(see reverse side)
Established in 1995, the “Insurance Leader of the Year Award” has annually recognized the contributions of outstanding individuals whose leadership in the worldwide insurance and financial services industry set them apart from their peers. On the occasion of the Award’s 25th Anniversary an Insurance Leader “Lifetime Leadership” Award was bestowed upon Maurice R. Greenberg, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of C. V. Starr & Co., Inc.

The Maurice R. Greenberg School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science (GSRM) was founded in 1901 as the Insurance Society of New York and over the years evolved into The College of Insurance (TCI). In June of 2001, TCI merged with St. John’s University, becoming the School of Risk Management, Insurance and Actuarial Science (SRM), part of The Peter J. Tobin College of Business. On the occasion of celebrating Mr. Greenberg’s “Lifetime Leadership” Award in January 2020, it was announced that the University Board of Trustees had voted to rename SRM in his honor, effective immediately.

St. John’s University awards undergraduate, M.B.A., and M.S. degrees in the insurance, risk management, and actuarial science disciplines. Through the Tobin College’s Center for Executive Education, the University also provides education, training, and consulting services to industry, governments, and regulators worldwide. GSRM is a global leader in risk and insurance education and training and draws candidates from many regions of the world. All degree programs offered by the Tobin College of Business, and thus by GSRM, are fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

I wish to support the Greenberg School of Risk Management and honor Alan Schnitzer as follows:
