebook- facebook.com/stjohnsu

• Digital Signage

Digital Signage (Electronic Bulletin Boards) are located in public spaces throughout the University. All emergency text messages will automatically be posted to these bulletin boards.

• Public Address System

There are public address system speakers located throughout the University. These speakers are located inside of buildings and outdoors. In the event of an emergency, messages may be delivered through our public address system.

• Classroom Telephones

All University classrooms are equipped with a telephone to communicate during an emergency. Each phone has a five-digit extension and is capable of calling:

A. 911 – NYC Emergency Hotline
B. Public Safety
C. IT Classroom Support

When making an emergency call to any of the above numbers; your location, building, room number, and phone extension will be immediately displayed on the receiver’s Caller ID. As an example, a call from Marillac Hall, Room 212 with an extension of 28040, shows as follows: Marillac Hall 212 28040.

This will allow first responders to immediately identify where the problem exists and will facilitate the appropriate action. Because these phones are intended for use in emergency situations, it is imperative that the phones’ ringers remain on at all times.

• Posted bulletins & flyers

During certain emergencies, current information and instructions may be posted on public bulletin boards, and flyers may be distributed as needed.

• Satellite Phones

Public Safety and designated individuals on all campuses have access to satellite phones to further enhance and ensure communications capability during the time of an emergency, particularly if there are interruptions in normal telephone systems.
Family Assistance Center

St. John’s University has developed a plan to activate and operate a Family Assistance Center (FAC) in the event of a large scale emergency incident that has a significant impact on the University community. A FAC would be activated when a significant number of victims and/or family members are expected to request information and assistance. The purpose of the FAC is to provide support and assistance to the family members of persons who are killed, injured, or otherwise impacted by the incident. It is a central location where family members can gather in a safe and secure environment, and receive support services. Although each incident varies in the size, scope, and complexity, there are common needs that the FAC is designed to address. The following are some of the services that the FAC could provide:

- Information- Regular briefings by St. John’s University senior leadership and representatives from government agencies. Media would not be permitted in the FAC, and they would receive briefings at another location.
- Support- St. John’s University personnel would provide emotional and pastoral support as needed.
- Logistics- St. John’s University personnel would provide assistance in travel, lodging, and local transportation needs.
- Site features- Each site would have a variety of spaces that could host large briefings, as well as smaller private rooms for individual families to utilize. Cafeteria services would provide meals and beverages. Access to computers, telephones, and the internet would also be provided. A meditation/reflection room is also available for use.

Location- The location of the FAC will be determined by the location and particulars of the incident. There are currently two (2) locations that have been designated as a FAC location. One is on the SJU Queens Campus, and the other is located approximately 1 mile from the Queens Campus. Both locations are owned and operated exclusively by SJU and there is parking available. Members of the media are not permitted into the locations. The FAC is limited to affected families, SJU personnel, and government agencies. The following are the designated FAC locations:

- Bartillucci Center (Off Campus)
  175-05 Horace Harding Expressway, Fresh Meadows, NY 11365
- Carnesecca Arena (Queens Campus)
- Marillac Hall (Queens Campus Alternative)
  8000 Utopia Parkway, Queens, NY 11439
EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS
OPERATING PLAN
BY EMERGENCY TYPE

Introduction

Based on a risk assessment conducted by Public Safety, in conjunction with the other major functional areas of the University, eight (8) specific types of emergencies have been identified as the most likely to occur. They are as follows: adverse weather conditions; bomb threats; extended power failures; fire and explosions; hazardous materials release; hostage situation and workplace violence/active shooter and pandemic threat.

The major functional areas of the University have specific responsibilities and have developed protocols in conjunction with the overall University Emergency Management Structure. These protocols have been developed to address Readiness, Response and Recovery as they pertain to each specific functional area. Specific types of emergencies have been identified and general information, to include initial actions to be taken, is supplied for each type.

These protocols have been developed jointly by the functional area and in coordination with, reviewed by and maintained by Public Safety and are part of the University’s overall Emergency Plan.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Adverse Weather Conditions

Severe weather conditions can adversely impact on the operations of the University. Public Safety, in conjunction with Facilities Services, routinely monitors weather forecasts in order to prepare the appropriate functional areas to prepare for and respond to the projected weather conditions and to make informed recommendations either to close the University, initiate a delayed opening or early dismissal.

University Community
As noted, the Department of Public Safety, in conjunction with Facilities services, routinely monitors the weather forecast. If adverse weather is forecasted for our area, protocols are in place to evaluate the impact on the campuses and access routes to the University. Public Safety personnel are deployed to address and remediate the impact on the campus, and to evaluate, on an on-going basis, the safety conditions on campus. If adverse weather impacts the University outside of normal business hours, the University community has been instructed to listen to identified radio and television stations for closure or delayed opening information (individuals who have signed up for the Emergency Notification Instant Messaging System will be advised by Text Message). Also, the University community may contact the University at 718-990-2000 for opening and closing information. If adverse weather affects the campuses during normal business hours, information will be supplied through departmental supervisors and established electronic communication notices.

Initial Action
Upon being informed that the University may be impacted by an adverse weather condition, the Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will initiate enhanced communications with Facilities Services. Staffing levels, equipment conditions and readiness will be evaluated. A well-exercised communication calling tree, comprised of specific functional areas, will be initiated to ensure that senior leadership can make an informed decision regarding University closure or other appropriate actions. In cases of high wind conditions, protocols are in place to canvas the campuses and prevent any unsecured items from becoming projectiles. The Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will determine if the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) is to be activated, and functional area representatives will be notified as appropriate.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Bomb Threats

Bomb threats pose a serious threat to the safety and order of the University and are always taken seriously by the Public Safety Department.

University Community

Bombs, explosive devices and bomb threats present a significant problem to the institution of higher learning and other public and high profile institutions. Periodically the University community will be sent training updates regarding this threat and appropriate actions to be taken. Instructional information follows:

Members of the University Community should be cognizant of their work environment and be aware to any suspicious items. Do not touch any suspicious items, but rather contact Public Safety immediately. Stay calm and do not panic, follow the instructions of the Public Safety Officers and the Emergency Evacuation Volunteers.

If you receive a bomb threat by phone try to secure as much specific information as possible, location of the bomb, campus building, floor, room, time of detonation, or any other descriptive information. Pay attention to your telephone display and record the number shown. Pay attention to any background noise and distinctive sounds such as, traffic, other voices, television, music, machinery, etc. Note the characteristics of caller's voice such as, gender, age, education, and accent. Immediately after the caller has ended the call contact Public Safety. If the threat was left in your voice mail, do not erase.

Initial Action

A bomb threat may come to the attention of the University in various ways. It is important to compile as much information as possible in order to determine what location should be searched and/or evacuated.

Most bomb threats are delivered by telephone. The caller usually calls when someone can receive the threat. The phone offers the caller a cloak of secrecy. Each threat MUST BE HANDLED AS IF IT IS GENUINE. Upon receiving information regarding a bomb threat Public Safety will immediately contact the Police Department. The Executive Director of Public Safety will ensure that the University senior leadership is informed of the incident.
Public Safety Officers will be dispatched to the noted location and initiate a search pursuant to their established protocols. Emergency Evacuation Volunteers will be contacted to provide situational awareness of their area and to advise if there are any specific suspicious items. This will help focus the area to be searched. Public Safety will also coordinate their efforts with Facilities Services, who may be able to supply specific facility information as required.

Public Safety will coordinate with the municipal first responders and render assistance as required. The decision to evacuate a building is generally determined on specificity of information regarding the bomb threat. The Executive Director of Public Safety will notify senior leadership of the threat and will make the decision whether to activate the Emergency Operation Center and/or contact specific functional areas. The Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will determine if there is a clear and present danger and initiate an evacuation, as he deems appropriate, based on available information.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Extended Power Failure

Power failures resulting in the loss of electricity to one or more campuses can be extremely disruptive and pose a safety issue to the University community.

University Community
As noted, an extended power failure can be most disruptive to the work environment. More importantly, it can present a safety issue. The University community is instructed as follows:

It is important that if power is lost in your work area, you immediately attempt to notify Public Safety. Public Safety will immediately dispatch officers to the effected area and contact Facilities Services to determine cause and possible duration. Stay calm; if Public Safety initiates an evacuation of your area, follow the instructions of the Public Safety officers and the Emergency Evacuation Volunteers assigned to your building. Public Safety will keep evacuees informed of the status of the outage and projected time, if known, to re-enter the building. A calm, orderly evacuation, when advised by Public Safety, will ensure the safety of the University Community.

Initial Action
The Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will establish enhanced coordination and communication with Facilities Services upon being notified of a power failure. Public Safety Officers, as appropriate, will be deployed to the effected area. If the power failure is extensive, i.e., it effects a portion of the campus or the surrounding community, Public Safety will contact, through established communication chains, the municipal first responders and the emergency management agency. Together, they will ascertain the cause and work to implement any incident specific course of action. The Executive Director of Public Safety will also establish contact with senior leadership to inform them of the incident, action taken, and recommendations regarding closure. Based on the extent, cause, and possible duration, the Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will make a determination to activate the Emergency Operation Center (EOC). Public Safety will contact the specific functional areas, as appropriate, to the incident.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Fires and Explosions

Fires, and to a lesser degree, explosions present a constant threat to institutions of higher learning. Public Safety currently monitors fire safety equipment such as sprinklers, fire extinguishers and know hazardous material on our campuses. Evacuation protocols are exercised regularly with scheduled fire drills.

University Community
Fires and explosions are a significant threat to the safety of the University community. In addition to regularly scheduled fire drills, periodically the University community will receive training updates on how to respond to this threat. These training updates include the following general information:

If you observe a fire, alert those in your immediate area, evacuate the area, and activate the closest fire alarm pull station. Call Public Safety or 911. When a fire alarm is activated, immediately evacuate the building and follow instructions of Public Safety officers and Emergency Evacuation Volunteers. The routine fire drills conducted by the University help to ensure an immediate and safe evacuation of all individuals in a building. Treat every fire drill as the real thing. Initiate evacuation of the building immediately upon hearing the fire alarm. If an explosion occurs and overhead items are falling in your area take refuge under a sturdy table or desk. If there are severe smoke conditions, stay low to the floor and exit the building as quickly as possible. If you are trapped in debris, tap on a pipe or wall so that rescuers can hear you. Understand that persons should not attempt to rescue people who are inside a collapsed building. Public Safety will immediately contact professional first responders who will initiate appropriate rescue activities.

Initial Action
Fires and explosions present a serious threat to the University. An explosion is caused by a rapid expansion of gas from a chemical reaction or incendiary devices. Signs of an explosion may be a very loud sound or a series of noises and vibrations, fire, heat, or smoke, falling glass or debris.

The Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will make a determination to activate the Emergency Operation Center (EOC). Public Safety will contact specific functional areas, as appropriate to the incident. Upon being notified, Public Safety will ensure appropriate fire alarms have been activated, contact municipal first responders, and deploy officers to direct evacuation activities. The Executive Director of Public Safety will enhance communication with the Facilities Services and Environmental Health and Safety, and advise senior leadership of the incident.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan

Response Actions: Hazardous Materials Release

Detailed information regarding hazardous material release is contained in the University’s regulatory contingency plans. Below is a brief summary of this information.

University Community

Immediately upon discovering that a spill has occurred or has the potential to occur, notify Public Safety (ext. 5252) of the situation. The employee reporting the incident should provide as much information as possible regarding the type, nature and location of the spill. Some employees are trained to control small and incidental spills and leaks which result in “non-emergencies” or “Level I emergencies.” The employees will protect life and minimize losses by evacuating and preventing entry into potentially dangerous areas.

Initial Action

On receiving a call about an incident on campus, Public Safety will dispatch an officer to investigate the incident. Public Safety will notify representatives from Environmental Health & Safety. Public Safety and/or Environmental Health & Safety personnel will immediately assess the reported emergency. The assessment will evaluate:

- Steps necessary to protect life, health, environment, and facility operations.
- Whether outside emergency responders are needed.

The emergency responders will immediately determine the need for and extent of evacuation (if not already accomplished). Small and incidental spills and leaks which result in “non-emergencies” or “Level I emergencies will be handled in-house. Larger incidents, characterized as a Level II or Level III emergency, will necessitate the activation of this Emergency Plan. Public Safety will contact the Fire Department and/or outside response contractors and ask them to respond to the incident. The Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will activate the Emergency Management Operations Team (EOT) as appropriate.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Hostage Situation/Work Place Violence

Violent incidents, including but not limited to hostage situations and incidents of workplace violence/active shooter can occur on the University campus, or in the vicinity of a campus, with little or no warning.

University Community
A hostage situation by its very nature is extremely volatile not only for those physically involved in the situation, but it also presents a safety issue for the University community on campus. Periodically the University community will be sent training updates regarding this threat and appropriate actions to be taken. Information to be disseminated includes: Upon being aware of hostage or violent situation, if in a safe location, contact 911 or Public Safety. Remain calm. Pay close attention to your captors if you are involved in a hostage situation and observe their behavior. Cooperate with all requests and stay alert.

The Mission of the University, the accessibility of management and supervisory personnel, the viable and robust Campus Ministry and Human Resources departments and other resources reduce the likelihood of workplace violence/active shooter. It does not, however, preclude it.

St. John’s University has a zero tolerance policy for violence in the workplace. Any form of violent behavior, from the seemingly insignificant to the significant, is inherently destructive to the fabric of our University community and will not be tolerated. Employees have a responsibility to report promptly to their immediate supervisor all threats or incidents of workplace violence/active shooter, whether they are directed at the employee or at another member of the University community. The supervisor, Public Safety and Human Resources will coordinate an appropriate response.

For the purpose of this policy, the University community includes, but is not limited to, all faculty, administrators, staff (including student workers), students, alumni, interns, members of the Board of Trustees, and members of University-sponsored advisory committees. Visitors to the University, vendors and service-providers also may be subject to this policy. All employees of the University should familiarize themselves with Human Resource Policy #708 covering violence in the workplace.

Initial Action
In a hostage situation occurring on campus The Executive Director of Public Safety will notify senior leadership of the threat and will make the decision regarding activating the emergency operations center and or contacting specific functional areas. The Executive Director of Public Safety will determine if there is a clear and present danger and will initiate an evacuation or a stay in place protocol for designated areas, as deemed appropriate based on available information.
Public Safety has specific policies and procedures to address such situations and mandatory training for active shooter for all employees of the University the content of which is reviewed yearly.

Upon being notified of a workplace violence/active shooter incident, the Executive Director of Public Safety, or designee, will determine the level and initiate response. The local Police Department will be contacted via 911. University senior leadership will be notified. Based on the severity of the situation, the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) will be activated, as appropriate.
Emergency Preparedness Operating Plan
Response Actions: Pandemic Threat

There have been significant recent outbreaks of pandemic threats recently such as Avian Flu, H1N1 Virus, and Ebola Virus. There is a significant potential for a pandemic (a worldwide epidemic) that could affect the SJU community.

University Community
The University is most concerned with the health and well being of the University Community members. The Department of Environmental Health and Safety, in conjunction with the Departments of Health and Wellness and Emergency Management to keep the University Community informed about health and safety issues. An information campaign, which includes posters and e-mail notice, outlining basic respiratory etiquette, e.g. cover your cough, use tissues, clean hands often, etc. was launched to encourage members of the University Community to become aware of how to stop the spread of germs. A Health and Wellness intranet webpage has been established to communicate news, information and useful links for the use of the members of the University Community. University Community members who plan to travel internationally are urged to visit the Center for Disease Control and Department of State website for updated information and to register their overseas travel with the United States Department of State.

Initial Action
The Department of Environmental Health and Safety and the Department of Health and Wellness monitor the Center for Disease Control (CDC), World Health Organization (WHO) and the US Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) websites for countries reporting issues public health issues and recommendations for traveling abroad. They also maintain routine coordination with St. John’s Student Life, Health and Wellness Department. In view of the unique facets of a pandemic threat, a specific, level based Pandemic Response Plan has been developed in conjunction with the functional areas of the University.
