

litigation; regulatory issues such as US Food and Drug Administration communications, reporting, and approvals; and compliance issues such as internal policy creation and training.

He transitioned to a focused compliance role in 2012 at Allergan, an AbbVie Inc. company (formerly, Actavis and Forest Labs). This role supported sales, marketing, and commercial teams as a business partner to make smart business decisions consistent with company policy, government regulation, and the law. A large focus included employee training, monitoring, and policy development. Recently, the compliance team was recognized as the 2020 Global Function Team of the Year, and compliance members were included on the 2020 General Medicine Cross-Functional Team of the Year.

Allen Sieh '19Pharm.D.
Associate Medical Director
ProHEALTH Care

Allen Sieh '19Pharm.D. is currently an Associate Medical Director at ProHEALTH Care. Dr. Sieh is the medical lead for several medical affairs and medical information projects in the cardiology/nephrology space. He has also played a key role in the development of various peer-to-peer educational materials for a multiple sclerosis treatment. Additionally, he has experience supporting a drug launch by contributing to the development of advisory board materials for a wet age-related macular degeneration treatment.

Notes:

FAITHFUL TO THE MISSION
ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

Dean's Hour: Nontraditional Pathways

November 18
4:30–6 p.m.

Featured Speakers

Victoria Bartasek, R.Ph. '97P
*Senior Associate Director, Global Pharmacovigilance
Boehringer-Ingelheim*

Victoria Bartasek, R.Ph. '97P is a Senior Associate Director, Global Pharmacovigilance, at Boehringer-Ingelheim. In this role, Ms. Bartasek has led a cross-functional global team focused on improving processes and systems related to the handling of serious adverse events from clinical trials and ensuring global regulatory compliance related to clinical trial processes within global pharmacovigilance. She currently leads a team responsible for the coordination, review, and operational approval of all marketing and patient support programs worldwide.

Prior to Boehringer-Ingelheim, Ms. Bartasek spent 14 years at Pfizer Inc. in Global Pharmacovigilance, where she held various positions with increasing responsibility, most recently as Director, Worldwide Safety and Regulatory Operations, where she led the initiative for the global safety database transition. She began her pharmaceutical career at Novartis as a Clinical Safety Scientist and is a registered pharmacist by trade. She graduated from St. John's University's College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences and also holds a Master of Business Administration degree in finance and marketing from Dowling College.

Kenneth Joseph, Pharm.D.
*Manager II, Specialty Channel Strategy
Market Access–Trade and Distribution–US Specialty*

Kenneth Joseph, Pharm.D., is currently a Specialty Channel Strategy Lead, Market Access, Trade and Distribution, for multiple Specialty Portfolio products at AbbVie Inc. In this role, he is responsible for implementing innovative clinical programs and executing business strategies to increase patient access and adherence, as well as to enhance the patient journey. The programs are operationalized in selected pharmacies and have a health informatics component that is utilized to help strategize from a business intelligence perspective.

Prior to AbbVie, Dr. Joseph worked at Walgreens in a vast array of different leadership capacities ranging from, but not limited to, Community Engagement Lead, University Relations, Pharmacy Management, and most recently at Walgreens corporate headquarters in Deerfield, IL, supporting the company's multichannel specialty pharmacy model across the nation in their Biopharmaceutical Business Development Division.

After a 12-year tenure with Walgreens, he left to pursue a new adventure and joined AbbVie Inc. in late 2018. Dr. Joseph obtained his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, where he was elected, most notably, Mr. College of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Pharmacy Student Council President, and Graduate Student Body President. He is also a member of the Delta Iota chapter of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity, Inc., as well as the Upsilon Psi chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Dr. Joseph still actively mentors students as a career coach and guest lecturer at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, the University of Florida, the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC), and several other institutions. He is also currently completing his M.B.A. at UIC's Liautaud Graduate School of Business, where he also sits on the Board of Directors for the Center for Supply Chain Management and Logistics.

Lance Moore, R.Ph., J.D. '99P, '04L
*Executive Director, US Commercial Compliance
Allergan, an AbbVie Inc. company*

Lance Moore, R.Ph., J.D. '99P, '04L graduated cum laude in 1999 from St. John's University's College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions with a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy and a minor in business. He has been a registered pharmacist since 1999. While at St. John's, he interned at the American Pharmacists Association \(APhA\) and was a member of various clubs and organizations, including the men's lacrosse team, President's Society, and the APhA Academy of Student Pharmacists. He graduated from St. John's School of Law in 2004 and was admitted to the New York Bar in 2005.

Mr. Moore worked for Genovese Drug Stores, Inc. from 1995 to 1999 in various roles as a pharmacist, graduate student, intern, and technician. After graduating from pharmacy school, he worked as a sales representative for Eli Lilly and Company from 1999 to 2004, where he educated physicians on products in the diabetes and neuroscience diseases states while earning sales awards such as Presidents Council, Executive Council, Leadership Circle, and District Peer Award.

After graduating from law school, Mr. Moore took a position at Pedinol Pharmacal Inc., a small pharma company on Long Island, NY, as the Regulatory Affairs Director and Legal Executive from 2005 to 2012. His responsibilities ranged from handling legal issues such as contracts and