FINANCIAL AID

St. John's offers transparency regarding available aid and other opportunities to offset the cost of graduate studies. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is available for entering graduate students who seek financial assistance from any federal or institutional sources of funding. Visit fafsa.edu.gov and apply using St. John's federal institution code 002823.

A limited number of Graduate Assistantships and University Fellowships are granted to various academic departments within each School and College of the University. Graduate Assistantships may also be available in administrative departments.

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of merit-based scholarships are available to first-year graduate students who enroll in specified St. John's master's degree programs. Students accepted to St. John's are automatically considered for merit-based scholarships. They are notified about these scholarships at the time of, or shortly after, acceptance.

YELLOW RIBBON PROGRAM

St. John's is a proud participant in the Yellow Ribbon Program, a US Department of Veterans Affairs program that provides financial assistance and academic support to post-9/11 veterans pursuing higher education.

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

College of Pharmacy
and Health Sciences

Since its founding in 1929, the College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences at St. John's University has trained scholars and practitioners who are respected for the quality of their contributions and compassion for those they serve. Advanced degree programs within the College rely on original research and discovery through rigorous scientific investigation in order to advance our understanding of the world.

The College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences offers Anatomage virtual dissection tables at the University's Queens campus and Dr. Andrew J. Bartilucci Center. The Anatomage is the world's first and most technologically advanced virtual dissection table for anatomy education, and it can effectively replace expensive and cumbersome cadaver laboratories.
